SPRING!

Clothing For Men

THE fitting kind, The wearing kind, the kind that holds together both material and friendship. The original kind, handled by original people, who lead but never follow, don't go estray, but come to headquarters for your Spring Suit where you are assured of being handed out the best for your money every time and no bouquets.

CLOTHING

in great profusion. If you have two or three suits to buy (and want to take a pleasure trip to Baltimore) come here and we will hand you enough difference in the cost between the markets, to pay your expenses for a little trip, this is a fact we are demonstrating to close observers every day.

Hats and Caps

to suit anybody most; all the new shapes in Soft and Stiff for Men, Boys and Children, are now ready for inspection and when you hear us talk of seasonable goods, we have them on the spot, we have them right here to fill hurried demands, hence you are not compelled to wait to have ordered for you.

SEPARATE TROUSERS in all conceivable weaves at all prices. NECKWEAR, FANCY HALF HOSE, GLOVES and all the little perquisites to complete your toilet.

All our various lines will be quoted (as usual) at fair square prices with no bouquets or bates pinned to any one special article, uniformity pervades our entire system.

MOODY & LUSBY,

Square Dealing Clothiers,

Opposite Court House, CHESTERTOWN, MD.

PERSONAL TIDINGS.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. Walter Morris, who has been quite sick for two months, is no better, but her many friends hope for an early improvement.

Mr. and Mrs. James L. Beck entertained the St. Paul Sewing Society on Thursday evening at supper. There were over one hundred persons present and an enjoyable evening was spent.

Mr. Wm. B. Usilton, who has been unwell for several months past, entered the Baltimore City Hospital on Wednesday for special treatment. His daughter, Miss Clara, is with him.

Mrs. M. A. I. Stephens, of Baltimore, is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Reese Beck, on Maple avenue.

Capt. James E. Taylor, general agent of the Chester River Steamboat Co., spent several days in town this week and received a warm welcome from his many friends here. He promises a daily boat from Chestertown in a few weeks.

Mr. Tilghman Shafer, of Kennedyville was thrown from a wagon one day last week and hurt his hand and arm. We are glad he is able to be about and attend to business.

Mr. Vernon Barnet has been prospecting about Newport News the past week for a brick yard.

Miss Anna B. Smith is visiting friends in New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. York, of 1526 East Biddle street, gave their daughter, Miss Grace Celeste York, a birthday reception last week in honor of her 17th birthday.

Mr. G. B. Krusen, formerly of Still Pond, but now one of Vineland's hustling business men, has been on a visit to his brother, Undertaker Krusen.

Mrs. Wm. T. Stillwell, and attractive daughter, Miss Constance, of Mt. Royal Terrace, Baltimore, are guests at the Hotel Imperial for several weeks.

Misses Etta Mitchell and Hattie Hosmer, two popular Baltimore city young ladies, have been guests of Col. Josiah Massey and family for a week.

Mrs. Wm. Stanley, of Still Pond, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Ireland in town this week.

Miss Sophia Miller, teacher of Lynch's school, has resigned, same to take effect at end of term.

Mrs. A. Blum and two interesting children have been in Baltimore this week visiting friends.

Mrs. Sarah J. Ford has been appointed postmistress at Golt's.

Mr. and Mrs James G. Beck moved to their Maple avenue home last week.

Mr J. B. McIntyre went to Baltimore Monday for treatment of his chin by Dr. Chambers.

Mr. Bayard Vansant, of Galena, has entered Stam's drug store as clerk in place of Mr. Beauchamp who goes to Lewes, Del.

Mr. Roland Parks is visiting relatives in Baltimore.

Prof. E. J. Clarke was called to his home at Pocomoke City this week by the death of his father-in-law, Mr. C. C. Lloyd, one of the most prominent and upright citizens of that town. The church was unable to contain the crowds that attended the funeral on Monday.

Mrs. Mamie Dodd and daughter, Marguerite, are visiting friends in Baltimore.

Miss Alice Josephine Willson, of Trumpington, Kent county, Md., who has been spending the winter with her sister and niece at No. 500 W. Fourth street, returned home on Saturday last, accompanied by her niece, Mrs. S. J. Bowen.—Wilmington Morning News.

Private W. H. Beck, of Company B., U. S. M. C., and now in Washington, accompanied by Sergeant Weidman, recently returned from the Philippines, were the guests over Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. H. Beck, corner College avenue and Calvert street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCreary, of Baltimore, have been spending awhile with Mrs. J. S Patten, near town.

Mr. James S. Patten is expected home soon from a long trip out West, where he has had great success with one of his patents.

Mrs. Gale and two daughters, Nannie and Helen, will remove from Chestertown to Baltimore. Their absence from our midst is to be regretted and the best wishes of many friends go with them.

Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Smyth and Mr. Bruel attended the dedication of the handsome Townsend M. E. Church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, Messrs. W. W. Chapman and R. Beachamp, attended the Nordica-Duss concert in Baltimore last Friday evening.
