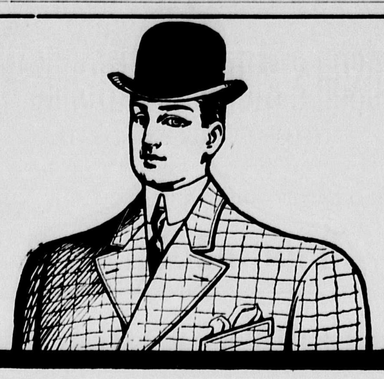
MOODY & LUSBY | MOODY & LUSBY



INTERNATIONAL TAILORING STANDS HEAD AND SHOULDERS ABOVE EVERY OTHER KIND

The wearer of MOODY & LUSBY CLOTHES always stands out from his fellow men, his style is faultless his fit perfect, his appearance smart and swagger. Yet his dress costs him no more than if he wore the ill fitting, poorly made kind.

Our Spring Suits

Hats and Haberdashery

are all ready for you.

The new styles are very handsome—more attractive than usual, we think—and you know from long trading here that this store always gives its patrons the best at fair and satisfactory prices.

The Shapes Are Such That Most Any Man Can Be Perfectly Fitted Here

as the Lord made some men slimmer than they really ought to be, or taller, or shorter, or stouter, or both slimmer and taller, slimmer and shorter, stouter and taller, or shorter and stouter. Nevertheless the man who's built in an unusal sort of way doesn't feel like accepting his proportions as an excuse for ill-fitting garments.

Come In And Let Us Show You How We Can Fit You and the cost will be an agreeable surprise for our large output enables us to submit prices materially under smaller dealers. EVERY PIECE OF MERCHANDISE IN OUR ESTABLISHMENT IS MARKED IN PLAIN FIGURES, which makes trading here very satisfactory and an assurance of no partiality. Come look the line over while the assortment is complete.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

The first farmer to shear his sheep in Kent county is Mr. John Schanbert, of near Chestertown.

The new Treasurer for Kent will assume charge about June 1st. It is reported that Mr. Parks Rasin will be named as deputy.

The inter-collegiate declamation contest will be held in Stam's Hall next Friday evening.

The "Fur King," Marcus Asher, has opened the wool market at 28 and 30 cents per pound.

The stock of goods owned by Clifton L. Jarrell has been sold to F. H. Harper & Son, Still Pond, who advertise a special sale in another column of the News.

The Cliff City wharf has been sold by Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., to Mr. Wm. T. Brown for $1,000.

S. R. Hurlock, of near Chester bridge, is the early bird of Queen Anne's, having about fifty acres of corn planted.

The Grand Jury for Kent County adjourned Thursday after having examined 46 witnesses and a number of constables. They found 17 true bills, expressed regret at the death of the late Judge Brown and complimented Sheriff Medders upon the neatness of the jail, etc.

Mrs. R. C. Morgan has shipped a coop of spring chickens which averaged about 2 pounds each and for which she received 32 cents per pound.

The Kent County Teachers Association met in Chestertown yesterday.

The boys of Chestertown will hold a festival Tuesday and Wednesday, May 1st and 2nd, for the purpose of securing funds with which to rent a play-ground. They have been shut out of every place on which to play and it is hoped the public will lend a helping hand. Donations of cake or cream will be very acceptable.

New Homes.—Mr. Frank Dayer is building a cozy home for himself on Queen street. The Dayer Bros. are erecting a residence for Mr. Polk Bramble on the Hubbard lot, on Quaker Neck road.

Gratitude Aground.—The steamer Gratitude, of the Chester River Line, ran aground about a half mile from Crumpton Tuesday morning on her trip to Baltimore. The tide was very low and the vessel was not floated until high water, 12.30 p. m. There were 25 passengers on Rock Hall wharf waiting for the steamer and were compelled to drive to Tolchester.

Athletic Field.—The Visitors and Governors of Washington College have negotiated for the purchase of two lots on College avenue, adjoining the reservoir, which will be used as an athletic field for the students. This property was purchased from Mrs. Minnie Ringgold and Miss Willie Wickes at a cost of $2100.

Hard Luck.—Mr. John Gale Usilton has been having hard luck this week with his stock. A sow either ate or killed 23 young pigs, a young calf, and was about to kill a suckling colt one evening this week when a gentleman passing through the barnyard prevented further loss. Mr. Usilton, on Wednesday, had to kill one of his farm horses because of a broken leg caused by getting caught in the manger. The mare had a suckling colt which will be raised by hand.

"White Caps" in Kent County.—The following note tightly corked in a bottle was found on the shore on the farm in Wright's Neck, situate on Reed's creek and tenanted by Mr. Daniel E. Stewart, Queen Anne's.

ROCK HALL.

The finder of this bottle will please notify Mr. Edward Teat that he had better not come on the Kent county side of Chester river either to fish, oyster or see any girls, as we will make it hot for him.

Very respectfully,
WHITE CAPS.

On the reverse side was written, "For Mr. Edward Teat, Centreville, Md." Mr. Teat is a young man engaged in catching fish in the tributaries of Chester river.

Reception and Toasts.—The home of Mrs. Avis E. Vannort was the scene of a most enjoyable occasion Monday evening, it being a reception and Francis Willard memorial service given by the Chestertown W. C. T. U. The exercises were gracefully presided over by Mrs. S. A. Hurlock, and music by the Chestertown orchestra composed of Messrs. A. M. Culp, J. G. Cannon, Warren Hurlock, Kemp Bordley, Donald Stam and Tom Dixon, interspersed the program. Mrs. H. Benge Simmons and Mrs. W. B. Copper, read beautiful selections pertaining to the unvailing of the statue of Miss Willard in Washington. After the serving of coffee and sandwiches, eggs were distributed which was followed by "egg-toasts" by Col. Wm. J. Vannort on the "use of eggs"; Mr. T. D. Bowers, on "My Wife's Easter Bonnett"; Dr. D. L. Greenfield, on "Our Girls"; Dr. W. L. White, "The Cardinal Virtues"; Mr. Fred G. Usilton, "Our Boys"; Mr. L. Bates Russell, "Prophecy"; J. T. Anthony, "Temperance"; Mrs. Mary E. Brown, "Good of Cause"; Mr. W. W. Hubbard, "Enjoyable Evening". The occasion was one of rare pleasure and those in charge are to be congratulated upon its success.

For Thin, Poor Blood

You can trust a medicine tested 60 years! Sixty years of experience, think of that! Experience with Ayer's Sarsaparilla; the original Sarsaparilla; the Sarsaparilla the doctors endorse for thin blood, weak nerves, general debility.

But even this grand old medicine cannot do its best work if the liver is inactive and the bowels constipated. For the best possible results, you should take laxative doses of Ayer's Pills while taking the Sarsaparilla.

Made by J. C. Ayer Co., Lowell, Mass. Also manufacturers of Ayer's HAIR VIGOR. AGUE CURE. CHERRY PECTORAL.

We have no secrets! We publish the formulas of all our medicines.
