IMPORTANT NOTICE.

On and after SATURDAY, October 6th, 1906, subscribers to the KENT NEWS will receive their papers from the Chestertown postoffice.

This innovation has become necessary because of the theft of papers, of non-delivery in some cases, of destruction by wind and rain, etc., etc.

The NEWS will be found at the postoffice on and after October 6th, and in order to make the list complete we hope all who fail to receive their paper the first week will so notify us, and the mistake will be rectified at once and no further trouble in delivery will be experienced.

Judge Martin.

Our Court House is again draped in mourning. But a little while ago this somber garb noted the death of EDWIN H. BROWN. Now, so soon after, it reflects a requiem for WILLIAM R. MARTIN. These were the two associates of Chief Judge PEARCE, composing a bench unsurpassed for its high character in jurisprudence and integrity.

During the nine years of Judge Martin's service on the bench he has drawn about him a host of warm personal admirers in every county of this judicial circuit, and nowhere was this more marked than in Kent. His jovial disposition and charming manner attracted all classes of people and his popularity was universal. His life was pure—his legal ability of a high order—his hand was firm and his heart true in every judicial cause—altogether constituting a beautiful adorning for an upright judge. Indeed, his ermine robe was unsullied by any marring trait that we have ever heard of, and our people were not only satisfied with his service but rejoiced in the good fortune that lifted him to the exalted station he so highly adorned.

The death of Judge Martin is sincerely lamented in Kent county. He was as close to our people apparently as was Judge Brown, and that is saying a great deal.

We trust that Governor Warfield may be as happy in the selection of Judge Martin's successor as he was in Judge Brown's.

THE Maryland State Prohibition Convention will be held in Laurel, Md., next Wednesday, Sept. 12. Addresses will be delivered by Mrs. Law, of Michigan, Hon. Wm. E. Johnson, Dr. G. H. Mead, of New York and others. The following delegates and alternates have been chosen from Kent: Benjamin F. Rash, M. A. Toulson, Rev. Warren Burr, Rev. J. K. Easily, F. H. Bottomly, J. H. Weist, C. B. Krusen, G. W. Covington, L. Wilmer Ford, S. Brown, C. G. Hadaway, Thos. Rasin, J. R. Jarrell, S. Melvin.

MR. CECIL R. ATKINSON, takes exception to the publicity given by the Baltimore Sun to the demoralized political condition of the Eastern Shore, and says "Let the Sun get busy in her home bailiwick and let the Sun see to it that clean representatives are nominated in Baltimore's various legislative districts that owe their nomination to no tool of the corporations, and the Eastern Shore will aid the Sun in its fight for clean politics and better laws to live under."

MR. BRYAN puts many good things in his platform but he certainly "slipped up" on the railroad business. The voters of the country will never sanction government ownership of railroads. To the minds of so many it would seem but the open door to a monopoly of all the great business industries of the country. If the government is to own the railroads why not the steamboats—then the sail vessels—and if it will engage in this sort of traffic why not in every other—run the factories and stores, the newspapers and hotels? No, it is to be hoped that the time will never come when our nation undertakes to wrest business enterprise from the individual, that it may become one vast monopoly, quickly to be caught up by parties and politicians and sure to become a ponderous lever of wrong to the people. It is all right for the government to overlook and protect the people by sound commercial regulations, but actual ownership of business interests, never!

The Bryan Doctrine.

The trusts must go.

Tariff for revenue only necessary, particularly in view of its influence in eliminating the trusts.

The money question, through unexpected circumstances, no longer an issue in national politics.

Government ownership of railroads just as soon as the country is ready for it

An income tax.

No more colonialism, and the same treatment of the Filipinos as was accorded the Cubans.

Popular election of Senators.

No collection of private debts by the use of the navy.

Universal international arbitration, and arbitration of all labor troubles.

An eight-hour day for the laboring man.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

Robbed.—A lady shopper in a Galena store lost her pocket book containing $80 one day this week. She had bought some articles and laid her pocket book on the counter when a colored loafer picked it up and left for parts unknown.

Narrow Escape.—Master Frank Gill while bathing in Turner's Creek one day this week got out over his head and was about to go down for the third time when his cousin, Mr. Lewin H. Usilton, went to his rescue and saved him. Dr. Urie treated the lad when he was taken ashore and says he won'd have drowned within a few seconds.

