SATURDAY, JUNE 5, 1909.

LIQUOR was freely distributed in Chestertown Saturday night and on several other occasions by some of the "anti's." The day has gone by for that kind of electioneering, although a friend of the "anti's" stated last Tuesday week that he could get more votes with 3 gallons of liquor than the organization could with all the money in the three Chestertown banks!

ALL the candidates have paid their assessments to enter primaries, the cost varying from $1 to $56. All of the anti candidates, except Mr. Hadaway, were by law a day late in paying and in order to impress upon Mr. Barroll and his men that there was a primary law which must govern the Committee the Treasurer refused to accept the money until he had received instructions from the State Central Committee. The Committee, later in the day, decided to accept the money. The Treasurer's stand was not meant to take any undue advantage but was simply to comply with the law, and his action is so construed by all fair-minded citizens.

UNANSWERABLE!

The manly letter of L. W. Wickes, Esq., in last week's NEWS has been read from one end of the county to the other. Mr. Barroll's organ promised to publish this letter last week and also the last opinion of Attorney General Straus but as usual squirmed out of it. The editors, when they agreed to publish these documents, had not received their instructions from their "boss." The letter is unanswerable.

Don't Cease Work.

The outlook is for a clean sweep by the organization ticket next Saturday. The prospect never was brighter for a big majority for each and all of their candidates. Herein lies a danger. The certainty of success leads some to cease their efforts and the other side thus get advantage. Don't cease work till the last hour of Saturday's poll, and we feel perfectly sure of a splendid victory all along the line.

Republican Campaign Material.

Mr. Barroll's paper is trying hard to furnish the Republicans with material to run their fall campaign. Mr. B. himself asked a prominent Kent county Republican last week why he did not jump into the present board of Kent county commissioners and give them the d—l, as his paper was doing. The man replied that it was not worth while when you've got some one else to do the fighting for you!

Faithful Servants.

The anti-organization Democrats, lead by Hope H. Barroll, Esq., are making a special effort now to change the State Central Committee, of which the tried and true chairman is Lewin W. Wickes, Esq. Nothing but factional motives can influence such an effort and no good will come out of it. Every Democrat who wants to see Mr. Wickes remain as chairman of the Democratic committee can secure this result by voting for organization delegates as follows:

George W. Jones, 1st district.
John H. Clendaniel, 2d district.
C. Romie Skirven, 3d district.
Frank E. Duyer, 4th district.
John Brice, 5th district.
Lewis C. Ayres, 6th district.
Capt. Dan. W. Hadaway, 7th district.

A DEMOCRATIC MEASURE.

The reflection intended to be cast on the organization in last week's issue of the Barroll organ by stating that the passage of the Corrupt Practices Act was an organization measure, to say the least was contemptible. This measure was endorsed and its passage urged by that organ week after week as did the united press of the State. And now for that organ and its followers to try to influence the votes of what has been known as the "doubtfuls" by trying to put the blame of its passage on the organization is a specie of electioneering that deserves the condemnation of all honorable and fair men. It is one of the best measures ever enacted and both parties are to be congratulated on its passage. But what is still better—its enforcement. And all good citizens will try to enforce it in the coming primaries without regard as to who secured its passage.

Chestertown, Md., June 4, 1909.

TO THE EDITORS OF KENT NEWS—Gentlemen:—My attention has been called to a circular letter, which some of my political enemies have prepared and industriously circulated, in which they have attempted to show that in this primary I had violated the provisions of the Corrupt Practices Act.

In this contest I have made no efforts to secure votes in any other than an honorable and legal way. I have faithfully observed the provisions of the Corrupt Practices Act, and any statement made by my political enemies to the contrary is false, and the methods they have adopted to effect my candidacy deserves the condemnation of all fair and honorable men.

Very truly yours,
JOHN E. MORRIS.

JAS. H. SHUSTER is headquarters for Shoe Polish for all kinds of leathers.

