ROCK HALL ITEMS

Rev. Robert Roe preached to large congregations in the M. E. church, Sunday morning and evening and also made an address at Sunday School session in the afternoon. Both sermons and address were highly instructive and well received. The reverend gentleman has maintained his erstwhile pulpit fire and vigor. He was enthusiastically greeted by many of his former parishioners, some of whom were most visibly affected by the recalling of happy or sad events of the years agone.

Sunday being World's Temperance Day, temperance of course, had the right of way in the Sunday School service during which the men's bible class became involved in an animated discussion on the liquor question which, as usually the case was non productive of good. The liquor question and its demoralizing effects is a troublesome, unpleasant and expensive matter to our county and the temperance vote each year of less than a hundred if taken at its face appearance has a bad look for the temperance sentiment of the county, but it looks as if the evil must continue thus, until the Christian church with heart to heart, hand with hand and shoulder to shoulder shall as one man with one common sentiment, non political, rise in might and say to the liquor curse go, and it will go.

The Jr. O. U. A. M. attended divine service in a body at the M. E. church on Sunday morning.

Complaint is heard about the non protection of our oyster bars, from Saturday to Sunday night, the police boat having been anchored during that time in Long Cove harbor. This, if true, is unusual and hard to understand.

Wm. Culley and Fred Carter left here on Sunday for Baltimore to lay in a supply of gasoline and before they were at the wharf twenty minutes they were set upon by thugs. Culley was severely hurt having received a scalp wound which required about six stitches to close it up. The assailants hurled a piece of iron weighing 25 pounds at the men the iron striking Culley as he lie prostrate in the boat. The attack was unprovoked.

Mr. Jeff. Rich, who recently returned from New Jersey, is quite sick.

Mr. John Jeffers still continues in a precarious condition.

Oysters are making rapid growth, and more are being caught. The quantity on all the bars is immense and by next season, barring accidents, the bars will be so rank that it will require a different implement than those now in use to break into the oysters. If the Haman people could only realize the actual conditions on all oystering grounds, and which they termed worn out, would they be surprised? Nit, for the Sun claims this to be already the result of the Haman law.

SASSAFRAS ITEMS.

Our pastor, Rev. F. S. Cain, regreted very much that he was unable to attend the services at his church on Sunday morning that was conducted by President Little, but unavoidably Mr. Cain was consigned to the M. P. charge at Clayton, Del., to fill the pulpit there.

Miss Therza Shallcross is visiting her uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Shallcross, near Locust Grove.

The country store and poultry supper under the auspices of the M. P. Church at Warwick on Thursday and Friday evenings last was largely attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sylvester and daughter, Miss Grace, visited Baltimore Saturday.

Mr. Frederick Vansant, of Wilmington, is visiting his family here from Saturday until Tuesday.

Judge and Mrs. Sheppard Morris entertained their son, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Morris, and three daughters Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rosin entertained for dinner President F. T. Little, D. D., of the M. P. Church, of Baltimore; Mrs. F. S. Cain, of Warwick; their son. Mr. and Mrs. Scott Rosin, and son, Julian, of near Galena, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Ernest entertained her sisters, Mr. and Mr. J. R. H. Price, Miss Bessie Gunkie, and brother, Mr. Andrew Reynolds, all of in and near Warwick.

Mr. and Mrs. George Johnston and children, of Blacks, were entertained Sunday by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston.

Revival services began in the old historic M. E. Church on Sunday evening and we predict during these beautiful moon light nights a crowded house. The services are being conducted by Rev. Mr. Smoot and Rev. F. Prettyman, of Galena. Everyone is cordially invited to attend these services.

Miss Emma Busb, of Wilmington, delightfully entertained the New Century Club in Middletown on Tuesday last by a pleasing description of her last Summer's trip through France, but dwelt principally on her visit to Bethany giving in detail of the lives and habits of the Brittans and especially of the beauty of the country. Mrs. J. G. Bragdon gave an instrumental solo and Mr. Fred. Brady sang a beautiful solo. The President, Mrs. J. C. Stites, welcomed many new members to the Club.

Sunday morning was a glorious and bright day. The services held in the old fifty and more years old Rehoboth M. P. Church were beautifully conducted by President F. T. Little, D. D., of Maryland M. P. Conference, he preached a beautiful and eloquent sermon, taking for his text from revelation and held his congregation full of attention and interest. The church was filled from chancel to doorway and many strangers from a distance. The choir rendered some fine music and singing assisted by Mrs. J. F. Ernest, Mrs. F. S. Cain, Miss Bessie Gunkie, Miss Leah Vansant, Mrs. Rachel Stradly, Mrs. Laura Townsend, Messrs. Robert S. Griffith and Andrew Reynolds.

The death of Mr. Oliver Alfree who died on Saturday last was buried on Tuesday. His funeral took place from the home of his father. He died from the effects of appendicitis and was only 28 years old. His funeral was largely attended. Mrs. J. F. Ernest song some of her sweetest music and Miss Bessie Gunkie and Mrs. Nellie Maloney sang "Face to Face' most beautifully. Rev. F. S. Cain conducted the services. Interment at Townsend Cemetery.
