DEATH'S DOINGS.

Mrs. Annie Eliza Fallowfield, widow of the late J. Wesley Fallowfield, died Saturday evening at the home of her daughter, Mrs. James E. Wallace, near Sudlersville. The funeral services were held Monday afternoon, Rev. W. O. Bennett, of Sudlersville, officiating; interment in Sudlersville cemetery. The deceased was 80 years old, and the mother of ten children, five of whom survive her. Death came from general debility, incident to old age. Her son, the late William G. Fallowfield, well remembered and respected by friends of this community, was for a long term of years principal of Chestertown public school. Her four sons, Joel, of Barclay; Louis, of Millington; Caarles, of Edgemoor, Del.; and Frank, of Baltimore, with Mr. James E. Wallace, and Mr. Louis Perkins, of Centreville, acted as pall bearers. Sparks & Bradley of Crumpton, undertakers.

Mrs. Ellen Pennington died at the home of her father, Sheriff Andrew Medders, Chestertown, on Saturday, of tumors, aged 23 years. She leaves two small children. Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon, conducted by Rev. Dr. H. B. Martin, interment at Shrewsbury. The deceased had been a great sufferer and everything possible was done to bring relief, but all was in vain. She was in a Baltimore hospital for some weeks, but returned home and died shortly afterwards. The pall bearers were Herbert E. Perkins, Harrison W. Vickers, Jr., W. Ambrose Carroll, John M. Toulson, Jesse Medders and E. Cordray Loud.

Hilda May, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J Hackett, of Still Pond, died on Wednesday night of meningitis, aged about 9 months. Funeral services were held on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. T. S. Holt officiating; interment in Still Pond cemetery. The bearers were Baynard Harper, Holton Parr, Clarence Ford, Elwin Ford. Undertaker W. H. Krusen in charge.

"Aunt" Kitty Blake, a most estimable and well-known colored woman of Chestertown, died on Wednesday last at her home on Maple avenue. She was about 90 years of age and was one of the town's oldest residents. She had nursed scores of the town's prominent citizens who remember her many kindnesses to them when children. Her death is lamented by her friends and a large family.