Mail Box Theiving.—Horace B. Smith, colored, about 14 years old and living near Chestertown, Md., was committed to jail in Baltimore Wednesday by United States Commissioner Rogers for a hearing next Monday on the charge of breaking open a rural delivery mail box in Kent county and rifling the letters it contained. The boy was arrested and taken to Baltimore by United States Deputy Marshal Patrick W. Seery upon a warrant sworn out by Postoffice Inspector William J. Maxwell.

Sales of Property.—Mr. and Mrs. J. T Ireland have sold to Mr. and Mrs. John C. Davis their home on High street adjoining the High school for $5,000. Mr. Ireland will remove to his farm near Coleman's and Mr. Davis will take possession within a few months.

J. W. Russell, real estate broker, has sold for Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Simpson the house on Kent street adjoining Mr. S.'s home to Mrs. Sarah M. Usilton for $925.

Big Sales.—The personal property sales this week have been well attended and in each case good prices were realized. Mr. Paul Massey got from $50 to $159 for horses; hogs from $5 to $10 apiece; sheep $5.50 each.

Mr. Frank Cochran had 33 horses which brought from 50 to $2 50. There were 55 head of fine thoroughbred Holstein cattle which averaged $50 each. A cow and calf brought $72. Mr. Hiram Powell will carry on this farm but Mr. Cochran will continue to reside there and look after the fruit and asparagus crops.

Big Deals.—One of the most gigantic propositions talked of in this community lately is that of building a $50,000 hotel on Chester river which shall become a winter home for scores of Northern people. Why not? There is not a prettier view anywhere, while the open country and river would furnish sport for the gunner and outdoor lovers and the table could be supplied with the richest of viands from orchard and garden.

Another scheme that would solve the problem of furnishing homes in Chestertown is to buy property on Calvert street, one of the finest avenues in town, and erect cozy residences thereon.

NEXT.

Horse Notes.—Mr. Albert Storey's horse took third money at Timonium.

Frank W. Johnson will take his horses to Prospect Park next week.

Edgar Bell, Mr. Skipper's recent purchase, will go Easton.

Mr. I. Hicks' two year old colt is showing fast speed and promises great things next year. Her jocker, "Froggie," is resting at Atlantic City for a few days

Mr. Sudler Baxter has lost one mule, and has two horses sick with a malady resembling in many respects anthrax—the dreaded disease from which so many horses in Delaware have died recently. Prof. Eves, a veterinarian from Wilmington, was at Mr. Baxter's Sunday, and while not pronouncing it anthrax, said it was very suspicious.

Announcements.—Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Hilliard have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Gladys Evelyn, on the evening of Wednesday, Sept. 26, 1906, at 126 west Church street, Newark, Ohio. The groom-elect is a son of the late Josiah Massey and is engaged in business in Philadelphia. Mr. and Mrs. Massey will be at home No. 1742 Green street, Philadelphia, after October 18th.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Emory, announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Ida Catherine Emory, to Chas. W. Hurst, of Baltimore.

Annual Tournament.—The annual tournament at Dewey Park will be held Monday, September 10th. These tournaments are always witnessed by large crowds, and this year no doubt, will prove no exception. The tournament will begin promptly at 1 o'clock p. m. Four prizes will be given, first, $20; second, $15; third, $10; fourth, $5, all in gold, entrance fee to Knights, $1. Charge to Knights and the coronation address will be made by Hon. Thos. A. Smith, W. W. Beck and Henry Warburton, Esqs. The music will be furnished by a Baltimore orchestra of 11 pieces. Grand Marshal, Caleb S. Hobbs; Assistant Marshals, A. T. Laws, Walter Akin, John Boulden, H. B. Massey and Paul Comegys. After the tournament a fish supper will be served, to be followed by a dance in the evening. Excursion from Betterton will be a fine trip. See ad.