THE organization ticket is worthy of the best efforts of every Democrat. From James T. Dixon down every candidate is deserving of a hearty support. The mudslinger is trying to get in his work, but his efforts are only to befoul himself.

HON. JOSEPH A. WICKES says that Mr. Dixon's fitness for office of Clerk of the Court is perfect and that he has no superior in this circuit as far as his knowledge goes.

PUBLIC OFFICE A PUBLIC TRUST

"A public office is a public trust," and the people should demand of the occupant as high a standard of efficiency as would be demanded of one holding a drivate position. In the selection of a public official, competency and experience are the main essentials, and when an office-holder has acquired the fullest experience, as far as it is possible to do so, the public should demand his retention in office. The salary provided for the incumbent is intended as compensation for the service rendered and not merely a gratuity to be paid out of the people's money, to anyone who might seek the place.

In all private business or enterprises we should, and do require the highest efficiency of the one we may select to perform the service, then why should the public require less of one to be selected to occupy a public office, than private business men require of their employees. If the service rendered is the most efficient then the private business interest is content, and there is no disposition ever to make a change.

IN MR. JAMES T. DIXON, the present incumbent of the Clerk's office, the people of Kent county have a public officer of the highest efficiency—even his political opponents readily admit this. We are told by persons upon whose judgment we can rely and whose knowledge authorizes them to speak, that no more efficient Clerk is in office in any county in this State. The only objection we have been able to learn to retaining Mr. Dixon in his present place is because he has occupied the position long enough, and from one source we are told of the aggregate amount he has received in salaries while holding public office. Have you ever heard the same objection raised or advanced as a reason for the discharge of an officer of trust in any private institution?

In the banking institutions of Chestertown we have capable, efficient and experienced officers. In two of these institutions the chief officers have served their respective banks for eighteen or twenty years each, and we are credibly informed are receiving salaries of about $2,000 to $2,500 each, and the annual salary multiplied by the years of service shows that each has received from these banks about $35,000 to $50,000!

Has long service or this large aggregate of salaries ever been advanced as a reason for the discharge or removal of either of these cashiers? Why are they retained for so long a time—the answer does not require a moment's hesitancy—because of their efficiency and experience; and the stockholder or patron of either of these banks that would make demand on the directors to discharge one of these capable and efficient officers would be deemed a fit subject for examination for some mental trouble.

If private interest retain efficient men in place for twenty and forty years at salaries when aggregated look like fortunes, then why should the public require less of their officials or be disposed to displace an experienced and efficient officer for one who at best must be experimented with before we can find whether he will prove capable and efficient. Private interests will never do this.

The importance of the office of Clerk of Circuit Court where the title to every dollar's worth of the people's property is kept, is second only to that of the Judge of our Courts. An honest, fearless and capable judge is never removed by the people, and should not be. An experienced, faithful and capable Clerk should never be removed without a better cause than has been assigned by the opponents of Mr. Dixon and we think the voters will so vote.

A tried and true servant should never be discharged for an untried one. Mr. Dixon has not only been courteous and obliging to everyone, but his kind acts to the needy of this community are certainly worthy of commendation. Dixon is an all-round good man and deserves the vote of every citizen.

THE SITUATION IN A NUT-SHELL.

MESSRS. EDITORS KENT NEWS:—The situation in the Democratic party is this:

Do the Democrats of Kent want to have over them a man whose policy is rule or ruin? If you do not do exactly as I will, says Mr. Barroll, then you will have to get out. Can the people of this county forget how he kicked out all the school trustees who would not do his will? Even school teachers were prevented from getting appointments because their fathers or brothers would not promise to vote the way Mr. B. dictated.

Competent Democratic election officials were kicked out solely because they could not be made to do Barroll's work.

Just imagine what it will be in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court if Mr. B.'s candidate wins. If the "would be boss" of the Democratic party in the county should happen to win it will be a sorry day for the common people.

We defy any man belonging to the Barroll wing of the Democratic party to say he ever had a voice in naming the Barroll candidates. Mr. B. attends to all that and leads his followers by a halter of steel. Look how he forced Mr. Cochran to get out of the contest for Clerk.

