RUNAWAY ELEPHANT HAS NERVOUS SHOCK

The circus elephant which for 48 hours has been celebrating in the vicinity of Wilmington, N. C., by wrecking everything in sight was chained again today at a stake at a quiet spot near Cedar Point while her wearied keepers kept her supplied with extra rations of peanuts and other delicacies to "calm her frayed nerves."

The big animal escaped from a circus there Tuesday morning after becoming frightened by the barking of dogs. She went through fences, flower beds, a negro cabin and a dye factory, among other things and turned over several automobiles. In addition she swam Cape Fear River and penetrated the alligator infested Brunswick swamp without apparent damage to herself. She was recaptured late yesterday and her keepers said she would remain at Cedar Point until her nervous condition improved.

Notice of a suit for $5,000 damage caused to its plant by the elephant, has been filed by the Eureka Dye Works here, and various residents want their lawns, fences and automobiles paid for.

PROHIBITION AND THE PRESENT AMAZING PROSPERITY

The present situation has its black spots, but all in all, we are in the midst of the most general prosperity any nation has ever enjoyed. The farmer is the black spot.

The mere fact that there are over ten million automobiles in this country is amazing. Every tenth person in the nation owns an automobile. There is a car for every two families and, viewing the situation over a period of months, it is hard for the automobile factories to turn them out fast enough.

Look at the cost of building. A modest home costs ten thousand dollars to erect. A few years ago, few men of moderate means would have felt justified in spending ten thousand dollars for a house. Today, building is proceeding apace despite the exorbitant prices. Plumbers and machine workers, small tradesmen men and artisans are erecting houses that cost ten, twelve and even fifteen thousand dollars.

More milk is being consumed by the children than ever before. Tropical fruits are on every table. The finest cuts are in demand at the meat market.

Look into the colleges. Full to the doors and running over. At some of our institutions they are discussing the advisibility of selecting those who are to be granted admission. A few years ago, practically no college was full to capacity and anyone was admitted who could show good character and adequate previous instruction.

The laboring people of this country are so far ahead of their situation a few years ago that the truth is hard to realize and it isn't simply because they are making more money. It is because they are making better use of the money they get.

The present prosperity of this country is based principally upon the fact that we are saving five billion dollars a year which would be wasted in drink if we had the saloon.