"Honor to Whom Honor is Due."—In speaking of the success of the recent Tolchester Fair we noted the praise due to Capt. Eliason, Superintendent Noland and others of the Fair management, but there was one oversight which we desire now to correct. As a rule the gamblers and "blacklegs" are the curse of the fair—not only this but all the Fairs in the State—and the managers find it impossible to entirely banish them. Last year these thieves hovered about the grounds and plied their vocation whenever opportunity presented. The officers for sometime seemed powerless to prevent it. This year a horde of the same scamps visited the grounds and began their work but they were soon knocked out by Sheriff Medders. The Sheriff "nabbed" the first offender. And it only needed a single glance at the herculian officer to show his ability to enforce his commands. The prisoner begged pitiously and made brilliant offers for a release, but the sheriff was unmerciful and the field was soon cleared. It is now in order to bestow upon Sheriff Medders the honor due him. He acted in this case as he does in all other cases with the bravery and skill creditable to such a high official as the Sheriff of the county.

THE reputation and Experience of forty years is back of each pair of Dolly Madison Shoes.

THE sale of carriages at Still Pond by Hague, Hackett and Turner will take place on this Saturday, Sept. 8th. Don't miss it.

THE season of 1906 at Tolchester closed Wednesday. It has been the best in the company's history.

IT looks as if Addicks had been given a knock-out blow in Delaware. Even his friend Senator Moore went over to the enemy.

THE commissioners on the Andrew Woodall estate met at Betterton Thursday to partition the property. They expect to complete their work within a few days.

RECENTLY the United Railways Company of Baltimore, voluntarily and in appreciation of faithful services, increased the wages of its motormen and conductors. They are now receiving $2.16 per day for the first two years, $2.28 after the second year, and $2 40 after the fifth year.

HON. THOMAS A. SMITH is campaigning effectively. He makes new friends wherever he goes. He has a splendid record in Congress—he is honest and capable—and the people owe it to themselves and the State to give him a triumphant election.

Trustee's Sale
—OF—
A SMALL FARM
In Kent County, Md.

BY VIRTUE of the power and authority contained in the last will and testament of Sarah A. Handy, late of Kent county, deceased, the undersigned as trustee, will offer at public sale at the Court House Door, in Chestertown, Maryland, on between the hours of eleven o'clock a. m. and twelve o'clock noon:

ALL THAT FARM,

PARCEL OR PARCELS OF LAND, situated in the Sixth Election District of Kent county, aforesaid, lying on both sides of the public road leading from Fairlee to Tolchester Beach, adjoining the lands of Wm. E. Keyser and others, being a part of the "Handy Farm" and containing about

86 ACRES

OF LAND, more or less, which was reserved by the said Sarah A. Handy from the sale of said farm to Mary E Thompson.

These parcels of land are conveniently located, being near churches, schools and steamboat wharf at Tolchester and would make a desirable home for a person or persons of moderate means.

The soil is adapted to the growth of cereals and grass and the raising of cattle and sheep. This property being separated by the public road passing through it into two parcels of about equal quantity, will be offered separately and then as a whole.

THE TERMS OF SALE.

The terms of sale are one third of the purchase money to be paid in cash on day of sale and the residue in two equal installments in 6 and twelve months from day of sale, bearing interest from day of sale and all interest due to be paid with each installment of the principal sum, and to be secured by bond or notes of the purchaser or purchasers, with sureties to be approved by the trustee.

A Money Saving Opportunity for Wearers of GOOD SHOES

Having signed a contract with the well-known firm of N. Hess & Sons to take charge of their Baltimore City store from Sept. 15th, it compells me to close out my entire stock of Shoes in Chestertown. My stock here is nearly Five Thousand Dollars in Ladies', Men's, Boys' and Misses Shoes and Rubbers.

You knew that for the past four years I have sold you all shoes that were stylish, look looking and kept their shape; and best of all, wore you as well and were better than shoes you bought elsewhere. I have always tried to give the best leather shoes that money and twelve years experience could buy.

You need not think that you will come to me expecting to get a $5.00 Shoe for $1.50. We are going to SELL OUT—no fake sale. We will sell shoes at cost price, even less than you can buy them to-day at factory prices. When you can save a dollar or so on a pair of shoes this opportunity seldom comes to you. All we ask of you is to come to see us and we will prove to you what we say we will do. But don't put it off, for this sale will only last about two weeks, as my contract compels me to report for work at the well-known firm of N. Hess & Sons, Baltimore, by September 15th,

We will sell you shoes for less than you ever have or will be able to buy them for some time to come, and it will pay you to buy for the future. Very respectfully yours

W. AMBROSE CARROLL.

P. S.—Come at once—time is short.