Mr. B. was heard to remark that he did not care anything about the election what he wanted was to win in the primaries.

THE ANTI'S DISCOVERY!

The Barroll Democrats are trying to make political capital over what they claim to be improper electioneering methods by the Regulars. They say the friends of the organization candidates are violating the Corrupt Practices Act by making promise of road, etc., for votes. Such electioneering is wrong and should be condemned by all parties. But when the antis bring such charges they should be able themselves to show clean hands. We know they cannot do this. The very things they charge against the Regulars they are themselves guilty of. We have now in our possession sworn testimony to prove the culpability of some of these anti-partizans. They have promised road work and engaged in every other ugly practice they would like to lay at the door of the Regulars. They think they can do as they please in this respect, but all on the other side must alone be called to account. They cannot do this. The law bears as heavily upon the one side as the other, and neither side should be thus guilty. We know that the antis have been thus guilty. We have documentary proof in our office against some of these authorized leaders. Now let them cleanse their own skirts before they bring charges against others.

A PLAIN STATEMENT.

To the Citizens of Kent County:

It seems the editors of the Chestertown Transcript and Mr. Hope H. Barroll have been commenting both verbally and by circular letter upon a letter written by me to Mr. John E. Crew, of Worton. That the above parties are pursuing the course which they have taken for political purposes, there can be no doubt, and were I not a public official of this county I would not take any notice of these false statements.

I wrote a letter to Mr. Crew on May 26th last stating that I had seen Mr. John E. Morris, and that he had promised to give Mr. Crew a piece of road to work if he (Mr. Morris) were nominated and elected; and I asked Mr. Crew, as a personal favor, to vote for Messrs. Morris and Wheatley. The explanation of this letter to Mr. Crew is as follows:

Mr. Crew was a neighbor of mine while he was living with the late Capt. Emory until about two years ago, when he purchased a home near Worton. I sold this property to Mr. Crew and loaned him part of the purchase money, and also helped him to get a horse. Mr. Crew has paid me every dollar he borrowed from me more than a year ago. Both my family and myself became very much attached to Mr. Crew while he was living with Capt. Emory, and when he purchased the Worton property from me on August 8th, 1906, and after he had purchased a horse, he asked me to try and get him a piece of road to work from Mr. John E. Morris. This conversation took place in my office in the presence of Mr. Wm. R. Clough and others, and at that time Mr. Morris was not a candidate for re-election. I also went to see Mr. Alfred C. Loud, the president of the board of county commissioners, in behalf of Mr. Crew, and he promised to do what he could for him also.

During the month of May, 1908, I saw Mr. Morris again with reference to a piece of road for Mr. Crew, and Mr. Morris stated at that time he thought he could do as I requested. I immediately then wrote to Mr. Crew telling him I had seen Mr. Morris and thought I would at last get him the road. Mr. Morris afterwards told me that all the roads under his supervision had been given out to other parties, but as soon as he possibly could he would employ Mr. Crew on the roads, realizing that Mr. Crew was an industrious, honest and sober young man and would give the county good and efficient service.

I did not see Mr. Morris about this matter again until I met him on the road on May 25th, when I stopped him and called his attention to the fact that he had not given Mr. Crew any roads to work.

Mr. Morris stated that he could not, as he would have to discharge some one to do so, but further said when the roads were given out again in the spring he would surely give Mr. Crew some roads, and that I could hold him (Mr. Morris) to his promise.

I immediately wrote to Mr. Crew, telling him of my conversation with Mr. Morris.

There was not one word said between Mr. Morris and myself about Mr. Crew's vote, or how he intended to vote; and Mr. Morris, neither directly or indirectly, did or said anything that would lead me or any one else to believe that his promise to let Mr. Crew have a piece of road was based upon the contingency of Mr. Crew's vote.

I made this request of Mr. Morris as a personal favor, as I was anxious to help Mr. Crew.

