SMILES COME AGAIN TO PRETTY FACES

The Charm of Good Health Has Its Source In Rich Red Blood. Nothing on Earth So Necessary

Pepto-Mangan Builds Red Blood

Restore the Quality of Your Blood, Brings Back Your Color and Renews Vitality.

Personal charm is like a light. It sheds its rays everywhere. Is the light of your personal charm hidden under the bushel of bad blood? Instead of habitual smiles do you wear a tired look—almost a scowl? Do you tire easily? Are you pale and lacking in vital energy and ambition.

You are not really ill. Your blood has become weak and sluggish. It is half starved. What you need is the blood-making qualities of that splendid tonic, Pept-Mangan. After you have taken Pepto-Mangan a little while you will feel a big improvement. The smiles will come back. People will see a difference in you. You will make friends again. You will have plenty of rich, red blood and feel stronger.

Pepto-Mangan has been building red blood for years. Physicians prescribe it right along. It has just the ingredients that starved blood needs. Both have the same effect. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. Ask for "Gude's" and be sure that the full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," is on the package.

Meetings attended here and in Baltimore (4).

By an experiment we find that the hot school lunch is invaluable to the children. In one school where they had it regularly, it had to be discontinued on account of lack of funds. We find that the children in that school who were gaining nicely are loosing weight isn't this an argument in favor of the hot school lunch?..As this lunch consisted of cocoa made of whole milk, doesn't it show that children must have milk in order to thrive?

Respectfully Submitted,
MARGARET Y. ROGERS.

BIG DRAMATIC EVENT COMING

To Philadelphia's New Walnut Theatre Starting Monday, Feb. 21st.

Guy Bates Post and his excellent company are this season appearing in "The Masquerader" one of the few really worth while plays of the decade. The unusual company—the original New York one by the way—with its wealth of scenery, electrical effects and novel revolving stages.

Mr. Post has played "The Masquerader" in Australia and Europe where he scored one of the greatest hits ever made by an American actor.

The story is of two men, John Chilcote and of John Loder. The first is a man born to wealth, society and political leadership. Unfortunately drugs have secured a hold on him, and when the craving comes he is restive under the need for caring for his many important interests.

While Chilcote is in one of these resentful moods he encounters John Loder. Loder is, in every respect his double, except that he has noticeable scar on one of his fingers. Loder is a man well read, well traveled and ambitious to take a place among the leaders of his race.

Chilcote, in the frenzy of morphia, seeks out Loder and proposes that they exchange places. Loder refuses. Chilcote collapses and his man Brock pleads with Loder to represent him as the speaker on an important issue in parliament that night. Lured by the opportunity Loder consents and carried away by the cause for which he pleads scores a National Sensation.

"THE BEST OF LUCK"

A COMING FEATURE

Picturization of Noted Drury Lane Play To Be Seen At The Lyceum Theatre.

"The best of Luck," a picturization of the celebrated Drury Lane melodrama by Cecil Raleigh and Henry Hamilton, presented by an allstar cast is announced as the feature photoplay at the Lyceum Theatre for Friday and Saturday of this week February 11th and 12th.

"The Best of Luck" was converted to the silver sheet by Screen Classics, Inc., and is released by Metro. Upon its stage presention at the Theatre Royal, Drury Lane, London, in 1917, the play was directed by British critics as containing more realistic effects and more thrills than any melodrama that had ever been produced before in that theatre, which is historic as the home of vivid action plays

An outline of the plot of "The Best of Luck," gives an idea of the highly exciting nature of the story. The action revolves about a chest of jewels, once the property of a Spanish Queen, which lies at the bottom of the sea in a wrecked galleon. Leslie Macleod, a beautiful and daring Scottish girl, is pitted against General Lanzana a rich and unscrupulous Spaniard, who seeks to possess not only the lost treasure but Leslie herself.

Lanzana lures Leslie to his apartments and attempts to overcome her; but she escapes with a chart of the ocean bed where the Spanish wreck, the "Santa Ginevra," lies five fathoms deep. With her sweetheart, Lord Glenayr, Leslie goes in quest of the treasure aboard a submarine. They find Lanzana in a diver's suit ahead of them and a thrilling conflict in the deep leads to a surprising climax.

In the all-star cast are Kathryn Adams as Leslie; Jack Holt as Lord Glenayr; Fred Malatesta as Lanzana Lilie Leslie as Lady Westamere, the adventuress, and other distinguished supporting players as follows: Frances Raymond, Emmitt King, Robert Dunbar, Jack Underhill and Effie Conley.

"The Best of Luck," was adapted from its original stage form by A. S. LeVino. Ray C. Smallwood directed the production and Harold Wenstrom is responsible for the clever and unusual camera effects obtained. The picture was personnally supervised by Maxwell Karger, Director-General.

The management of the Lyceum Theatre describes the forthcoming feature attraction as one of the best booked in months and as a 'thriller' that will make even the most blase picturegoer gasp with excitement and delighted surprise.
