SATURDAY.....Oct. 11, 1890.

The Late Ex-Governor Thomas.

We mentioned last week the death of this distinguished gentleman, but the high character which he sustained and the large number of offices, both State and national, which he so creditably filled, extending through more than half a century, entitle his demise to more than a passing notice.

Philip Francis Thomas was born in Easton, Talbot county, September 12, 1810, an early education was acquired at the Easton Academy, after which he entered Dickinson College, at Carlisle, Pa., where he was graduated. He began the study of law, and in 1831, when but 21 years of age, was admitted to the bar. He was successful from the beginning, and when but 26 years of age began an active political career, which continued up to within a few years of his death.

In 1838 he was elected to the Maryland House of Delegates for the first time. In the following year he was elected to the Twenty-sixth Congress. James Alfred Pearce, of Kent county, was his opponent. Mr Thomas served through that Congress, and was renominated for the Twenty-seventh Congress, but declined to serve and resumed the practice of law. In 1843 and 1845 he was elected to the Legislature from Talbot county. He then served as judge of the Eastern Shore Land Office Court, which was afterward emerged into the land commissioner's office.

At the democratic nominating convention held in Annapolis June 24, 1847, Mr. Thomas was nominated for Governor, receiving 56 votes. His opponents were James A. Stewart, of Dorchester county; Dr. Cathel Humphreys, of Somerset county, and Col. Edward Lloyd, of Talbot. The election followed on October 6, 1847. It was five days before the returns were all in, and it was then shown that Mr. Thomas was elected by a majority of 671 over William T. Goldsborough, the whig candidate. The vote throughout the State was: Thomas 32,501, Goldsborough 31,830. In Baltimore the vote was 10,302 to 8,735 in Thomas' favor.

Upon the assembling of the Legislature, January 3, 1848, Governor Thomas laid before that body a message in which he avowed himself in favor of the resumption of payment of the State debt, and as determined to give all the aid in his power to render the revenue and tax laws effecgive. Governor Thomas retired from the tubernatorial office in 1851, and in the same year was elected comptroller of the treasury, an office created by constitution of 1851, and of which he was the first incumbent. This office he resigned in 1853 to accept that of collector of customs of the port of Baltimore under the administration of President Pierce, and served during that presidential term.

During the Mormon war Mr. Thomas was offered the office of Governor of the Territory of Utah by President Buchanan, but declined to accept it. Subsequently President Buchanan offered him the office of treasurer of the United States, made vacant by the death of Treasurer Casey, but this was declined by Mr. Thomas. The President seemed anxious, however, to have Mr. Thomas in some office within his gift, and appointed him commissioner of patents, which he accepted, and continued in that office until December, 1830, when President Buchanan appointed him Secretary of the Treasury, to succeed Howell Cobb. This office he resigned in January of 1861.

For a few years he retired from political life and devoted himself to the improvement of his estate and the practice of his profession. His love for politics, however, prevented him from enjoying this quiet for any length of time, and in 1866 he was again in the political arena and was elected to the Maryland Legislature. During this session Governor Swann was elected United States Senator to succeed John A. J. Cresswell, but declining to serve, ex-Governor Thomas was elected in his stead. Although he was constitutionally eligible, and the judiciary committee of the Senate reported favorably upon his credentials, he was refused his seat by a vote of 27 to 20. The charge alleged against him was disloyalty. He was arbitrarily refused permission to enter the Senate chamber simply because his political views were not in accord with those of the radical members of that body, who were bent upon retaining control of the government.

As the United States Senate refused to permit ex-Gov. Thomas to assume the office to which he was legally entitled, the Legislature of 1868 thought it advisable to fill the vacancy created by his non-admission, and elected George Vickers, of Kent county. A large number of the members were in favor of re-electing Mr. Thomas and thus expressing their sense of the indignity put upon the State, but the majority thought otherwise. A few years later ex-Governor Thomas was elected to the Forty-fourth Congress and served through what term, during which he was a member of the ways and means committee and committee on the Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Thomas, in 1877, was again elected to represent Talbot county in the Maryland House of Delegates. He presided at the democratic mass-meeting held in Masonic Temple in 1883, when Robert M. McLane was nominated for Governor, and was himself elected to the Legislature of 1884 on the ticket with Governor McLane and was chairman of the ways and means committee. He was a candidate for the United States Senate in 1884, when Senator Wilson was elected.

Citizen—So you think of locating here? Physician—Yes. I thought some of practicing among you.

Citizen—See here, young man, there's a good opening here for a man as understands his biz, but we don't want no practicing, or experimenting—doctoring's what we want!

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, one from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here or there, and in this way they all present, alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent or overbusy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he prescribes his pills and potions, assuming them to be such, when, in reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some womb disorder. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages his "practice" until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine, like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription directed to the cause would have entirely removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery.

It's the only medicine for the weaknesses, irregularities and painful derangements peculiar to women, sold by druggists, under a positive guarantee that it will give satisfaction in every case, or price ($1.00) paid for it will be promptly refunded.

Dr. Pierce's Pellets regulate and cleanse the liver, stomach and bowels. One a dose. Sold by druggists. 25 cents a vial.

I have learned the business thoroughly and have given it my study, and had much experience in the work of Horse-Shoeing. For this reason I think I am better prepared to do Horse-Shoeing than shops which do all kinds of Blacksmithing.

My system of Shoeing prevents CUTTING and FORGING and preserves the horses' feet.

My best recommendation is the universal satisfaction of my customers, and I have no hesitation in referring to any for whom I have done work.

My prices I guarantee to be as low as the lowest.