I wish to say that I intend to do all in my power in the coming primaries to prevent any violations of the Corrupt Practices Act, and if I have been guilty of a breach of this act, I should be proceeded against at once. I take and assume all the responsibility, and while I realize that it was a political trick in circulating the reports and letter, the object of the assault on me was to force Mr. Morris off the ticket, who was innocent in word or act of any violation of the Corrupt Practices Act. In other words they meant to intimidate me and thereby force Mr. Morris off the ticket, and in this they have deservedly failed. Neither Mr. Morris nor myself have violated the law either in letter or spirit, and absolutely refuse to pay any attention to such baseless statements as have been made about us. No one knows better than the authors of the statements and circular letter that there has not been any violation of the law, and I want to reiterate again that if there has been any indiscretion in this matter that I alone am responsible and stand ready now and forever to defend my position.

I want to ask the countless numbers who have received letters from Mr. Barroll, to vote for his candidates at the coming primaries, if they were not written to influence the votes of those to whom these letters were sent?

In conclusion I want to say again and as forcibly as I can, that I will not suffer any violations of the Corrupt Practices Act as far as it lies in my power, and that I think the attack on me was made sole for the purpose of catching unsuspecting voters for Mr. Barroll's candidates.

WILLIAM W. BECK.

I have carefully read the above letter of Mr. Beck and approve and verify everything he states therein.

JOHN E. CREW.

WHO CAN VOTE.

The new primary law allows every Democratic voter now on the registration lists to vote at the coming primaries, and also all young men coming of age before election day.

Administrators' Sale

—OF—

Two Wood Lots

IN THE FIFTH ELECTION DISTRICT OF KENT COUNTY, MD.

UNDER and by virtue of the power and authority vested in us by the last will and testament of Columbus A. Leary, the undersigned, administrators c. t. a., will offer at public sale on the property in front of the store of Ulysses Coleman, one mile from Edesville, on between the hours of 2 and 3 o'clock P. M., ALL THOSE TWO VALUABLE LOTS OF LAND described as follows:

SATURDAY, 19th of June, 1909

Lot No. 1

IS A WOOD LOT WELL SET IN TIMBER, lying on the east side of the public road leading from Edesville to Rock Hall, and adjoining on the north the lands of Mrs. Myra Maslin, the heirs of William Coleman on the south and the lands of John E. Hadaway and Walter H. Hadaway on the east; which said lot of land is supposed to contain about 11.935 ACRES OF LAND, more or less, (reserving and excepting therefrom and thereout the two acres of the said tract immediately adjoining the public road, which will not be sold), but all the rest and residue of said lot of land will be offered and sold subject to a right o' way over the entire tract as now laid down and used along the lines of the lands of Mrs. Myra Maslin and Dr. Walter O. Selby.

Lot No. 2

IS A WOOD LOT containing, or supposed to contain ABOUT 11.58 ACRES OF LAND, more or less. It lies on the west side of the public road leading from Rock Hall to Edesville and lies immediately in the rear of the lands of Dr. Walter O. Selby. It is bounded on the south by the lands of John Diehl, and on the north and west by the lands of Isaac L. Leary. This lot has a fine piece of meadow land, with a stream of running water, and has on it some excellent timber.

Both of these lots are extremely desirable for building and other purposes, each of them is well set with timber, and they afford a fine opportunity to any one wishing lands in this desirable section of Kent county. They are described in a deed from James M. Scone and wife to the late Columbus A. Leary, bearing date the 27th day of December, 1876 duly executed, acknowledged and recorded in Liber D. C. B., No. 2, Follos 408, &c., one of the Land Record Books for Kent county aforesaid, as on reference to same will more fully and at large appear, and each of them is known as a part of a tract of land called "Beck's Content."

Each lot is particularly described by a survey and plot of each made by Gilbert B. Taylor, Surveyor, in the month of March, 1909, as will appear by reference to said plot and survey now on view at the office of Elmer E. Leary.

TERMS OF SALE cash on the day of sale. All title papers at the cost of the purchaser. Possession will be given at once.
