IT'S ENOUGH TO TURN THE GIRLS' HEADS

When a gentleman walks by, especially if he's dressed in a Moody & Lusby Suit, few clothes look so well, few so shapely and perfect fitting. Every suit bears the unmistakable stamp of fine custom tailoring all over it and every day new customs walk in our store, having learned their neighbor has purchased one of our perfect fitting suits for less money than he has been paying for the ill fitting, poorly made kind. We have lots of imitators, but few duplicators, and the sooner you find it out the more cash you'll have for other needs. Come get fitted out while the assortment is yet fairly good.

HATS, HATS, HATS

Do we keep hats? No, we sell them. Most any conceivable color and shape and very much less in price than your city haberdasher will ask you for same quality.

We Have Separate Trousers

Separate Trousers—all the newest creations at prices to suit most any pocket book and for the boys we have the famous Khaki at 50c, the greatest Knee Pants ever sold for 50c and combined with a pair of dog-on-good Stockings at 10c, or the great bear skin at 15c; they make a strong combination.

Boys' and Children's Suits

Children's and Boys Suits in great profusion and a lot of odd sizes, that we will sell very, very low.

Shirts, Neckwear and all the little perquisites to complete your toilet.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Denroche Dies in Baltimore—Funeral of The Late Medford Rasin.

Mr. Thomas Gale, of Worton, walked down to the bay shore overlooking Gale's wharf about noon Saturday and discovered the body of the late Medford M. Rasin lying at the water's edge. He notified Capt. Tarbutton who arrived about that time on board the Kitty Knight and he in turn sent word to the crew of the Bertie E. Tull. The body was then taken to Buck Neck on board the "Tull" and an inquest held by Coroner Robert F. Moffett assisted by Dr. H. G. Simpers. The verdict was accidental death in a mysterious and unaccountable manner. His watch had stopped at 10.34 while money, pens, pencils and other things were found intact. It is the general opinion that Mr. Rasin fell off the boat about the mouth of Worton creek. The remains were taken in charge by Undertaker J. E. Ferguson and brought to Chestertown. Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon conducted by Rev. J. M. Sheridan, of St. James M. P. church, assisted by Dr. D. L. Greenfield, of Christ Church. Solos were sung by Miss Anna G. Lambert and Miss Eva Hurlock. The pall-bearers were Messrs. Andrew W. Woodall, W. W. Beck, Robert C. Morgan, Perry B. Rasin, C. R. Rasin, John L. Deputy, Nathan Lieberman and Tylden Cooper. The funeral procession was one of the largest seen in this section for some years evidencing the high esteem in which Mr. Rasin was held.

Mrs. Sarah A. Denroche, beloved wife of Rev. C. T. Denroche, rector of St. Paul's P. E. Church, Fairlee, died at the Maryland General Hospital, Baltimore, on Monday morning, from a complication of diseases, aged 53 years. The remains were brought over by Tolchester Tuesday and the funeral took place Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock, from St. Paul's Church. Rev. H. B. Martin, D. D., of Chestertown, conducted the services and the pall bearers were as follows: Messrs. George Beck, Sterling Jones, Joel Smith, Dr. S. T. Earle, James Bell and George Bell. Undertaker J. E. Ferguson had charge of the burial arrangements.

Master Wilson Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brown, died at the home of his parents, near Pomona, on Wednesday afternoon last, July 4th. The death of Wilson is indeed most sad. To his loving parents it is an awful affliction; being the only son bright hopes were indulged in for his future and he was such a sweet comfort to them; to his loving sister his death is a blow that only time can lighten; to his relatives and friends his early demise is a sorely felt loss. Like a precious bud that is plucked from a garden to form a priceless crown, so Wilson's young life has been snatched from his earthly parents and friends to brighten the Heavenly home. Wilson was a particularly bright and attractive boy and made friends with every one with whom he came in contact. Of a warm and affectionate nature, he filled a place in the lives of his family and friends that it will be hard, very hard, to replace. We knew him personally for years, and he was always the same heart-whole, affectionate, kind and good boy. His image will always find a place in our hearts. He was 13 years of age.

He was taken sick several months ago and carried to Baltimore to consult specialists. Dr. Thayer, of the Johns Hopkins, and Dr. Friedenwald, of the Physicians and Surgeons, did all in their power to stop the onward march of his disease, but it was too late. His fond parents and friends left nothing undone to give him relief. Everything earthly was at his command; skilled doctors, the best nursing, the most loving care; yet the Father of all called him from earth to his eternal home in Heaven.

The funeral services were held from his late home on Friday morning in the presence of a large and sympathetic number of his relatives and friends. Rev. E. B. Taylor officiating. The pall-bearers were Messrs. C. C Brown, W. T. Brown, Comegys Brown, Walter T. Trew, Jesse P. Wilson, C. C. Brown, Jr., J. E. Ferguson undertaker. Interment in Chester cemetery. The floral offerings were beautiful.

Sued for Divorce.—The Sun of Sunday says: Jervis M. Jewell was sued for absolute divorce in Circuit Court No. 2 yesterday by Blanche T. Jewell, through Thomas J. Mason, attorney. Mrs. Jewell alleges that a few weeks after their marriage, on November 11, 1901, her husband was arrested for stealing a horse, but was settled without criminal prosecution. About 6 months afterward, she also alleges, her husband was convicted in the United States Court here for being engaged in pension frauds and served a term of three years. After her husband's release, Mrs. Jewell says, she refused to live with him and he grabbed her by the throat and threatened to kill her. She also makes other charges.

A RICK of straw valued at $30 was burned yesterday on Mr. Robert Kennedy's farm at Worton Station.
