ROCK HALL NOTES.

From the 6th to the 18th, two solid weeks, every working day of which the oystermen put in on the oyster bars, is a record before unknown by our watermen. The receipts of those 12 days places many a man (barring unfortunate circumstances) in a splendid position to meet the coming closed season. Surely a kind Providence has dealt us a benefaction after an almost record breaking winter of severity. Do we appreciate it?

Much sorrow is expressed here by teachers, pupils and patrons of our public schools consequent on the death of our most worthy County School Examiner, whom we have all learned to love so well. The schools have been closed several days in respect to the memory of Mr. Peterson.

Impressive funeral ceremonies over the remains of Mr. A. W. Cannan, were held in the M. E. Church Sunday afternoon. Rev. Mr. Parris, of the M. P. Church, delivered the sermon, using as his text, "For what is your life? It is even a vapour, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away." Ja. 4: 14. Large delegations from Chesapeake and Lankford Lodges K. of P. Sitting Bull Tribe, J. O. R. M. and Pochuntas Degree I. O. R. M. accompanied the remains from the house to the church thence to the cemetery, where the last sad rights of those orders were performed. The church was packed from door to chancel. The fraternity members presented a pretty scene in their handsome regalia, jewels and other equipage. With which your article on "Secret Societies" in last issues of the News, drew .orth many favorable comments regarding the secret orders. Many beautiful floral tributes were noticable. The pall bearers were W. H. Harrison, Wesley Stevens, and P. G. Ashley from the Redmen; Geo. Davis, Jno. Urie, and C. W. Ayres, from the K. of P. Undertaker Casey had charge of funeral. Interment in Wesleyan cemetery.

On Thursday night of last week, drift ice played havoc with the stakes and pound nets of our fishermen.

On Thursday morning the cruiser, Anna B. Smith, proudly sailed into this port in gala dress, her commander and crew since, have been taking in the old familiar home spots with much joy. They report having some very rugged scenes during the winter. The big blizzard caught them at North Point, the schooner plowed her way from there to Hacketts Point under jib, and through 3 inch ice, a tug took hold of her then and towed her into Annapolis where they enjoyed a tip top time, while ice bound.

Will Rock Hall's sailing and rowing fleet become a gasoline fleet? It looks so. There is about a dozen gasoline vessels already, and five more engines were landed here last week and still the end is not in sight.

Mrs. A. Alexander is just home from a shopping tour in New York, with a large assortment of miliner merchandise, which is now attracting the feminine gender of our town. Hubby? Oh, he stands aloof and frowns, but what's the use? he must toe the mark, and so must papa too.

Mr. John Stevens, one of our mechanics, has secured a lucrative job in the city, where he went two weeks ago.

Sunday was a real spring day, splendid traveling, but where were church people of our neighborhood? Very few were in attendance, were they in the grasp of spring fever? Or was it because an humble, home-made, but God baptized preacher, proclaimed the gospel message? Verily they missed a splendid treat. Rev. Mr. Downey preached a warm, cheering sermon on Christian Progressiveness that produced good effect on those present.

There is rejoicing among the M. E. Society and friends because of the return of Rev. Mr. Burr. His return was anticipated by some, but many feared otherwise. Thanks Dr. Koons for your interest in the welfare of this part of your field, now for a "strong pull, a long pull and a pull together" during the coming conference year.

The P. O. S. of A. held their 5th anniversary supper and entertainment on Monday night, with happy mien.

Wheat in this section is making a rapid growth. Mr. Frank Wilkins has a beautiful tillage. Farmers were making forward movements last week. The rain of this week however has interfered very much with their work.

Rev. J. W. Parris occupied the M. E. pulpit on Sunday night, to the great delight of a large audience.

Methodists here have taken much interest in the Corkran and Baker affair. The outcome has met the approval of many, while others think mountains have been made out of mole hills.

Ice and debris from the Susquehanna reached Swan Point on Wednesday. Some of the oystermen secured some logs and wood, James Dobbs picked up a piece of furniture, etc.

A TRIBUTE.

