DEATH OF PROF. GREENWOOD.

J. Alfred Greenwood, for many years principal of Rock Hall High School, and prominent among the educators of Kent county, died at his home in Rock Hall yesterday morning after a long illness, aged 63. The funeral will take place Monday at 11 a. m.

An obituary notice is in hand and will appear in the NEWS next week.

WEDDING EVENTS.

MASLIN—WICKES.

Miss Mamie E. Wickes, one of the best known ladies of Rock Hall, and Mr. Milton Maslin, of the same town, were married Monday at Sharptown, Md., by Rev. J. K. McCaslin, a former pastor of Wesley Chapel M. P. Church. They were given a royal reception by their many friends in lower Kent.

POTE—CHANCE.

Mr. W. A. Pote, a leading merchant of Kennedyville, surprised his many friends last week by returning home from a trip to Philadelphia, with a bride. The happy couple were given a hearty welcome. The bride was a Mrs. Chance, of Williamson, Pa.

KIRKHIDE—DEPUTY.

On Monday at high noon June 7 at Great Oak Manner the residence of Mr. John Deputy, near Worton, was celebrated the wedding of the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Deputy, Miss Elizabeth Deputy, and the happy man, Mr. William Taylor Kirkhide, son of Mr and Mrs. J. Paul Kirkhide, of Camden, N. J. The ceremony while simple in the extreme was beautiful in its ultra simplicity. The parlor was handsomely decorated with natural vines and flowers presenting a most attractive appearance, especially an altar which had been erected at one end of the room and tastefully adorned with gracefully trailing vines and orange blossoms. Preceding the bride and groom as they entered the room for the ceremony keeping in excellent harmony with the sweet strains of Lohengrin weddidg march, the two youngest sisters of the bride acted as flower girls, finishing a picture that was as unique as it was beautiful. The bride received many handsome presents of solid silver, cut glass and several checks. Immediately following a sumptuous luncheon the bride and groom left for their wedding tour after which they will return to Camden, N. J., where they will make their permanent residence

Those present at the wedding were the immediate members of the families of the bride and groom and Mr. and Mrs. George R. Vickers, of Baltimore, and Mr. Ralph Stone, of Philadelphia. The Rev. Dr. Martin, of Chestertown,

RASIN—BANGERT.

Mr. Merritt G. Rasin, son of Mrs. Alfonso Rasin, formerly of this county, and Miss Luella A. Bangert, of Baltimore, were married at high noon on Wednesday at the home of the bride, East Biddle Street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. M. Sheridan, president of the Maryland Conference. Miss Margaret Myers was maid of honor and Mr. Howard Fox, of Towson, was best man. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Rasin left for Atlantic City, where they will spend their honeymoon. Upon their return they will reside at 601 East Biddle street, Baltimore, in which city the groom holds a lucrative position with the firm of Weisenfield. Mr. and Mrs. A. Parks Rasin attended the wedding from Kent.

RODNEY—SCHWARTZ

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday evening at the parsonage of Wesley Chapel Rock Hall, where Miss Emma V. Schwartz, formerly of 1725 East Lafayette avenue, was married to Mr. Nelson Rodney, of Rock Hall. The ceremony was performed by Rev. C. Morgan Compher, in the presence of the two families. A reception followed at the future home of Mr. and Mrs. Rodney in Rock Hall

CLARK—HUTCHINS.

Miss Matilda A. Hutchins and Mr. William T. Clark were quietly married Wednesday afternoon at the home of the bride, 120 South Fulton avenue, by Rev. T. Harrison, of St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal Church. The bride was attended by Miss Lillie Fortenbaugh and the groom was attended by Mr. Harry D. Plack as best man. The bride wore a traveling suit of steel cloth, with hat and gloves to match. The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Philadelphia, Atlantic City and other points North. On their return they will make their home at 120 South Fulton avenue.

BETTERTON NEWS.

Betterton M. E. Church was the scene of a pretty wedding Wednesday evening when Miss Gertrude Emerson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Emerson, was married to Mr. Carlton Moore. The church was tastefully decorated with palms, ferns and daisies. The bride and groom stood beneath an arch of daisies. The ceremony was performed by Rev. E. H. Collins, of Fairmount, Md., assisted by Rev. J. Beauchamp. The bride's attendants were Miss Evelyn Ford, of Galena, maid of honor, Misses Helen Crew and Bessie Leigh, bridesmaids. They wore white dresses with pink girdles and carried carnations. The bride was attired in a white princess gown and wore a tulle veil. Her bouquet was of white roses. Mr. George Brice was best man and Messrs. Herman Crew and Romie Sutton ushers. The ceremony was followed by a reception at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Moore left Thursday morning for a wedding trip.

The Misses Maloney, of Baltimore, are the guests of Mrs. Fountain Crew.

Mrs. Hughes, of Wilmington, Del., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Arthur P. Emerson.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Moore, of Baltimore, attended the Moore-Emerson wedding.

Mr. Hohneman, one of the directors of the Eastern Pennsylvania, Y. M. C. A. was in town Thursday in interest of the camp which will be held at Chesapeake Haven during July.

Mr. Littleton Moore is now playing ball with the Cumberland, Md., team.

Mrs. Walter Brice and children, of Philadelphia, are guests of Mrs. George Moore.

The first large excursion of the season is expected here today from Wilmington, Del.
