THE Baltimore tax rate will be $1.98. In the council estimates $10,000 is to go to make war on mosquitoes!

IT is said in Philadelphia that "Baltimore interests are resisting the plan to improve the Delaware & Chesapeake canal." Can this be possible?

MR. WILBUR ELIASON is in favor of making the candidates responsible for violation of the bribery laws. This comes nearer a practical solution of the bribery question than anythingwe have seen.

THE Washington College building (Smith Hall) is now showing up handsomely. The walls are finished, and Contractor Culp expects to have the roof on next week. The College committee is making fine headway in terracing the grounds about the building.

THE Baltimore Sun is engaged in a good work in trying to stir up the public mind against the horrors of bribery. And the Eastern Shore is bad enough, the good Lord knows, as was shown in the last election. But are we any worse than other sections? We don't believe we are. Yet the Sun is giving column after column on the sins of the Eastern Shore. This is unkind in our great metropolitan luminary. Look at your own city skirts and every section, Bro. Sun, and let's try to better the whole.

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT certainly deserves credit for his action in summarily punishing the rioting soldiers in Brownsville, Texas. It seems that three companies got drunk and "took the town". They marched the streets, fired into dwellings and robbed stores. Now, because they were negro soldiers, some Northern humanitarians are denouncing the President for hasty action. Even Sec. Taft tried to undo the President's good work but found Teddy's back bone most too firm to be trifled with. So, again we say, all honor to the President for his action in this case.

COL. TOM EWELL, the noted Sun writer, was in town this week and honored the NEWS with a call. The Sun is engaged in the great work of arousing the people on the subject of bribery. Col. Ewell says he was sent to the Eastern Shore to teach this benighted region how to be good. He taught us all in two hours, and went back home happy. Shortly we may expect to see in the great city luminary the "opinions" of our people—the politicians in particular—on the bribery business. It is said that Col. Tom in the little time he was here got interviews with all the lawyers, editors and a few ministers, and these will be published—or not, as the Sun thinks best.

Gov. Warfield's Daughter.

The executive mansion at Annapolis was the scene of beauty unsurpassed on Tuesday night when Miss Carrie Warfield, the Governor's eldest daughter, made her bow to society. It is the first "come out" in the State Government house. In the grand ball the Governor with his daughter led off in the dance with the varsuvienne. The Governor has a most lovable family and Miss Carrie will no doubt shine as one of the most brilliant social stars of the year.

Gov. Warfield's Candidacy.

The Princess Anne Marylander says in reference to Gov. Warfield's renomination:

"So far as we know The Sun is the only newspaper in Maryland advocating it. This county (Somerset) is not favorable to Gov. Warfield's reappearance as a candidate. Ever since the legislature of 1904 and the policy pursued by him upon important party questions, involving the very platform upon which he was elected, the rank and file of Democrats in this section have expressed themselves in no uncertain words upon his decided independence of party wishes. To be plain, the Governor is not the popular man that he was when nominated and elected."

"We were among the first newspapers in the State to give Governor Warfield his orginal boom and we did so with great pleasure. It is a disappointment to us that events have classified themselves so that we can not join The Sun in his behalf at this time. We can but be fair to our people, however, and we know that their sentiment is absolutely adverse to his renomination."

THE Baltimore Sun moved into its handsome new home last week. Those patrons and friends of the Sun who have had the opportunity to compare its new home with the buildings of leading newspapers in England and the United States, say that it is unequaled in architectural beauty, in mechanical equipment and in all the appurtenances of a twentieth century newspaper plant.

"This week sees the completion of the work of Dr. R. H. Gault, our able instructor in Psychology and Pedagogy. Dr. Gault comes from Washington College, Md., and his work here has added to his fine record as a lecturer. He has made both his subjects, in the words of a member of his class, the 'Cream of the Summer School'."—Richmond, Va. Times—Dispatch, July 15, 1906. Special from Winchester, Va.

SOCIAL HAPPENINGS.

Mr Thomas S Bordley entertained the following members of the Kent Loan and Building Company's directors at an oyster feast on Monday evening: President Thomas H. Torping, Secretary J. Waters Russell, J D. Urie, Dr. H B. Simmons, L B Russell, Fred. G. Usilton, William F. Russell and the host.

A delightful party was given Miss Maye Webb last Friday evening. November 23, at the home of her parents, near Kennedyville. The evening was spent in various games and music until about eleven o'clock, when refreshments were served. Those present were Misses Fannie and Jessie Rollison, Mary Wood, Nora Wiltbanks, Mary and Lura Smith, Hettie Jarrell, Louise and Flora Johnston, Messrs William Jarrell, Clarence Kelley, Ralph Vandyke, William Smith, John Duyer, Robert Jarrell, Charles Hague, Morris Copper, Heigh Hill, John and Charles Bedwell, Samuel Deshane, George Webb, Samuel Minner, James Weer, of Kennedyville; Miss Hazeli Scott, and Messrs. Charles and Owen Spry, Charles and Randolph Meredith, Edward and Medford Porter, of Church Hill; Miss Sallie Ringgold and Messrs. Grover Rigby, of Crumpton.

