Woman's Auxiliary Convention.

The annual Diocesan Meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary was held last week in this town. The opening service was in Emmanuel Church on Tuesday 15th, at 8 P. M., when the Rev. Floyd Tompkins, D. D., of Holy Trinity Church, Philadelphia, rendered a most fluent and helpful discourse, the text being, "Glorious Things are Spoken of Thee, Deity of God, Ps. 87, 3. After this service the congregation adjourned for a short time to the Parish Building where an "Eastern Shore" welcome was accorded the guests.

On Wednesday Dr. Tompkins held a "Quiet Hour" in the church at 10 A. M. He divided the time into three meditations. The Holy Communion was also celebrated. Dr. Tompkins is one of the most eloquent speakers in the church in this country and his addresses were much enjoyed and warmly appreciated. After this service a luncheon was served in the Parish House and promptly at 2.30 P. M., after prayer and a happy address of welcome by the Rev. Dr. Martin. The business session began with the "Babies," division of the Junior Branch, Miss Adele France, Diocesan President of the Juniors taking the chair. At this meeting the name Babies Branch was changed to that of "Little Helpers." After the business of the "Little Helpers" was over that of the Juniors filled the afternoon until about 4 P. M , when at the close of the business, Miss Stuart, of Va., made a beautiful address to the young people on personal opportunity and personal obligation after which there was an exhibition of male dolls from the "Little Helpers," and work done for the Auxiliary by the Juniors. At 8 P. M. there was service in the church with an address by Miss Stuart on the "United Offering Fund." and one by Archdeacon Spurr, of W. Va., who carried his hearers into the ragged huts and the State penitentiary where he works so faithfully. The Archdeacon is an energetic man and a finespeaker, full of earnest purpose.

On Thursday the Holy Communion was celebrated in the church by Dr. Martin at 7.30 A. M. and at 10 A. M., after the opening prayer and a few remarks by Dr. Martin Mrs. Lane Finley, the diocesan President of the Woman's Branch took the chair and called the business meeting of this Branch to order. There were many excellent addresses by different officers and much business accomplished. Archdeacon Spurr was called upon to speak on the church Periodical Club. Noon-day prayers were said by the Rev. Mr. Vanderbogart and the luncheon was again served as on the previous day. At 2.30 P. M. Mrs. Finley again called the meeting to order and a most interesting address was made by Miss Richmond, from Shanghai, China, after which the business was resumed until 5 P. M., when after a most successful and harmonious whole, the business meeting adjourned sine die. At 8 P. M. there was again service in the church and an address by Miss Richmond on the work in China, and the final and an able address by the Rev. Peregrine Wroth of the Church of the Messiah, Baltimore, upon the text "Who will have all men to be saved" 1 Tim. 2 ; 4.

After a few appropriate remarks and the benediction by the Rector and having given and received many warm farewells the members of the Auxiliary wended their way homeward, many of them hoping to return again in April next.

The members of Emmanuel Church spared no pains and gave their time and talents most cheerfully as they always do upon any occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. James S. Webb were the guests on Sunday of Mrs. Webb's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Cleaver, in Kennedyville.

We are now very busy preparing for Children's Day Exercises, they will be held June 3rd. All are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Hill and daughters, Misses Susie and Florence were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Murray H. Boyer a few days of the past week.

Mrs. Charles Jones and Miss Alice Burns have returned to their homes after a very pleasant visit near here.

Miss Erma Medders made a flying trip to her many friends here.

Mr. Preston Shallcross has returned after spending a few days with his uncle.

Thieves broke into the dwelling of Mrs. A. R. Chrisfield and several things were stolen, no trace of the thieves could be found.

Mr. Thomas Quigley spent Wednesday in Baltimore.

The many friends of Mr. Andrew Woodall attended his funeral on Tuesday. We were all sorry to hear of his death.

The farmers' crops are needing rain very badly, they are growing very slow. We hope for rain in the near future.