Our Father in his divine providence, having called to the heavenly home John P Vandyke, a charter member of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of Kennedyville. The union desires to place upon record this tribute to his memory:

Resolved That in the life of Mr. Vandyke we recognized the finest elements of true manhood and sterling character, a Christian gentleman in the highest acceptation of the term, a man true to his church, true to the temperance cause, true to his friends, true and devotedly tender to his own home circle.

Resolved, That in his death the county has lost an honored citizen, and society a valued member.

Resolved, That the Union extend to his family its tender sympathy in the great bereavement that has come to them and pray that the comforter may speak words of peace to their hearts.

Resolved, That this testimonial of our sympathy be presented to his family, also spread upon our minutes; and that copies be sent to our county papers.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear mother, MARTHA A. LYNCH, who departed this life March 23rd 1902.

Three lonesome years have vanished
Think we, while the tear drops start,
But the memory of our dear mother
Is still fresh within our hearts.

Since then our home is saddened
Since that day our hopes are slain,
But her voice is sweetly saying
Courage, we shall meet again.

We loved her, yes we loved her
But angels loved her more,
And they have sweetly called her
To yonder shining shore.

The golden gates were opened
A gentle voice said come,
And with farewells unspoken
She calmly entered home.

Sadly missed by her children.

HER GRAND DAUGHTER, BERTHA.

The Only Doctor for 2,000 Miles.—Among the sparse settlements along the bleak coasts of Labrador and Newfoundland, a young Englishman and Oxford man has given the people for thirteen years practically the only medical comforts they have had. By boat in summer and by dog-train through the snows, he reaches every harbor from Newfoundland to Hudson Strait. He is the comfort and hope of the frugal, care pinched people of the whole long, coast. In the April McClure's this young doctor has written the story of a winter's experience. He writes a simple, direct account of a freely given, arduous service. It has the tang of the cold North about it, and it is a hopeful picture of a little-known people—the farthest outposts of the northern coasts.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER

To the People of Kent.

It is with regret that I have to belittle myself by answering the malicious attack made on me through the columns of a certain paper by some scurrilous blatherskite styling himself a Fifth District Democrat. It is a great surprise to the people that a Newspaper having any reputation should permit the publication of personal attacks on individuals over any other than the writer's full name.

Be that as it may we all know how the public feel toward any man like our anonymous letter writer who is ashamed of the name his mother gave him and signs himself a fifth District Democrat.

Now we all know that he is fibing for there is not a Democrat in this district that is ashamed of his name and every one of us fight in the broad open light of day, and never stab a man in the dark.

If a man is honestly on the square why does he wish to deceive the public by parading over some nom de plume. My friend lays great stress on my voting for Lowdnes in '95. He says I never denied it and he simply —— if he says I did vote for Lowndes or that I ever boasted of doing so. He says I had the Republican trade mark stamped on me when I worked for Mr. Bartlett. Now must a man be a Republican because he works for a gentleman. No one but a narrow minded imbecile would think of such a thing. Now as to the matter of voting we think we plainly see in this anonymous letter writer the fine Italian hand of the man who voted for Mr. Westcott against Mr. Pearce and sent Mr. Westcott to the Senate and knifed Mr. Slay at the same time, and who 2 years ago put up and had elected to one of the best offices in the county a man who voted with his whole family for Lowdnes in '95. This same gentleman is holding office to day and he is a model of Democrats put forth by our anonymous letter writer.

This fellow attacks me on my record while on the Police boat. I leave my record while there in the hands of the oystermen and the records of the Courts of Chestertown will prove same to the satisfaction of every gentleman of Kent. He says I caused more discontent and grumbling than any man who has filled the position in the last 10 years. In that accusation he proves himself a Jackass for it has been 15 years since I filled any position on a police boat.

My friend is pretty glib with his dids and his did nots. Now if he says I left the bars unprotected he——again. He compares me with what he calls a Prehistoric animal which he says lives in Africa. No one has to tell us for we know that right here in Kent we have a slimey monkeyed faced reptile known as a viper who crawls around and tries to bite heels of men and when you get after him he hides behind his nom de plume.

