DOES FANCY DIVING OFF ROLPH'S WHARF

Forty years may spell old age to some folks, but not so to Samuel C. Walls, genial Price merchant, who celebrated his fortieth anniversary last Sunday, by performing a series of somersaults, double back flips and fancy diving stunts off the spring boards at Rolph's.

Since the days when the popular Second District merchant mastered the art of swimming and diving up at the big Beaver Dam ditch he has been a proficient performer in the water. And just to show some of the folks who were prone to twit him about his age, that he had lost none of the spirit of youth, he went to Rolph's last Sunday and performed an assortment of aquatic stunts that made some of the juvenile gentry turn green with envy.

"Sam" hails from a community where the spirit of youth is irrepressible, and he is a splendid type of all-around good fellow.—Observed.

Hundreds of circulars announcing the game were dropped from the planes and the St. Michaels management arranged to handle a capacity crowd.

ORDER OF PUBLICATION

John A. Wallace
vs.
Henrietta Wallace

In the Circuit Court for Kent county, In Equity, No. 2300.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree for a divorce a vinculo matrimonii for the Plaintiff, a resident of Kent County, Maryland, from the Defendant, a non-resident of the State of Maryland.

The Bill states:

1. That on or about the 9th day of September, 1907, he was married to his wife, Henrietta Wallace, in the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania, and they resided together as husband and wife in the State of Pennsylvania and in the City of Pittsburgh until October 13, 1913.

2. That although the conduct of your Orator towards his wife, the said Henrietta Wallace, has always been kind, affectionate and above reproach, the said Henrietta Wallace by her harsh and cruel treatment, ungovernable temper and threats and attempts against his life compelled your Orator on October 13th, 1913, to leave his said wife, Henrietta Wallace and since that time they have therefore, lived separate and apart; but prior to October 13, 1913, to wit: on August 13, 1913, for the reasons and causes enumerated above, your Orator was compelled to leave his said wife, Henrietta Wallace and in an effort to become reconciled and to live together as man and wife, he returned to the said Henrietta Wallace in Pittsburgh aforesaid and tried his best to live together but for the reasons enumerated above he was compelled again on October 13th, 1913, to leave his said wife and live separate and apart from her; that said separation, without any just cause or reason on the part of the said Henrietta Wallace and without any blame or fault on the part of your Orator, has continued uninterruptedly for more than three years; the same is deliberate and final and the separation of the parties beyond any reasonable expectation of reconcillation.

3. That your Orator and the said Henrietta Wallace have had no children born to them from said marriage.

4. That ever since their said marriage, your Orator has behaved himself as a faithful and affectionate husband towards the said Henrietta Wallace.

5. That your Orator has been a resident of Kent County, State of Maryland, since April 20th, 1922, and that the said Henrietta Wallace was residing in the City of Pittsburgh, State of Pennsylvania, when your Orator last heard from her, her present address being unknown to him.

It is thereupon, this 21st day of August A. D., 1924, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County before the 22nd day of September next, giving notice to the said Henrietta Wallace non-resident defendant, warning her to appear in this Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 7th day of October next to show cause, if any she has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
