WM. F. RUSSELL, Chairman.

MR. CHAS. ENGLAND, one of the "old line" Republicans, announced his candidacy for Treasurer Tuesday and will make for Sheriff Casey, Judge Hudson and all other rivals a warm contest.

A. S. GOLDSBOROUGH, ESQ., has been elected Chief clerk of the first branch city council without opposition. He deserves this flattering recognition. He was one of the best speakers during McLane's campaign and this success was predicted in the NEWS some weeks ago.

MR. JOHN C. BENNETT, of near Still Pond, is said to be slated to be the candidate for county commissioner on the Republican ticket, while Mr. Joseph E. Mallalieu, a well-known fighter lately removed from Queen Anne's, is to be the candidate from the first district.

HON. ROBERT M. MCLANE was sworn in as Mayor of Baltimore city Tuesday, without any extensive ceremony, succeeding Mayor Thomas G. Hayes. He is the youngest mayor Baltimore has ever had, being 36 years old, and promises to make a most excellent official.

MR W. H. BLAKENEY has notified the workmen in his Cannon street carriage shop that on and after Monday, May 25th, eight hours will constitute a day's work. The fight for the 8-hour day is going on all over the country, but Mr. Blakeney is the first one in this section to adopt the system. Who will be the next?

HON. CHARLES T. WESTCOTT escorted a large party of Baltimore and Richmond capitalists to inspect the property of the Alabama Consolidated Coal and Iron Company. Mr. Westcott in addition to his connection with the International Trust Company is also treasurer of the Coal & Iron Co. The tourists are interested in the Alabama Coal and Iron Company, which is upon a dividend-paying basis. It is proposed to develop the property by the erection of a new furnace and by opening and developing additional coal and iron mines.

THE United States Court of Appeals held on Tuesday that the Pennsylvania Railroad had a legal right to remove the poles and wires of the Western Union Telegraph Company from along the railroad's right of way. This act on the part of the railroad company will result in the Western Union moving its offices out of the depots of the company and establishing new ones. The telegraph business will be conducted by the operators of the railroad as heretofore, but the messages instead of being sent over the Western Union wires will be sent over those of the Postal company until the system being established by the railroad company is put in operation.

GOV. PENNYPACKER, of Pennsylvania, is to be pitied. He has impaled himself upon the very lance with which he would have curtailed the influence of the press. He has become the target of every cartoonist in the country, and in his weak excuse for signing the press-muzzle law gave the public a view of the ugly motive which prompted him. Here is what one of the most partizan Republican papers in Wilmington says, which is mild compared to the Press, Inquirer and others:

"Governor Pennypacker is certainly standing to-day in a most pitiable and unenviable position. He has been forced to apologize to a man whom he described as an "outcast" and one of the men at whom the Governor's libel law was directed. In the meantime Mr. Charles Emory Smith is giving his former friend, the Governor, some very unpleasant half hours."

WHEAT was quoted at 81 cents in Baltimore yesterday.

PARTIES interested in the rival telephone company were in town yesterday and will apply for right to run wires through the county.

THE commissioners will likely declare the tax rate next Tuesday. Strong pressure is being brought to bear to induce the board to divide the payment of the county's indebtedness rather than burden the tax-payers with an exorbitant rate. This is likely to be a bad year for land owners, and if the tax rate is placed at $1.50 the commissioners will certainly be open to censure. Let moderation be practised.

THE jury in the suit of "Charles Broadway Rosseau," who was suing the Charles Broadway Rouss estate in New York for $100,000 for maintenance as a son of Mr. Rouss, returned a verdict for the full amount, with interest of over $5,000. The boy is now 11 years old. Mr. Rouss paid the mother $23,000 before he died with the understanding that "that settled the matter," but a jury decided differently.

IN another column will be found the decision of the Court of Appeals which makes a complete change in the distribution of the State school fund. Under the new method Kent will receive $2,124.98 less than heretofore. This will be a calamity to the children of Kent county and to the public school teachers who receive small compensation for the work performed. The teacher comes next to the parent and should receive sufficient pay to warrant the employment of the best, and after having secured the best teachers the county should be able to keep them. It seems that the counties with the largest colored population are the ones to suffer most by this new interpretation, howevever, it is not only the colored schools that are effected but white schools also share in the loss. If counties with large colored populations are to be shortened in their school funds, then the county school board should have more discretionary powers as to the distribution of the available funds.
