Hands Across the Sea
From International Sleeves

John Bull reaches out from the London offices of the INTERNATIONAL TAILORING CO. to shake hands with his cousin, Uncle Sam, in his New York headquarters. He is congratulating him on his enormous purchases of English woolens for the Griffon and International Clothing Manufacturers to make into Ready-to-Wear Fine Clothing especially for MOODY & LUSBY, the Clothing House of Chestertown.

You've probably heard of "Our Clothing" and "Our Prices" but in case you have not, you will find that you can buy advantageously here

Large assortment, well selected stock, popular prices, and you will learn by comparison that we either sell for less or give you something better than most dealers for the same price.

Pay Attention to This

If you are already a customer you know this to be the case; if you are not acquainted you better look us up. Don't be long about it either, for we have been quite busy distributing these values in—

Fall and Winter Suits and Overcoats for the Men, Boys and Children

Since October first, and closer to the holidays the more busy we become and the more depleted the various lines become.

DON'T YOU PUT OFF

for the fifteenth of December what you might have done day before yesterday, but come at your earliest convenience.

In connection with the largest line of Clothing you'll find the greatest array of FURNISHING GOODS and HATS.

CHESTERTOWN, - - MARYLAND.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

Benton Hedrick died Nov. 22nd of Croup, aged 9 years and 10 mos. He was a son of the late Frank B. Hedrick, of Baltimore county. His remains were brought over on the Ford and interment made in Crumpton cemetery beside that of his grandmother, Mrs. Thos. Bentor.

Rose May Fowler, the little daughter of Charles and Florence Fowler, of Melitota, died on Monday morning at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Copper, near Chestertown She was three years and three months old and died of pneumonia. The funeral was held on Wednesday, interment in Chester cemetery.

Mrs. Annie V. Catlin, wife of Mr. R J Catlin, formerly of Queen Anne's county, died Tuesday after a lingering illness at her home, 1025 West Lanvale street, Baltimore. Mrs. Catlin was a daughter of the late Oliver Merryman, of Baltimore. She is survived by her husband, one sister, Mrs. V. Gaddess, and a brother, Mr. C. Merryman.

William Perkins died at his home at Templeville on Saturday after a long illness, aged 83. The deceased was a brother of Mrs. Arraminta Copper, of near Kennedyville, who celebrated her 86th birthday recently.

Died on Nov. 28th, Mrs. John Nan's Wilson, of Landover, Prince George's county, formerly Miss Emily Wallis, eldest daughter of Francis Adolphus and Mary G. Wallis late of Kent county and formerly a Kent county teacher. Interment at St. Johns cemetery, Rock Hall, Friday, Nov 30th.

PROF. A. N. EBAUGH.

The sad news of the death from heart trouble of Prof. A. Newton Ebaugh in Brooklyn, New York, Sunday, was received in Chestertown with genuine sorrow. He was well-known here, not only as teacher at one time of the Chestertown High School, but by marrying one of Kent's best teachers and lovable women he became a part of Kent and we always looked upon him as a fellow resident.

Prof. Ebaugh was a native of Hampstead, Carroll County, Md., and was the son of Mrs. Harriet A. and the late Zachariah Ebaugh, of that place. He was educated in the public schools of his county and at the Maryland State Normal School, from which institution he was graduated in 1878. After graduating he continued in the school as a teacher under the principalship of the late M. A. Newell. In 1881 he was appointed to the chair of mathematics in the Baltimore Manual-Training School, now the Polytechnic Institute; later he was appointed professor of English in the Baltimore City College, which chair he filled for several years, when he was selected as professor of mathematics in the Manual-training school of Brooklyn.

Professor Ebaugh was noted for his enthusiastic devotion to, and unusual capacity for study, as well as his broad and consummate knowledge, extensive attainments and exceptional ability, especially as a teacher. He was an earnest advocate and firm adherent of educational progress; fully in touch with modern ideas, and never neglected an opportunity to lend his aid and support to any movement tending to further educational lines.

Prof. Ebaugh held the degree of doctor of philosophy, conferred by the Illinois Wesleyan University, and during his residence in Baltimore pursued special courses at the Johns Hopkins University for a number of years. In 1885 Professor Ebaugh married Miss Annie Leaverton, of Chestertown, who survives him. He was a member of a family of twenty-three children, 21 of whom were teachers. He is survived by his mother (Mrs. Harriet Ebaugh), and among his brother and sisters are Mr. Z C. Ebaugh, principal of the Franklin High School, at Reistertown, late examiner of the Baltimore county schools and ex-member of the State Board of Education; Mr. George W. Ebaugh, principal of one of the groups of the Baltimore city schools; Dr Irving Ebaugh, Mrs. W. S. Love and Miss Effie Ebaugh.

The funeral took place at the residence of his brother, Dr. Irving Ebaugh, 1710 Pennsylvania avenue, Thursday morning at 11 30 o'clock. Mr. Ebaugh was a member of Arcana Lodge of Masons, which had charge of the funeral.

GUSTAVUS M. SCHOFIELD

Mr. Gustavus M. Schofield, son of the late Captain John Schofield, of Fredericktown, died at his home, 217 Connell Street, Wilmington, Del., on November 11th, and was buried at Lombardy Cemetery, near Wilmington, on Nov.14 The deceased is survived by a widow and two children—Miss Lillie M. P. Schofield and Mr. Charles P. O. Schofield.

Accidents.—Mr. Samuel B. Foard, proprietor of Hotel Elkton, formerly of Kent, met with a very painful accident Monday morning. He stumbled over a projecting stone, and fell with considerable force, knocking his knee cap out of place. He was removed to his home and has since been suffering considerably from the injury.

