SATURDAY, - - AUGUST 26, 1905

THESE are the days of mists and mellow fruitfulness.

WHILE there is a conference there is a hope for peace.

IT IS SAID the sun is sinking fast upon Addicks' rule in Delaware.

VIRGINIA has just passed through one of the liveliest Democratic primaries in its history. Senator Thomas S. Martin has swept the deck for Senator and Claude A. Swanson for Governor.

GEN. L. VICTOR BAUGHMAN, the gallant Western Marylander, opened the campaign on Saturday for the franchise amendment by giving a barbecue to 5,000 people on Braddock Heights, Frederick county.

BALTIMORE is making a big effort to retain and increase her Southern trade. On Thursday a free excursion was run from Baltimore for the benefit of the buyers, stopping at Tolchester where a Maryland crab feast was held. Several Kent merchants accepted the hospitality of the Baltimore merchants.

Wanamaker Dines Booker T.!

Booker T. Washington's appearance at dinner in the great dining room of the United States Hotel, at Saratoga, N. Y., last week, created a mild sensation among the diners. Washington was the guest of John Wanamaker, former Postmaster-General, and acted as escort for Mrs. Barclay Warburton, Mr. Wanamaker's daughter, while Mr. Wanamaker walked to the table with J. R. E. Roberts.

As they walked down the line every eye was directed upon the group. Comparatively few of those present recognized any of them, and there was a general buzz of comment and a craning of necks.

Real Estate Market Active.

J. D. Urie, Esq., as attorney for Mr. John T. Sweeney, of Wilmington, has sold the house and lot on Mill street, to Mr. Wm. Vansant, who now occupies the house. The price was $1600.

The "Sheffield" farm, of 454 acres, in Cecil county, was purchased by Capt. Andrew Woodall last week for $18,000 It is said that this brings his farms very close to 35 in number.

Mr. J. Edward Hurlock, of Millington, has purchased through Hope H. Barroll, Esq., the Richard W Cochran farm, adjoining the fine estate of J. P. Cochran, near Galena, containing 200 acres of fine land, for $10,000.

Mr. Adam F. Huey has purchased the Everett Eveleth farm situated near Millington, and occupied by Mr. Thos. Darrell. The price paid was about $4,000. The purchase was made through Hope H. Barroll, Esq.

Mr. Claude F. Parks has purchased through J. Waters Russell, agent, the building lot adjoining the residence of Judge J. A. Pearce, on Front street, price $700.

The Armstrong Hotel property, Chestertown, was offered at public sale yesterday by Auctioneer John H Greenwood for M. deK Smith and R. D. Hynson, trustees. The hotel property was withdrawn at a bid of $2000. The stable property on Maple avenue was sold to John D. Urie, Esq., for $400.

Hon. Jos. A. Wickes has purchased of Mr. T. G. Wroth, the frame dwelling on corner of High and Water streets for $1000. It is said that the building will be torn down and the grond improved by a flower yard.

Auctioneer John H. Greenwood sold at public sale yesterday the Chaney property in Still Pond Neck to Mr. Jas. S. Harris for $400.

Mr. Noah Perry has sold his Scott's Point home to Charles Lindsey, col., through J. Waters Russell, real estate broker.

WHEAT is quoted at 82 cents and corn at 59½.

BEDWORTH, JR., won the free-for-all at Rockville Thursday, best time 2.15.

READ on page 10 of this issue what J. Waters Russell has to say about selling and buying real estate.

CLERK JAMES T. DIXON will be in the 5th district next Wednesday to accomodate the tongers with license for oystering.

A COLORED man, Jos. Hodges, was drowned at Chestertown yesterday in Chester river.

THE steamer Emma A. Ford will run excursions to the Tolchester Fair from Chestertown and river points on Wednesday and Thursday of next week.

THE Chestertown Bethel Church colored is entertaining the Sunday school Convention of the Eastern shore this week and some extra fine music was rendered by the Chestertown choir under the leadership of John Broadshaw.

JAS. GREEN, colored, was brought to Chestertown jail this week charged with selling intoxicating drinks in Millington.

THE steamer Louise damaged her rudder Thursday, but it interfered with her trips but slightly as Capt. Eliason soon had things in ship shape.

NEXT dance at Dewey Park Sept. 6th.

TOURNAMENT at Dewey Park Saturday, September 16th. They had to change the date to suit the riders.

SUCH a craze for souvenir postals all over the country was never known. Some of them gotten out with views of Chestertown are fine. "Lovers' Retreat" on the Chester Bridge; "The Shell Road," in Quaker Neck and Chestertown's public square, are some of the best and are for sale at J. H. Sides, the Chestertown jeweler. Many of the postal cards sent from the seashore are really indecent. "Uncle Sam" is confiscating hundreds of these cards and if he can find the senders of them they can be fined not over $5000, or sentenced to five years at hard labor.

PUBLIC SALE

—OF A—

Valuable Farm

In Queen Anne's County, Md.

UNDER and by virtue of competent authority from the owners, the undersigned, attorney, will sell at public auction, in front of the Bailey's Hotel, in the town of Millington, Maryland, on at 2.30 o'clock P. M.

All that Valuable Farm of the late Wm. Barnes, whereon John Barnes is now residing, situated between the Unicorn Woolen Mills and Millington, in the Seventh Election District of Queen Anne's county, Md., and adjoining the lands of John Biggs, Herman Hendricks and the Unicorn Woolen Mills, and lying on both sides of the public road from the Unicorn Woolen Mills to Millington, and being only about ¾ of a mile from Millington, and containing of fine, nice high land, more or less.

This farm is splendidly located right within sight of the town of Millington, which can be seen from the broad porches of the spacious dwelling on said farm, being only about ¾ of a mile by a fine shell road, in which town there are fine churches, schools, stores, a bank and railroad. The land is of fine quality, being nice and high, well adapted to the growth of all kinds of crops, being of medium soil. There is a good

Comfortable Dwelling

HOUSE on said farm, being surrounded by beautiful shade trees and a pretty lawn leading to public road; good Barns, Stables, Sheds and other necessary outbuildings. Fencing in good repair.

The farm is divided into 5 fields, including one of the handsomest young peach orchards a person ever saw growing, which will come in bearing next year. There is also a fine apple orchard on the farm. There are about 4 or 5 acres of woodland and every acre of the balance is nice, fine tillable land, there being no waste land at all.

This is an opportunity seldom offered for one to obtain an ideal country home, with fine buildings, all in good order, good, high land and so splendidly located.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third of the purchase money in cash on day of sale and the balance in two equal installments of one and two years from day of sale, with interest from January 1st, 1906, and the payment of the same with interest to be secured by bond or notes of purchaser, with surety or sureties to be approved by the undersigned, or the whole in cash if the purchaser desires to pay it. Further and more detailed particulars made known on day of sale. Title papers at the expense of the purchaser.

CHESTERTOWN

THE yacht "Lucy" left this week for a cruise on the Chesapeake Bay. Those in the party were Mr. Owen C Smith and family, of Baltimore, Mrs Green, Chas S. Smith, Jr., and Capt Thomas Storke.

CHESTERTOWN'S fire brigade was called out on Monday afternoon to put out a fire at Capt. C E. Crane's home on Water street. Little damage was done.

A NEW two-ton safe has been installed by jeweler J. H. Sides.
