MOODY & LUSBY. | MOODY & LUSBY

We Have

been so busy, even since the holiday rush, haven't had time to write up our appreciation of your very liberal appreciation of our best efforts to give you the largest return for your money; so lets get together.

We Thank You and wish all patrons, and those who are not, many happy returns during 1905, and trust the delay will not detract any appreciation from our good intentions.

OUR POLICY

is rather inclined to strew flowers among the living, which we have striven to do all through the past year 1904, and are content to leave the verdict in the hands of all careful, considerate consumers who favor us with their patronage. By displaying a reliable attractive line of up-to-date merchandise we have demonstrated beyond question to a larger aggregation than ever before, our ability to sell them 15 to 20 per cent. less than can be had of city houses, and to those who think of the vast differences in expenses, being on an equal footing in purchasing, etc., this fact is plainly evident.

We Now Offer

you a chance at the Odds and Ends and if you get here early enough, there's a very good assortment. —But don't delay—as all winter merchandise, Men's Overcoats, Boys' and Children's Overcoats, Suits, Underwear, Gloves and all winter merchandise will now be cleaned up at our well known cut prices. That are cut prices. A few words to the wise on this score is sufficient.

MOODY & LUSBY,

Directly Opp. Court House

Local Notes.

County Commissioners.—The commissioners met Tuesday and approved the following accounts. All present except Mr. Dudley.

Kent Co. Sav. B'k (for Hospital Fund)	$1522 00
Sam'l Hicks, J. P.	53 77
L. J. Keyser, fees	39 90
Alice Sanford, pension 5th dist	15 00
Thos. w. Plummer, register.	3 00

Accidentally Shot.—Mr. Walter Holdson while examining a 33 calibre pistol at the home of his parents, near Hanesville, was accidentally shot Friday night. Dr. Hessey was summond and dressed the wound but advised the removal of the patient to the hospital as soon as possible.

Close Bidding.—The County Commissioners on Tuesday offered a piece of county script of about $1500 to the banks of Chestertown offering to award it to the lowest bidder. The Kent County Savings Bank, as before, was the lowest bidder and received the paper. Their bid was $5.94 less than the Second National Bank. The Chestertown Bank refused to bid.

A False Alarm.—The citizens of Chestertown were given a fire scare Monday night about 8.45 Several persons at the wharf mistook a fog illuminated by an electric light as smoke coming from the steamboat office at the Wharf. The town clock was struck and within five minutes about five hundred people turned out and were prepared to fight the fire. The mistake was soon detected and all returned home.

A disastrous fire was narrowly averted at the home of Mr. Jas. T. Anthony near Chester bridge last Wednesday evening. Some wearing apparel hanging near a stove was ignited and only prompt action by Mr. Rumsey Anthony extinguished the blaze before much damage was done.

A Pretty Home Wedding.

The home of Mrs. Georgia Reed on Kent square, Chestertown, was the scene of a pretty nuptial event at noon Wednesday. The contracting parties were Miss Harriet Ella Reed, of the millinery firm of Misses C. and H. Reed, and Mr. George W. McWhorter, owner and proprietor of McWhorter's Livery on High street, and a popular citizen of Chestertown. The home was beautifully decorated for the occasion the nuptial parlor being decorated with blooming plants and evergreen while from a large open grate a red hot fire glowed shedding its warmth into every corner. Miss Nellie McWhorter skillfully rendered Mendelssohns wedding march and durthe ceremony played "The Flower Song." The bridal party consisted of the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. Fred G. Usilton, then the bride leaning on the arm of her brother, Mr. Horace Reed, who gave her away. Rev. W. L. White, pastor of the M. E. Church, performed the ceremony. The bride was becomingly attired in a gown of white crepe de chine with elaborate lace trimmings and carried a cluster of maiden hair fern.

After the ceremony a splendid breakfast and collation was served, under the direction of Mrs. J. C Loud, caterer. Those present were the following: Mr. and Mrs. G. B. McWhorter, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Reed and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison Massey, J. S. Bradley and wife, T. S. Bordley and wife, Clifton R. Jarrell and wife, Rev. W. L. White and wife, J. Hydie Thompson and wife, J. E. Ferguson and wife, H. T. Hoyle and wife, Mrs. George H Snitcher, Mrs. H. B. Simmons, Mrs. W. A. Smith, Mrs. Wm. R. Pippin, Mrs. Brownley, Misses Jennie V. Copper, Mayme Thompson, Zoa Elliott, Emma F. Davis, Nellie McWhorter, Mamie Layman, Messrs. Dan Reed, of Washington, Harry Massey, Chas. McWhorter and Norman Hirons. Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson were the reception committee. A number of pretty and useful presents were received. The bride and groom left on the afternoon train for a trip North and will return to-day.

QUEEN ANNE'S ROAD SOLD.

The Queen Anne's Railroad property was sold at receiver's sale Friday at Love Point, Queen Anne's county. It was bought by Mr. Nicholas P. Bond, and Henry P. Scott, of Wilmington, Del., for $480,000, subject to a first mortgage of $330,000.

