THE Kent county School Board Tuesday adopted Prof. J. S. W. Jones' arithmatic Tablet. Prof. Jones occupies the chair of mathematics at Washington College and is a valued member of the Faculty.

JOE BARRETT, living in Quaker Neck, lost his home and all its contents by fire one day this week. Joe was out in the field at work and knew nothing of the fire. The origin is not known.

THE demand for horses is said to be greater than for many years. The Tolchester boat on Monday carried thirteen horses from Baltimore and the previous week there were twenty farm horses on board, most of them being consigned to Port Deposit. Kent county farmers find it difficult to get horses.

THE dam at Topping's mill is about completed and the strawboard mill and grist mill have resumed operations. Some local fishermen realized a nice sum selling fish from the pond while Master Russell Wheatley succeeded in catching a pretty pearl.

THE biggest rock fish brought to town this week from Betterton were sold by Mr. George Byron. They weighed 14 and 12 pounds respectively. Shad were selling high this week at Tolchester.

THE following prisoners were taken to the penitentiary Wednesday by Deputy Sam'l Startt: Marion Comegys, 3 years, Hayes Comegys 8 years, Joe Walker 3 years, Alexander Hamilton 2 years, Harry Hopkins 2 years.

THE Kennedyville Baseball Club won another victory Saturday, but found the Chestertown High School boys a tough proposition. The score was 8 to 2. The visitors have not lost a game this season.

S. G. CALDWELL, the well-known stock dealer of Galena, has a fine collection of stuffed birds in his home. Last Monday he succeeded in adding two valuable trophies. One was a pair horns from a Dorset ewe.

THE Chestertown Bank has been in business about five months and the stock in that time has advanced to $30 per share, at least a sale at that price was reported a short time ago; par value is twento-five dollars.

House this week was well patronized. An elegant menu was served each evening

SHERIFF KEYSER has but one prisoner in jail. This man says he is now paying the penalty of getting drunk in solitary confinment.

Mrs. Elleanora Barroll died at the home of her son, J. Leeds Barroll, Esq., in Philadelphia, early yesterday morning aged 69 years. The deceased left her home in Chestertown last Saturday and soon after reaching the city was taken ill with pneumonia. Everything that medical skill could do was at her call, but surrounded by loving friends she passed to the beyond. The deceased was a beautiful woman both in form and in life and her death has cast a gloom over a large circle of friends and relatives. She leaves three sons, viz., J. Leeds, Hope H. and Capt. Morris K. Barroll. The arrangements for the funeral had not been made at this writing

Dr. Wm. Houston died at the Emergency Hospital, Washington, D. C., Tuesday, May 2, of apoplexy, in his 57th year. The funeral took place Thursday, interment at St. Paul's, Rev. C. T. Denroche officiating; John N. Dodd, undertaker. The bearers were W. W. Beck, C. M. Browne, B. F. Beck, C. L. Dodd, G. B. Westcott, and R. D. Hynson. The deceased was the son of the late Dr. B. F. Houston and leaves a beloved aged mother, a widow, two married daughters living in Wilmington and Baltimore, and a son in Washington.

Mr. John Chairs McCollister, 66 years old, formerly a resident of Queen Anne's county, died of blood poisoning at his home in Baltimore Monday night. Mr. McCollister for a number of years was a prominent farmer of Queen Anne's County. He is survived by two sons (Messrs. John and Daniel McCollister), both residing in Baltimore, and two brothers (Messrs. Samuel G. and Charles McCollister).

KILBOURN & WARREN, the Fairlee merchants, will have a special Wednesday sale next week of groceries and dry goods.

THE fare on the M. D. & V. R. R. plying from Baltimore to Centreville, will be increased to $1.50 for the round trip next Monday, May 8th. This ticket will be good only five days, as was the limit allowed on the round trip tickets when the fare was $1.25.

Kennedyville M. P. Church, Rev. R. S. Rowe, pastor—subjects of sermons for Sunday, 7th—10.30 a. m., "What kind of branch of The Vine are you?" 7.30 p. m., "A very important question for a young man and its answer." Communion after the morning sermon.

A meeting under the auspices of the W. F. M. S. will be held in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening. Miss Glenk, a missionary who recently returned from China, will deliver an address. A special program of music will be rendered. All are earnestly requested to be present.

The interesting review of Rev. C. K. Morris' ministry as published in the NEWS calls forth this remark from several exchanges: "If there is to be any grading of crowns in the next world the Rev. C. K. Morris will certainly be entitled to a full jeweled one. His record proves that he must have been piling up treasures in the great beyond, for mighty little treasure has come his way during his years of service here below. He got few loaves or fishes."

The Children's Day Service will be held in Lynchs M. P. church on May 28 at half past seven.

Miss Mamie Thompson lead the early song service at Christ church Sunday evening. Mrs. Mamie Dodd sang a solo, Mrs. A. M. Culp and Mrs. J. H. Thompson sang a duet; Master Roy Barnett spoke and Mrs. C. N. Satterfield gave a reading.

Special Easter services were held in the M. E. Church Sunday evening, the choir under Dr. S. A. Hall, rendering in good style several popular anthems.

On Monday May 8, at 9 A. M., in Millington church the first quarterly conference for the year 1905 will convene. A full attendance of the official Board is desired.

Chesterville M. E. church South.—Sunday school at 9.30 A. M.; Preaching at 10.30 A. M.

Millington.—Sunday school at 2 P. M; Preaching at 3 P. M. by the Presiding Elder, Rev. John Anderson, and the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper immediately thereafter, also the organization of the League.

The usual services will be held in Christ Methodist Protestant Church. The Pastor's evening theme at 8 o'clock will be, "How much better is a man than a sheep?"