Come out my friend and show the color of your skin tell us your name, don't be ashamed of it for if you belong to the 5th District we would like very much to know you for this is the last time I will answer any of your anonymous attacks made on me, I want to say to my friends that if they want to send me to the Legislature I am up for the position and will serve them on the square

Yours Truly

FROM the Fifth District.

CHAS. S. SMITH,

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Mary A. Graves died last Sunday, March 19th, at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. Arthur J. Toulson, in Wilmington, Del., of the infirmities incident to old age. The deceased was the widow of the late James Graves, formerly a prominent citizen of Chestertown. She was 85 years and 11 months of age and leaves four grand-children, two sisters and a number of neices and nephews. She was a good woman.

Mrs. Graves joined Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown, in 1863 under the pastorate of the late Dr. J T. Murray, and has ever since retained her membership in this church.

The remains were brought to Chestertown Wednesday, on the noon train, and funeral services held in Christ M. P. Church, conducted by Rev. J M. Sheridan, in the absence of the pastor Rev. D. L. Greenfield. The pall-bearers were the nephews of the deceased—Messrs. M. M. Rasin, P. B. Rasin, C. R. Rasin, Geo. R. Rasin, J. W. Elliott, and Wm. M. Lynch. Undertaker John N. Dodd had charge of funeral arrangements; interment in Chester cemetery.

Arthur J. Toulson and family wish to thank the relatives and friends, for the kindness and sympathy expressed on the day of the interment of their beloved departed member, Mrs. Mary A. Graves, to Chester cemetery, Chestertown, Kent County Md. Also for the well rendered service of the pastor, Rev. Jas. Sheridan, and Mr. John N Dodd undertaker.

MRS. A. M. BORDLEY.

Mrs. A. M. Bordley, widow of Dr. James Bordley, died in Centreville of heart trouble Thursday morning, aged 77. She leaves 7 nieces and nephews. viz, Mrs. Spencer G. Newman, Centreville; Mrs. H. M. Hunt, Miss Mary Nicols, and Messrs. Irving T., Lloyd, George and Wright Nicols, of Baltimore, and Harry Nicols, of Kent county.

Joseph J., beloved husband of Sophia Etzel (nee Brown) died at his home in Baltimore Saturday, aged 34.

When a petition is handed to you to sign, it is an excellent idea to stop and read it before putting your name down. Men, as a rule, are too busy nowadeys to stop for a little thing like that. The other day a man went through a big office building in Chicago, on a wager, and secured twenty names to a petition asking the public executioner to hang every one of the signers.

KENT M. E. CHURCH SOUTH.

Chesterville and Millington constitute Kent Circuit M. E. C. S. It has been my pleasure to serve this people one year and upon the eve of my departure to attend the session of our annual conference at Winchester, Va. I take this opportunity of making a brief statement concerning the labors of the past year, through the columns of your paper. The work shows progress along all lines and collections in excess of previous years. In our two Sunday Schools we have an enrollment of 154 puplis and 19 officers and teachers. Attendance throughout the year has been encouraging and gratifying.

Notwithstanding the severity of the winter weather the schools have held every session with one exception.

Children's Day, Missionary Day and Christmas were observed with appropriate exercises. Amount raised by the Sunday School for all purposes is $103.91.

We have two Home Missionary Societies which are doing good work, not only in seeking the comfort of the pastor and his wife, but also lending a hand to the connectional.

During the year they have furnished a room in the Brevard School at Brevard, N. C. & named it "David Clements" in honor of the senior member of the Society. Thus you see these ladies permit the gentlemen to unite with them in the advancement of this great department of our work. These societies have raised by dues and free will offerings $107.15.

Incidental expenses $123.60 and salaries of Presiding Elder and P. C. $786 have been met in full while that of Conference collections amount to $241. Total raised on the circuit for the year $1350.

Just here I want to say that I serve not only a liberal people, but cheerful willing givers in their support along all lines of christian work.

Our associations throughout the year have been profitable and pleasant.

In conclusion let me thank you for your weekly remembrance of us at the parsonage, we appreciate your kindness in our behalf
