VOL. 65 TEN PAGES. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, MAY 30, 1903. TEN PAGES. NO. 4

ON THE LOOKOUT.

—We are always watchful for —the interests of our customers.
—We are anxious to provide the —things which are right and at —a price easily within our —trade's reach. Hence our —steadily growing business. In —the early months of winter,
—when prices were the lowest,
—we were busy culling out the —best things in the way of dress
—necessary to man's comfort for —the hot days. A Flannel or —Crash Coat and Pants will —make an excellent $5.00 in—vestment for the summer.
—For this week we will sell
—Men's Twenty-five cent Un—derwear at 20c.

The Most Satisfactory

and liberal way for a useful and progressive Bank to deal with its depositors is to so conduct its affairs that both the bank and depositors alike will be profited by its business operations. The

Kent County Savings Bank

is just such a banking institution and it cordially invites the young and old and the rich and poor to open an account with it, promising all the liberality, promptness and attention that can in any reasonable way be extended by an obliging and carefully conducted bank.

WEDDING IN WORTON.

A very pretty wedding took place on Wednesday, May 27th, at 7.30, p. m., at the beautiful and pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Carter. The contracting parties were their eldest daughter, Annie Reginia, and William T. Shinn, a young and prosperous farmer near Chestertown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C Clarence M. Jones a cousin of the bride. The bride entered the parlor to the strains of Lohengrin Wedding March beautifully rendered by Miss Lizzie Jones of Kennedyville. The house was elaborately decorated with ferns and roses. The bride was beautifully attired in Paris Muslin trimmed with ribbon and lace medallions. Little Evelyn Carter, sister of the bride, acted as flower girl. The bridal party stood beneath an arch of evergreens and roses, after the marriage a reception was held. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Carter, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Vandyke, Rev. A. C. Jones and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Shinn, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Rasin, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Rasin, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Robt. A. Kennedy, Mrs. J. W. Carter, Richard L. Rasin, Lester Carter, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Burris, Middletown, Del.; Mrs. Rebecca R. Bowers, Jas. K. Shinn, Sallie Shinn, Wilmington, Del.; Anna Copper, Virgie Shinn, B. F. Carter, Ollie Carter, Harry Rasin, Regina Rasin, Seloy Rasin, Edith Rasin, Lizzie Jones, Grace Fogwell, George Jones, Alfred and Robert Shinn, Herbert and Roger Kennedy, Hague Fogwell. The presents were handsome and useful.

THE circuit court will convene next Monday in special session to try several removed cases from Cecil and Caroline. The grand jury will consider the advisability of recommending the employment of an expert to examine the condition of the county finances.

CHURCH NEWS.

The Annual Convention of the Diocese of Easton will convene in Emmanuel Church, Chestertown, on Tuesday, June 2d, at 10.30 A. M. The Convention is composed of all the Rectors and Missionaries of the Diocese and a lay delegate from each parish. Bishop Adams will preside.

The May Procession at Sacred Heart Church Sunday evening was a delightfully interesting event and proved specially pleasing to the children. Little Miss Ida Wise was selected by lot to crown the Virgin Mary while the other children assisted in the ceremony. Special music was rendered by the little folks as they marched about the altar. Mrs. H. L. Boyd had charge of the children in rehearsing the program.

Rev. William M. Jeffries, D. D., rector of Calvary Episcopal Church, Third and Washington streets, Wilmington, Del., has been invited to preach the annual sermon before the Students' Christian Association of Washington College on Sunday evening, June 14. On the morning of the same day he will preach for the Rev. Dr. Henry B. Martin, rector of Emmanuel Church.

Rev. W. G. Koons, the new Presiding Elder of this district, was given a warm welcome here last Sunday evening by members of the M. E. Church. He preached at Bond in the morning and at night addressed the Epworth League in Chestertown. He made a favorable impression in Kent.

The official board of the Chestertown M. E. Church announced at the Quarterly Conference last Friday night that the pastor, Rev. E. P. Roberts, would be paid $1,000 as salary for the present conference year. This is an increase of $100, and proves that Dr. Roberts is appreciated.

The P. E. Choir will be augmented during next week with members of the Methodist choirs and the singing at the convention promises to be in keeping with the town's high reputation.

Children's Day will be observed at Wesley Chapel June 7th, not May 31st, as previously announced. Preaching at Kesley will be only every two weeks hereafter.

Rev. Dr. H. L. Elderdice, President of Westminster Theological Seminary, preached in Christ M. P. Church Sunday morning on the "Call to the Ministry."

The NEWS next week will publish an interesting article on "Methodism" in upper Kent.

Children's Day services will be held in most of the churches on Sunday, June 7th.

The NEWS' regular correspondent from Lynch's writes thus of the "Harvest Home" in the pretty new church there: Sunday was a red letter day in the history of Lynch's church. A grand rally was held for the purpose of paying off the small balance on the church, and beautifully and grandly did our kind friends from almost everywhere come to our rescue with open hearts and pocket-books. The debt, less than $200, was raised within an hour or two, except a few dollars, which was gotten at night. The congregations were large and composed of some of the best citizens of this county and elsewhere. Our former pastor, Rev. E. C. Makosky, Dr. Greenfield, Rev. Mr. Elderdice and our present pastor, Rev. J. M. Sheridan, graced the pulpit. Revs. Elderdice and Makosky preached two most eloquent sermons in the afternoon and evening. Mrs. Akers and brother, Mr. Hague, of Kennedyville, and Mr. Hurlock, of town, sang a beautifully rendered quartette at night, "Shall there be any stars in my crown." This beautifully fitting closing of a happy day of thanksgiving in the hearts of our people, ending in the conversion of several of our best young folks, four uniting with us.

