DON'T forget the dumb animals this hot weather.

THE Republican primaries for Kent will be held next Saturday to elect delegates to the Ocean City convention for the nomination of a Republican candidate for Congress.

THE Baltimore Sun in a nearly column editoral on Monday eulogizes Governor Warfield for his handsome apollo figure and wants him nominated for vice-president because he is "pretty." Gush!

BALTIMORE will have a Big Jubilee the week of Sept. 10 and from present indications it will be a success. The Eastern Shore will give a helping hand and be present in force.

THE Maryland Horticultural Society in session last week at Berlin adopted resolutions on the death of Capt. R. S. Emory, of Chestertown, a loyal and esteemed member of the association.

THE International Harvester Company—the agricultural machinery trust—has just made a contract with the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company for 25,000 tons of pig iron, the price being about $13 a ton at Birmingham. That will make a good many harvesters and other farm machinery which will cost the farmers of the United States at least 20 per cent more than it should through tariff protection of the trust. This trust is said to be selling its products cheaper abroad than here and our farmers have to pay high prices for the benefit of the trust and foreigners. Hon. Thos. A. Smith will help to correct this error if the Eastern Shore re-elects him to Congress.

JUDGE MARTIN ILL.

He is in a Critical Condition at East Hampton, Long Island. He was Stricken With Paralysis While Holding Court Last October—He Never Fully Recovered.

Judge Wm. R. Martin, of the Second Judical Circuit, is critically ill at East Hampton, L. I., where, with his wife and son, Mr. Edward Martin, he is visiting the family of Mr. Preston B. Spring. Mr. M. Tilghman Johnson, of Easton, received a telegram Tuesday from Mrs. Martin informing him that Judge Martin was ill and asking him to come on immediately. He left on the early train Wednesday morning for New York to meet her. Wednesday morning Gen. Joseph B. Seth received a telegram from Judge Martin's son, Mr. Edward Martin, informing him that his father was seriously ill, but did not state what was the matter with him. Judge Pearce also received a telegram and letter from Mrs. Martin, saying Judge Martin was very ill.

Judge Martin is one of the associate judges of the Circuit Courts of the Second Judical circuit of Marviand, which is composed of the Cecil, Kent, Queen Anne's, Caroline and Talbot counties. It will be remembered that he suffered a stroke of paralysis last October while holding court at Chestertown and had to be taken to Baltimore and later was removed to his country home, on the Tred Avon river, about eight miles from Easton.

While apparently looking as well as ever, it is well known that he never fully recovered his health. Although the telegrams received did not state the nature of his sickness, the tone of them bears out the impression that the Judge has received a second stroke, and anxiety is expressed here over the news of his illness. News yesterday from Long Island received by Judge Pearce said that Judge Martin was better, but that his physicians said that he would not be able to leave Long Island for at least a month.

ACCORDING to latest reports, the Harford County syndicate that attempted to corner the canned tomato market stood to win $800,000, but held on too long and finally were overtaken by shipwreck. Those who attempt to force the price of food products up on the consumer generally meets with this fate, and are deserving of no sympathy.

Sales.—William W. Beck, Esq., trustee, on Tuesday sold the Cann house and lot near Worton for $299.

The Hamilton L. Crew farms were offered at public sale on Tuesday by H. H. Barroll, Esq., trustee. Mrs. Crew purchased the fine home farm of 200 acres for $9507. The other farm was held up at a $4500 bid.

The Chas. G. Watts sale, on Thursday, William W. Beck attorney, was attended by a large crowd. Farm implements sold extra well, hogs 6½ cents a pound. It was a big sale. The H. Clay Stevens sale was also a success.

Pictures of Former Judges.—Judge James Alfred Pearce has had hung in the Court House at Chestertown handsome steel photo-engravings of former Judges of this Judicial Circuit, namely: Judges Chambers, Eccleston, Hopper, Ricaud, Wickes, Carmichael, Robinson, Russum, Stump and Brown. These pictures were furnished to Judge Pearce at his request by the families of the respective Judges, and are all certainly fine likenesses. They make a great improvement to the appearance of the room.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear little baby, MARIE LUVENIA, who departed this life on July 24, 1906, aged 9 months and 11 days.

You are not forgotten, Marie dear,
Nor ever will you be:
For as long as life shall last
We will remember thee.
O, smile upon us from above.
Ask God to lead us when we die,
That we may meet you once again
Some sweet day by and by.

FARMERS TAKE NOTICE—THIS IS WHAT YOU NEED

THE AMERICAN "FONTAINE" CORN SHOCK BINDER

Saves labor of one man. Pays for itself in a few hours. It prevents corn shocks from falling or being blown down. Prevents shocks from getting wet inside when it rains. One man alone can operate it perfectly, and with it can bind shocks as rapidly as twelve or fifteen men can cut and set up the corn. One man can easily apply a pressure of 600 lbs. to the top of a shock. Weighs only 3 lbs. Don't wait until you are ready to cut your corn, but order to-day.

PATENTED JAN. 5, 1904.

SAVES LABOR OF ONE MAN.

Delivered by express postpaid, or through agents, for - $2.00

PUBLIC SALE —OF A— Betterton Cottage

THE undersigned, having purchased a farm in Delaware and intending to move on it the first of the year, will sell at public sale in front of the Court House, in Chestertown, Maryland, on

TUESDAY, 21st of August, 1906

AT 11 O'CLOCK A. M.,

Vansant Cottage,

ON ERICSSON AVENUE, BETTERTON. This is a 12 room house, with good bath room, roomy front and back porch; stable of three stalls and carriage house, with 2¼ ACRES OF FINE LAND. It is close to the water and will make a fine boarding house, private home or good investment. The garden is fine for trucking. Fine well of water. Good Outbuildings go with the property. Am selling the property because I am going to remove from the county.

TERMS.—One third cash on day of sale and balance in two equal installments of six and twelve months; or terms can be made to suit purchaser.

L. H. P. VANSANT, Owner.
WILLIAM W. BECK, Attorney.