Mr. and Mrs W. W. Hubbard gave a delightful reception Wednesday afternoon and evening in honor of her mother, Mrs. Ross.

Mrs. W. W. Beck entertained the Ladies' Card Club at her home near town Thursday afternoon.

A pleasant dance was given in Stam's Hall Wednesday evening by the young men of Chestertown

Married at Wesley Chapel M. P. Church, November 22nd, 1876 by Rev. Charles Thompson, Mr. Samuel Burgess and Miss Ellie N. Durding. Just thirty years ago and have they been thirty long or thirty short years? Have they been filled with crooks and turns, ups and downs, joys and sorrows as all lives have been? Yes, for such is life, and all must have their trials and troubles as well as happiness and pleasures, and so my dear friends you have had yours but don't you think you have had much of the brightness as well as the sadness of life? When we looked at the many friends and know they all came with the best of good wishes and breathing hopes you may live long to enjoy many anniversaries of that happy event, "thirty years ago" we felt like saying "tis well to be here" and may God continue to smile upon you as he has in the past and only enough of the showers of sadness to make you more fully appreciate the sunshine of happiness

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Burgess celebrated the 30th anniversary of their wedded life on Thursday evening at their home in Edesville. A splendid supper, consisting of roast turkey, duck, pig, chicken, chicken salad, oysters in all styles, bread, ices and fancy cakes, was served. The presents which were numerous, were in silver, china, linen and cut glass. Among those present were: Mrs. Hettie Crosby, Mr Wm. Crosby, Mr. and Mrs. C. C Wood, Mrs. George E. Leary, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Leary, Mr. Ellsworth Leary, Mr. Columbus Leary, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hadaway, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stevens, Mr. Frank Coleman, Miss Annie Coleman, Miss Elizabeth Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Mr. Marion Miller, Rev. J. W. Parris, Paul Parris, Mr. Wm. Burgess, Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Stevens, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. W Crew, Mr. and Mrs. J. Hydie Thompson, Miss Myrtle Durding, Miss Ruth Durding, Miss Hattie Lewis, Miss Mamie Wickes, Mr. Milton Mason.

TREES! TREES!

I have a splendid lot of trees for this season—PEACH, APPLE and PEAR TREES.

Our Peach Trees are grown on the mountains of Tennessee on wild Tennessee pits. Scale is unknown and our Peach Trees are absolutely immune from yellows and prematures.

HARRY L. BOYD,
n3-1m. Chestertown, Md.

ABOUT 20,000

Peach Trees

TO DISPOSE OF.

The buds were selected from the best strain of each variety which were sent out from Nicholson's nurseries 25 to 30 years ago and many of these orchards were more healthier and vigorous the past season than quite a few orchards five and six years old.

The trees have been inspected by authorities from the State Entomologist, Professor Symons, and found entirely free from any root disease, San Jose scale or other insects.

Orders will be carefully attended to.

a xmas display worthy of your attention

It's wearing along toward THE DAY. Soon, very soon, we'll be all ready to celebrate the gladdest time of the whole year. There's a deal of deciding and buying to be done before then, of course—but get among the right sort of selections, and the deciding won't be difficult.

Those who are looking NOW are doing so with pleasure—bye and bye crowds are unavoidable, with the customary hustle and bustle.

This store is very anxious to give its very best service to EVERY CUSTOMER. The store and all that it contains awaits your consideration.

Of ONE thing we are CERTAIN—that you will be sure to appreciate our efforts to show worthy goods. Our stock as it stands today measures up to a standard of our own making.

For a long time we have been selecting here, there and everywhere—now its your turn. Come as soon as you can. Stay as long as you like. Tell your friends about us.

And please remember before you call that there is every reason that you can think of why this store appeals more than any other to your desire for economy.

EYES Free

EXAMINED

AT ROTE'S

I have succeeded in arranging with DR. SAMUEL H. PINE, one of the best Refracting Opticians of Baltimore, Maryland, to examine eyes in my store every TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m., beginning December 4th, 1906.

If you are troubled with sick headache, pains in the top or back of the head, or in the eyes, come and have them thoroughly examined by Dr. Pine. If these troubles are caused by defective vision, the doctor will tell you so, and if from other causes he will be just as candid with you.

Dr. Pine comes to me very highly recommended and a great number of you know him already as being thoroughly competent and reliable.

Bring your old glasses with you and see if they are the proper kind. There will be no charge for examination and he will fit you with glasses at the most reasonable prices. At