The Sick.—Mr. Wm. Ford at the County home, is improving.

Mr. Wm. H Ford is able to be out.

Mrs. Frank M. Miller is better.

Mr. W. H. Lambert has recovered.

Miss Hester A. Russell has been sick for a week. We are glad to report her able to be up.

The several secret orders of Rock Hall will appear in a body at Wesleyan Chapel for worship next Sunday morning service at 10.30.

THE new railroad bridge over the Susquehanna at Havre de Grace will be opened for traffic next Monday.

ABRAHAM ASHLEY.

Good night, he said and passed away
Into the bright eternal day,
Where noble, royal human clay
Shall flourish with angelic sway.

"Good night" and then he fell asleep
Leaving his loved ones here to weep,
His memory to ever keep
As green as billows on the deep.

"Good night," yet morning soon appears
To bless the long celestial years
That wait the coming of the peers
Who dry and soothe all human tears.

"Good night," released from this sad Clod
No more to work and plan and plod,
He stooped beneath the golden rod
And rests forever with his God.

HIS DAUGHTER.

ROCK HALL ITEMS.

Mrs. Warren Burr and other Sunday school teachers are making preparations for the Children's Day anniversary, to be observed June 10th.

Mr. Charley Smith, with a force of men, is putting the public road from Grey's Inn to Alexander's blacksmith shop in up-to-date condition. He is kept so busy that he can hardly find time to huckster his berry crop.

Mr. M. L. Maslin is applying whitewash to all buildings and fences on his farm with a sprayer. It is the "boss" thing for the work, and with it a man can do more work in one day than can be done in a week by the old method.

The continued cool, dry weather is cutting the berry crop very materially. Grass and wheat are also feeling the effect of the drought. Corn and truck is at a stand still, and everybody is hoping for rain in the next few days, otherwise all crops will be a long way short.

To bless the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Davis, a tiny son was sent less than two weeks ago; but the precious one found this world too harsh to tarry in, so on Saturday last he returned to Him who gave. Rev. Mr. Burr conducted burial services over the "wee" remains on Sunday afternoon at Wesleyan cemetery.

Basket making operations began at Leary's factory on Tuesday, with a force of 17 nailers and their assistants. Some who have been basket making there for the past fourteen years are no longer employed there, new men being engaged. Among the new employees is Sam. B. Colyer, who, it is said, will be the "king bee" this season. The whole factory force are in a rush. Numerous vessels are discharging lumber and other material.

Mr. George B. Sewell, who was taken to the hospital on Sunday, the 13th, a victim of appendicitis, was unable to pull through, and his death occurred on Thursday of last week. An honest, industrious man and good citizen is with us no more. He was a consistent member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church, and was the eldest son of Mr. Thomas E. Sewell. He is survived by a large helpless family and five brothers, Messrs. Benjamin, Joseph, Marion, Russell and Charles Sewell; three sisters, Mrs. Edward Kendall and Misses Minnie and Birdie Sewell. The funeral services took place Sunday morning in the S. D. A. Church, conducted by the Elder of the Winchester (Queen Anne's county) church, assisted by the pastor of the M. E. Church of this place. The church was packed to its utmost capacity and many were unable to get in, but stood at the doors and windows attentive listeners. The pall-bearers were the five brothers of the deceased and Mr. James Thomas. Casey Bros. had charge of the funeral and the interment was in Wesleyan cemetery.

Prices Pulsating With Economy

The new goods—dainty, delicate, desirable—the harbingers of this season's fashions, fads and fancies. Without style, a garment is nothing in the eyes of any self-respecting woman. She looks, also, for service and economy. Some greater writer has said: "The nearest approach to heaven on this earthly sphere is experienced by the woman happy in the knowledge that she is well gowned." And it is hardly necessary to say that the trinity, "Style, Service, Economy," are important features in her dress, skirt, waist, or whatarticle of wear she may be looking for. Journey hither, to the benefit of your pocket-book.
