DEMOCRATIC PRIMARIES.

The Democratic voters of Kent County are requested to assemble in the several Election Districts at the usual places of holding primary elections, on SATURDAY, the 7th day of July, 1906, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting six delegates from their respective districts to meet in convention to be held at the Court House, in Chestertown, on TUESDAY, the 10th day of July, 1906, at 12 o'clock noon, to select delegates from Kent county to the First District Congressional Convention which will be held at Ocean City, Maryland, on Thursday, the 12th day of July, 1906, for the purpose of nominating one candidate for Congress.

Where there are two precincts, each precinct will be entitled to three delegates.

LEWIN W. WICKES,
JAMES W. IVENS,
JOHN C. REDMILE,
Democratic State Central Committee for Kent County, Md.

HON. J. F. C. TALBOT has been renominated for Congress. The wits say he had the fight of his life—the vote being 6,714,825 for Fred and 13 against him!

THE Cecil county tax rate is $1.10 on a basis of $13,428,102. Kent's basis is $8,070,113. Dorchester county's rate is $1.50.

THE Queen Anne county commissioners have decided to make a reassessment of real estate as well as personalty and will begin in a few days.

FIVE prominent citizens of Toledo, Ohio, members of an ice trust, have been sentenced to a year in prison and pay a fine of $5,000 each for combining to raise the price ot ice. The people of the whole United States will rejoice in this verdict. Now for the coal manipulators and the oil magnates.

THE murder of Architect White in New York this week by the society leader, Thaw, is the result of idleness and too much money. This fellow had more money than he could spend, and tried all kinds of freak adventures to get rid of it. He kept drugged to insanity and in a fit of jealousy put a bullet through White.

THE State Teachers Association met at Ocean City this week and is said to have been the most successful ever held. Dr. J. W. Cain, of Washington College was elected president. Among those present from Kent were Prof. Milton Melvin, Prof. J. A. Greenwood and wife, Misses Lillian Maslin, Stella Biddle and others. Supt. Milton Melvin read an interesting paper. His subject was "The necessity for a revision of the schedules for rural schools."

AN important conference of Easton Shore banks will be held in Easton next Monday, the object being to establish a uniform rate of interest paid on savings accounts. Cashiers Harris, Copper, Wallis and Russell, of Kent, have been invited to be present. The rate of interest will likely be reduced from 4 per cent. to 3 per cent., said reduction to take effect about the first of next year.

Congressman Smith Speaks.

Hon. Thomas A. Smith spoke in the House last week in opposition to certain provisions of the pure food bill which aimed a death blow at the canning interests of Maryland. All the Maryland members did good work in bringing about the defeat of the objectionable provision. Mr. Smith's speech was in every respect creditable and reflects great honor upon him and his State.

One by One They Go.

The death of Wm. H. Vanderford, Esq., in Westminster last Saturday, closes the editorial career of a noted newspaper family in Maryland. Hon. Henry Vanderford, who served with great credit in the State Senate for several terms, was a well known journalist, publishing papers in Centreville and Elkton, and closing his successful career in Westminster at the head of the Westminster Advocate. His two sons, Wm. H. and Charles H. Vanderford, succeeded him and in some respects "set the pace" for the county press in Maryland journalism.

Charles died in January and now his older brother goes the way of all flesh. But the name lives after them and their editorial brethren will long emulate their virtues.

New Officers.—At its regular meeting on Monday night Chestertown Council Daughters of America elected the following officers for the ensuing term: Councillor, Mrs Mary E. Vandergrift; Associate Councillor, Mrs. Sallie Ivens; Vice Councillor, Mr. Wm. F. Malin; Associate Vice Councillor, Miss Emma Hessner; Recording Secretary, Mrs. A. P. Matthews; Assistant Recording Secretary, Mrs. Wm. H. Lambert; Financial Secretary, Miss Zoa V. Elliott: Treasurer, Mr. J. B. McIntyre; Conductor, Mrs. Ida Blyman; Warden, Miss Maggie Scott; Inside Sentinel, Mrs. Carrie L. Hudson; Outside Sentinel, Mr. George H. Burk; Trustees, Mrs. A. P. Matthews, Mr. Wm. F. Malin, Mr. Wm. H. Lambert; Representative to State Council for two years, Mr. George H. Burke; Alternate, Mr. George H. Burke; Alternate, Mr. J. B. McIntyre.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

THE Chestertown Bank of Maryland and the Savings Bank make fine showings in statements published elsewhere in the NEWS.