The sale of this property practically completes arrangements for the organization of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company. This is a consolidation of the Queen Anne's Railroad, the Weems Line and the Chester River Steamboat Company.

By action of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway Company's stockholders, taken in Salisbury on Thursday, the stock of the new concern, or a majority of it, will be turned over to the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic in return for an indorsement of the bonds of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Company.

The financial plan proposes a bond issue of $2,000,000 at 5 per cent., to run for 50 years. This issue has already been underwritten and the entire block will go to Northern capitalists, who are already interested in the securities of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway Company. The mortgage provides for the reservation of $330,000 of this new issue to redeem at maturity a similar amount of the preference bonds of the Queen Anne's Railroad Company now outstanding.

It is also proposed to issue about $1,500,000 each of preferred and common stock, making a total capital issue of $3,000,000. The sale of the bonds will be used to finance the purchase of the Weems and Chester River Steamboat Companies. It will also provide new capital for working expenses and necessary renewals, and to take care of some outstanding obligations. It is understood that preferred stock will be exchanged for the first consolidated bonds of the Queen Anne's Railroad Company on the basis of $1,200 of stock for each $1,000 bond. Preferred and common stock alike will be used in exchange for the Queen Anne's Railroad Company's income bonds.

This consolidation will practically merge into one corporation the Chesapeake bay steamboat trade. It also places this business under the control of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, and it is understood that Mr. S. M. Prevost, president of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway Company, will also become the chief executive of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia road.

New Bakery.—Mr. Gus Ayres, the obliging head clerk in C. S. Smith's cash store, has rented the Bordley house and store room, on High street and will open in the latter a first-class bakery. His family will reside in the dwelling.

Officers Elected.—At the annual election of officers of the Kent Building and Loan Company held on Monday night the present officers were re-elected as follows: President, Thos. H. Topping; vice-president, L. Bates Russell; secretary and treasurer, J. Waters Russell; counsel, John D. Urie, Esq The officers with Mr. Thomas S. Bordley compose the executive committee.

A New Village.—Mr. W. W. Hubbard is preparing for a new village in the lower part of Queen street. He has planted trees along the front of his lot on Quaker Neck road and laid off eligible building lots. The first one has been purchased by Mr. William Duyer for $225 on which will be erected a cozy cottage.

EXCELLENT SLEIGHING.

Mr. Walter Bramble's Little Beauty Drops Dead on High Street—Some Fast Trotters, Skippers and Runners.

High street, Chestertown, has been alive this week with sleighs and all seemed to enjoy the sport to the full.

There were a number of upsets but no damage was done. The death of Mr. Walter Bramble's fine little driver, "Jack," was the only blot on the sport of Tuesday. Mr. Bramble had driven the horse on Saturday and Monday for an hour or two and at 4 p. m. Tuesday started in the races. About 5.30 Mr. Bramble was driving down High street at a fast clip and was making the turn opposite Dr. Twilley's when the horse gave a heartbreaking groan, fell and died withing five minutes. This was a fine six year old and was greatly admired for his speed and general good qualities. He was valued at $150.

Among the sleighers enjoying the sport we noticed the following: Messrs. Earle Nicholson, Albert Story, Harry Jefferson, Sterling Evans, W. C. A. Thompson, Harry Nichols, Jr., Capt. C. R. Atkinson, Frank Baxter, Barrett Smith, S. Hicks, Edgar Rice, George S. Biddle, W. T. H. Whiteley, Col. W. J. Vannort, Ralph Barnett, Wm. Duyer, Wm. Toulson, George Rash, Thomas Davis, George W. Hatcherson, Jesse H. Usilton, Herman Bramble, James G. Beck, John Brock, Harry McWhorter, William Townsend, R. F. Parks, Leon Brown, Thomas Willis, W. W. Hubbard, Wilbur Morris, Fred. G. Usilton, Geo. P. Hendrickson, John Gale, Wethered Barroll, E. W. Emory, Clements Jester, T. W. Eliason, Jr., Claude Blackiston, Romie Younger, Bedford Titter, Mark Anthony, Geo. Brice, Wilbur Eliason, Jr., Mrs. J. C. Davis, Mrs. Frank Plummer, Mrs. Clifton L. Jarrell, Mrs. P. A. M. Brooks, Messrs. C. J. Reiche and J. E. Ferguson each had a fine double team on the speedway, as did Mr. Hiram M. Brown, Samuel Lee and Miss Rebecca Eliason.

Middletown Bank Officers.—The following officers have been elected by the Citizen's National Bank of Middletown, Del:—Directors, Sewell C. Biggs, Andrew Woodall, Joseph Biggs, Nathaniel J. Williams, Jacob Cazier, Jesse L. Shepherd, A. H. Johnson, Charles S. Ellison and G. V. Peverley. Joseph Biggs was elected president; Jacob B. Cazier, vice-president; Charles S. Ellison, secretary; John S. Crouch, cashier; Frank Davis, teller.

THE Kent Building & Loan Co., has money to lend at 5 per cent on mortgage.