A "Pin Social" was given at the Chestertown M. E. Church Thursday evening by the Junior League. The "pins" went to the Children's Hospital in Philadelphia.

PERSONAL TIDINGS.

Mr. J. B. McIntyre, who has been under treatment in a Baltimore Hospital, for several weeks, returned home yesterday in a greatly improved condition.

Mr. Wm. Walter Chapman has been visiting friends in Indianapolis this week.

Mr. E. S. Brattan, of near Millington, will remove to-day to Glassboro, N. J.

Prof. Bruehl, principal of the Manual Training Department of the Chestertown public school, attended the class reunion of the State Normal School last night in Baltimore.

Capt. C. R. Atkinson and family have rented the Burchinal home, opposite State's Attorney J. D. Urie's, and have removed therein this week.

Mr. Harry Nichols, of near Worton Station, has rented the Carville-Vickers farm, near town.

Mr. Walter Morris expects to remove from his father's farm, and will devote his whole attention to his farm adjoining and specially to the dairy business. Mr. Eli Morris is spoken of as his brother's successor.

J King Wright, superintendent of the Hagerstown electric light plant, has tendered his resignation to the Board of Street Commissioners, to take effect June 30. There is some talk of employing a business manager of the plant instead of an expert electrician.

Mrs. Holston, of Roland Park, and Miss Martha Blakeney, of Savage, Md., sisters of Congressman Blakeney, spent Sunday with their cousin, Mr. Wm. H. Blakeney and wife. The ladies were delighted with Chestertown and were specially impressed with the beauty of the rose gardens about town.

Col. Sam'l L. Rawleigh and daughter, Miss Mabel, of St. Mary's, spent Tuesday night in town the guest of his sister, Mrs. G. E. Lambert. Col. R. says St. Mary's delegates will vote for leasing the oyster beds and for disfranchising the colored voters. He is for Mudd, too!

Mr. and Mrs. Skipper, of Woonsocket, R. I., are guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Skipper at "Riverview," near Chestertown.

Mrs. Dr. J. A. Perkins is reported better this week. She has been in poor health for some weeks.

Mr. Edw. Copper, of Baltimore, has been visiting his uncle, Mr. Chas. W. Copper, on Kent street.

Mrs. J. Wilson Smith, of Newport News, is the guest of her father, Mr. George L. Quelette. Mrs. S. has been quite ill and has come to her old home to recuperate. She is much better.

Mrs. Mary J. Stauffer has been the guest of her nephew, Mr. W. S. Elburn, Queen street.

Mr. George Medders, son of Mr. John Medders, of Kennedyville, will accept our thanks for an invitation to the commencement exercises of Western Maryland College which will be held June 13th. Mr. Medders is a member of the graduating class in which there are 27 members.

Rev. R. H. K. Gill, a graduate of Washington College, has been in Kent this week lecturing on "The Dutchman's Wagon."

Miss Bessie Reilly is in the employ of Nathan Gutman & Co. and will do justice to anyone who may deal there.

Mrs. Spicer, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Carter, of Pittsburg, have been guests this week of Mr. and Mrs. George Z. Roland.

Miss Mary Wheatley, one of the pretty daughters of Mr. Charles Wheatley, graduated this week at the Annapolis High School.

Mrs. J. K. Aldridge has been visiting relatives in Baltimore this week.

Miss Clare Vannort has been the guest of friends in Baltimore this week.

Mr. Jas. Shinn and Miss Sallie Shinn, of Wilmington, Del., attended the wedding of Mr. Wm. Shinn on Wednesday evening.

Mr. Milbourn Davis and wife, of Wilmington, Del., spent Sunday with Mr. D.'s mother and sisters on Mill street.

Prof. T. Howard Fowler, of Baltimore, is visiting his father, Mr. Lewin S. Fowler. Prof. Fowler will sail for Europe on June 3rd.

Mr. Howard Davis, of Philadelphia, who is at the home of his father, Mr. John C. Davis, recuperating from the effects of typhoid fever.

Miss May Cannan, for several years past, the efficient cashier in C. S. Smith's department store, has resigned that position to take effect June 1st. Miss Kelley will probably take her place.

In another column will be found a poem written by Mrs. Rosalie Mitchell Schuyler, of Betterton, who knew Admiral Semmes personally and painted for him the "Alabama."

William T. Carrow and Mamie Tucker were married at Golt's parsonage on Thursday evening, May 28, 1903, by Rev. C. K. Morris.

THE sale of cattle in Chestertown on Tuesday by Mr. E. Thomas Massey was fairly attended and auctioneer J. Ford Caulk got good prices. The 27 head of young cattle averaged $25.22 per head.

OWING to the bad health of Mr. Walter McIntyre of the firm of Davis & McIntyre, this firm by notice elsewhere, is dissolved and the business will hereafter be conducted by Mr. John C. Davis. Mr. McIntyre is at the home of his parents in Galena and has the sympathy of a host of friends.

TRAVEL over Morgan creek bridge will be suspended on and after Monday. A new floor is being put down which will require only a few days.

THE streets of Chestertown have been given a sweeping under Officer Cooper's wise supervision.

A FINE HOME in Millington is advertised for sale in this issue. It will be sold cheap if bought at once.