THE election supervisors for Kent county met Tuesday and appointed registers of voters in every district, most of whom are wisely reappointments. Messrs. Warren Hurlock and Wm. H. Lambert were appointed to copy the registration lists into new books.

THE Pennsylvania railroad will run excursions to Niagara Falls for $10 round trip on dates named elsewhere in this issue. The first one will be run on July 5th.

THE fishing season has opened. A well-known citizen of Chestertown remarked that the season for lying has likewise opened.

GOOD fishing is being enjoyed on Lankford Bay. Messrs. Walter Strong, Thos. W. Trew, Dr. D. L. Greenfield, R. H. Collins and others caught several dozen rock on Monday.

GUY E. MILLER, of Colorado, one of the first striking miners to be sent away will speak on socialism at Chestertown on Friday evening, July 6 at 8 p. m.

THE sale of Mr. Frank E. Stevens on Huntingfield has been changed to Thursday, July 26th. See advertisement in another column.

P. A. M Brooks has sold his power canoe to R. H. Collins; price said to be $200.

THE Chestertown Bank of Maryland has adopted a burglary insurance which gives its depositors protection against daylight hold-ups or night robbery.

A DANCING pavilion is being erected at Lambert's Riverview Hotel, over the river.

WHILE the family of Mr. Whittier Copper was out during the day one day last week a negro walked in the side door, stole the pocket book from the mantel and walked out. A neighbor saw the man and told him that Mrs. Copper was not home, to which he replied "I know it." The lady failed to recognize the thief.

Horse Notes—Mr. Walter B. Strong, of Lankford, lost a valuable young mare by lightening last Saturday night.

Mr. Thomas G. Clothier on the Miller farm, Swan Creek, has lost five horses from cerebro spinal meningitis within the past month.

Gladys, Mr. D. B. McMenamin's fine trotter, is being trained at Tolchester Stables by Trainer Johnson. She is in excellent shape and can show 2.20 clip at this time.

A meeting of the Horse Show committees and all others interested are requested to meet at court house, Chestertown, today at 2 P. M.

From Sidewheeler to Screw.—The gasoline packet Bertie E. Tull, which ranks as one of the pioneers of this type of vessel, has again assumed her route between Worton Creek, Kent county, and Baltimore. She is now owned by the Bertie E. Tull Freighting Company, and will make regular trips between the places named. She has beeen thoroughly overhauled and remodeled at the shipyard of E. James Tull, Pocomoke City, Md., and instead of being a sidewheel vessel has been changed to a propeller craft. Her old engine has been removed, and in its place is installed a 100-horsepower Globe engine, which according to Capt. D. H. Cosden, gives her a speed of nine miles an hour. She will be used principally in the grain and fruit trade between Eastern Shore and Baltimore.

Elect U. S. Senators

The Baltimore Sun's enthusiastic campaign in favor of the election of United States Senators by a direct vote of the people, is very popular at first thought, but there are strong arguments and grave objections to the plan, all of which will come out in due time. The Cecil Democrat publishes a strong editorial in its last issue in opposition to the Sun's scheme. After showing the wisdom of the fathers in making the State legislatures the custodians of the Senatorial elective privilege, Mr. Ash says:

"Can we say in this day of graft that the average voter is less susceptible to venal influences than those chosen by him as legislative representatives? If Senators had been elected by the people Addicks would long ago have occupied the seat he so greatly covets and for which he has spent an enormous fortune without avail.

"And as to this plan proposed by the Sun, which seeks to evade the Constitutional provision without violating it—in what does it merit endorsement? Nearly every objection noted above applies with full force, and in addition there is a very serious practical political objection.

"To vote for Senatorial candidates at primary meetings to be regularly called by party managers, would mean that each county would probably give her vote to a favorite son, and Baltimore city would do the same, with the result that the candidate from Baltimore city would receive by a great majority the nomination. So great indeed would be the city vote as compared to that cast in any one county, that it could readily be divided between two or more candidates and still exceed any county vote. This would give the city such a tremendous advantage that if the plan were adopted all future Senators would come from Baltimore.

"Altogether, therefore, the proposition ought not to meet with favor and probably will not attain a serious stage. It will of course be endorsed to some extent by those who thoughtlessly desire a popular election of Senators, and to the selfish in Baltimore city who welcome the plan as giving to them the certainty of daming a Senator, but by all others it will be rejected."
