GIRLS CLUB NOTES

Kennedyville club is showing marked progress. First year girls have completed bags and are working on aprons. Several gingham dresses have been started.

The Still Pond Club were entertained at dinner by the Still Pond Grange on Washington's Birthday.

Clubs have been organized at Betterton and at Rock Hall. Betterton has 15 members and Rock Hall has 29 members. These clubs are very enthusiastic over the club work.

The Massey Club has eight girls working on gingham dresses and about the same number making aprons. This club is doing fine work.

Fairlee Club girls are planning to take up lessons in bread making and expect to give public demonstrations this summer.

The poultry and garden work will be given more time now. Girls all over the country are planning for poultry demonstrations to be conducted in co-operation with Mr. P. M. Brooks and Claude Truslow.

The club leaders are hoping to have an exhibit for every club. An effort is being made to have as many clubs as possible buy equipment for hot lunch work. Miss Hill is planning to give demonstrations in hot lunch work at an early date.

Miss Catherine Smith and Miss Elva Hummel, of Fairlee, won $9.00 and $6.00 respectfully at the County Exhibit on their canned goods and sewing. Who will beat this next year?

The Metropolitan Had Its Greatest Year in 1920 and Leads the World in Assets, in New Business, and in Amount of Outstanding Insurance.

The annual report of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company on the business of 1920 shows that the new business placed on the books broke all previous records in the world. Neither the great amount of new insurance taken out, nor the percentage of lapses indicate depression in the business or industrial world. The amount placed in the United States and Canada was $1,651,950.151 which is a gain of more than two hundred and fifty million dollars, as compared with the previous year.

The income and assets increased proportionately, the income for the year being $263,519,779, and the assets making a gain of $116,019,262 for a total of $980,913,087. Dividends have been declared, payable to policyholders in 1921, amounting to $10819,369, of which $6,961,261 is to holders of Industrial policies.

The number of policies oustanding at the end of the year was 23,899,997 or about one for every five of the population. The number increased in 1920 by 2,129,326.

Claims were paid on 312,689 policies, an average of one every 28 seconds for each business day of eight hours. The amount paid to policyholders in claims, matured endowments, dividends, etc., was $81,257,393, or an average of $556.86 a minute for every business day of eight hours. Group insurance amounted to $214,547,572.

The Company had invested at the end of the year in bonds and mortgages, $357,703,045. In 1920 the Company loaned and agreed to loan $85,000,000, mostly for housing.

Metropolitan nurses made 1,639,938 free visits to policy-holders, and Metropolitan Agents in all parts of the United States and Canada engaged in a health campaign through the distribution of literature to policy holders to the extent of over eighteen million pieces. These health activities have been continuous during the last ten years and the Company has found that they have had an appreciable effect on its mortality. The death rate for 1920 among Industrial policyholders was the lowest in the history of the Company. The reduction in general mortality in the last nine years has been 22 7-10 per cent. The Company's reduction of mortality from typhoid in nine years has been 72 per cent.; in tuberculosis, 40 per cent.; heart disease, a trifle over 19 per cent.; Bright's disease, nearly 27 per cent. and the infectious diseases of children, over 28 per cent. This general reduction, and for each principal cause of death, is greater than that shown by statistics in the registration area of the United States.

The Noblest Instrument Is An Organ

and it ought to be in every musical home, but space and cost sometimes prohibit the installation of a pipe organ. However, an two manual reed organ, built on the exact principles and measurements of a pipe organ—and used in the studios of such organists as Gibson, Dethier and others—such an instrument closely approximates a pipe organ and has everywhere given great satisfaction. It can be built to the special specification of organist and to match the design of any room. Adapted for lodges. Call and hear it.
