CARDUI HELPED REGAIN STRENGTH

Alabama Lady Was Sick For Three Years, Suffering Pain, Nervous and Depressed—Read Her Own Story of Recovery.

Paint Rock, Ala.—Mrs. C. M. Stegall, of near here, recently related the following interesting account of her recovery: "I was in a weakened condition. I was sick three years in bed, suffering a great deal of pain, weak, nervous, depressed. I was so weak, I couldn't walk across the floor; just had to lay and my little ones do the work. I was almost dead. I tried every thing I heard of, and a number of doctors. Still I didn't get any relief. I couldn't eat, and slept poorly. I believe if I hadn't heard of and taken Cardui I would have died. I bought six bottles, after a neighbor told me what it did for her.

"I began to eat and sleep, began to gain my strength and am now well and strong. I haven't had any trouble since . . . I sure can testify to the good that Cardui did me. I don't think there is a better tonic made and I believe it saved my life."

For over 40 years, thousands of women have used Cardui successfully, in the treatment of many womanly ailments.

If you suffer as these women did, take Cardui. It may help you, too. At all druggists. E 85

"Virgin of Stamboul"

"The Virgin of Stamboul," a master-feature, produced by Universal-Jewel, with Priscilla Dean as the star and directed by Tod Browning, is the announcement for next Friday and Saturday, at the Lyceum Theatre, which has aroused such unusual interest among the theatregoers of this community.

"The Virgin of Stamboul" is heralded as one of the important photo-productions of the year, presented in a big way. It unfolds the life of the mysterious East and reveals the customs of the Turk and the Arab, from the mosque at Constantinople to the great Arabian desert. It lays open the heart of Stamboul with its filth and wickedness, its sin and iniquity. It leads through the door of the sacred temple, through the forbidden portals of the harem, through the vast stretches of the arid waste.

It shows what happened when a beautiful beggar girl, Sari, turned her footsteps towards the mosque there to lift her voice in supplication to a God she had never known before. What she saw as she knelt there, her eyes lifted to Allah, will make the blood of the bravest man boil, and is the beginning of a fusillade of tense situations following each other with machine gun-like rapidity.

Whole streets and sections of Stamboul, "the wickedest city in the East" have been reproduced for this production, and many weeks were spent in this photodrama.

The role of Sari is one which gives Priscilla Dean greater opportunity than she has ever had before, having been written especially for her by H. H. Van Loan. Wheeler Oakman as the captain of the Black Horse Troop, Wallace Beery as the Sheik, E. A. Warren as Yusef Bey, Edward Burns de Brullier as the Arabian chief, Eugenie Forde as the mother, Ethel Ritchie as the favorite of the harem and thousands of others contribute to the success of this master-feature.