Mrs. John Holden is suffering with painful and serious injuries at her home in Warwick. One day the past week in cleaning out a pantry she gathered up a lot of paper, among which was a bag containing powder. She placed the paper in a stove in which there was fire, and the powder flashed up almost instantly, burning her severely about the face and hands.

PIER E & BOLTON, Galena, are paying 36 cents for eggs. Watch for their advertisement next week.

LIVE LOCAL NOTES

THE will of the late William Morris bequeaths all his real and personal property to his wife and at her death it is to be equally divided between his five children.

THE Chestertown Steam Laundry Co., have purchased an up-to date plant of the Wilson Laundry Co., of Columbus, Pa, and will soon be ready for business. The capital stock is $5,000 most of which has been subscribed.

THE annual banquet of the Baltimore branch of the Washington College Alumni will be held at the Hotel Rennert, Baltimore, on Friday, Dec. 14, 1906. James W. Chapman, Jr., Esq., Senator Clarence W. Perkins and John T. Morris, Esq have charge of the affair and the prospects are for a pleasant occasion.

IT will require a mile of material to wire the new Administration Building at the College, the cost of the work alone being estimated at about one thousand dollars.

A FAMILY of three in Chestertown ate forty-eight buck wheat cakes one morning last week. They are not considered big eaters either.

Last Friday and Saturday were ring days at Davis & Smith's. People came. They saw. They were astonished. They bought. They saved big money. Read their adv. in this paper.

PROF. L. J. SMYTH, the efficient principal of Chestertown High School, has been granted an increase in salary up to $1,000 for next year. Prof. Smyth had about concluded to accept a position at this salary elsewhere but the School Commissioners ascertained the facts in time to retain his valuable services here. Chestertown cannot afford to lose such a faithful teacher.

Big Porkers.—The big hog of the Sixth district to date was killed by Mr. Thomas G. Clothier and dressed 540. It was the O. I. C breed.

Heavy Loss.—Mr. Ivanhoe Willis, near Chester bridge, has lost one hundred hogs and shotes and eighty-four turkeys during last month! Other farmers in same neighborhood have also met with loss of hogs. Mr. August Money, however, is an exception. He has a pen of 29 hogs ranging from 125 to 300 pounds and will sell the most of them next week.

Horse Notes.—Mrs. Lydia Lusby, of near Lankford, has lost her fine driving mare with spasmodic colic.

Mr. Harry T. Richardson, on Col. W. J. Vannort's farm, lost a valuable horse last week. The animal got hung in her stall and was so badly injured that she had to be killed.

Mr. D B. McMenamin has some fine horses in his Calvert street stables and enjoys speeding them on the shell road.

Rev. A. H. Covey is driving a fine sorrel colt that shows high action and speed.

Mr Lewin U. Skirven has sold to Mr. S. G. Caldwell, of Galena, his handsome thoroughbred percheron stallion. This stallion is four years old and weighs over 1600 pounds. The price is not made public but is reported to be $700.

An Event of Interest.—The Woman's Literary Club of Chestertown will give their annual entertainment in Stam's Hall on Wednesday, December 12, 1906. This club's reputation for splendid plays is unsurpassed and the public may look for something even better than last year, which is saying a great deal. The play to be given this year is "The Unreasonable Mrs. West" and it will be given under the direction of Mr. George A. Gardner as stage director, which is a guarantee that it will be par excellence. The proceeds will be a nucleus for the establishment of a public library for Chestertown.

Granted a Divorce.—Blanche T. Jewell, 1505 West Lexington street, Baltimore, was granted an absolute divorce Monday from Jervis M. Jewell by Judge Wickes, in Circuit Court No. 2. Mrs. Jewell testified that two weeks after they were married, which was on November 11, 1901, at Galena, Kent county, her husband was arrested on the charge of horse-stealing, and that he is now serving a term in the Maryland Penitentiary, having been convicted in January last for pension fraud. She says that when she told him she would not live with him again he caught her by the throat and tried to kill her.—American.

Changes.—Mr. J. Conly has moved from Wilmington to Chestertown and is doing some artistic sign painting. He married a daughter of Capt. Jack Jester, of near Chester bridge

Messrs. Davis & Satterfield are making notable changes at their Chapman & Lambert shops. The old office has been removed, a store room added and Mr. T B. Elliott has painted the front, etc.

Mr. James T. Ireland will open a meat and provision store in the Davis store room on High street.

Mr. H. H. Klinefelter and wife removed this week to the Chapman house on Washington avenue.

Mr. Walter U. Lusby and family have removed into the house on corner of Mill and High streets. Mr. S. R. Matthews will occupy the house tenanted by Mr. Lusby; Mr. Ralph Barnett will remove into the Matthews house and Mr. Rusk into the latter's home.

Miss Annie Copper and mother are removing to Mrs. S. M. Usilton's house on Cannon street.

SPORTING NOTES.

Mr. Walter Strong went bird hunting on Monday and killed seventeen rabbits! What will happen when he goes rabbit hunting?

Shipment of game from the South comprising 3500 rabbits and 500 partridges were condemned last Saturday because of their condition. The warm weather caused them to spoil.

The clay pigeon shoot at Chestertown Thursday resulted in a victory for Mr. Charles Watts, of Still Pond, and Mr. Jos. W. Atwell, of near town.

G. W. Hurd and son and brother, Richard, killed six wild geese near Gale's wharf one day this week.

Turkey For 30 Cents.—An eighteen pound turkey was raffled off at the Dill House Tuesday evening, the winner being Mr. James Estes. He took three chances at ten cents each and won!
