PRIMARY NOTES.

Mr. Harry Griffith certainly ran well in his home district receiving 168 majority. He is one of Kent's best citizens.

Mr. Wm. W. Clayton is also thought well of at home having received 163 votes.

Mr. John Bell says there were voters who fooled him, promising to support him and then casting their ballot for the other fellow.

Dr. G. Irving Barwick also has changed his opinion as regards the reliability of some voters. He received a good vote, however, in his home district.

The vote in Rock Hall district is exceedingly full, being 150 more than voted for Gov. Crothers and 80 more than voted in the Slay primaries!

The Postmaster at Betterton voted Saturday!

Every "doubtful" voter but one voted the "anti" ticket in Rock Hall district Saturday, says one of the Regulars, and "they found fault with me for getting him!"

Several changes in the Primary Law are needed, one of which is to require all voters to declare their party affiliation when they register.

The election of five organization State delegates insures the re-election of Messrs. Wickes, Redmile and Ivens as the Democratic State Central Committee for Kent county and an earnest effort to elect the whole Democratic ticket this Fall.

KENT is very proud of her public schools which closed for the summer this week. They are now under most excellent management and doing good work along all lines.

THE BIG STORE of Wm. Medders & Co., Still Pond, announce a special sale on Wednesday of some extra good 50-cent Buckets for 9 cents. Also a regular Harvest Sale and reductions in Carriages and Runabouts. Read their advertisement on page 5. They make it worth while.

Good Record.—About January 1, 1909, there came a pullet to the home of Mrs. Joseph Guest and Mrs. G. became attached to her and later bought it of the owner at 50c. On January 11th she laid her first egg and keeping diary put down every egg, and to June 10th this new hen Pinky in just 5 months has laid 110 good size eggs. So in 150 days she laid 110 eggs, missing 40 days and is still laying.

IN MEMORIAM.

In sad but loving remembrance of my darling baby, Harriet May Lecates, who departed this life May 28, 1909.

Precious baby how I miss you.
How your mother's heart does ache
And I never will forget you
Until I see your darling face.

Farewell dear baby thou art at rest
And shall forever be.
You could not stay with us on earth,
But we can come to thee.

SENATOR RAYNER is the choice of Kent countians for the U. S. Senate and the election of Messrs. James S. Harris and Harry C. Willis will insure him two votes from Kent.

Now let every DEMOCRAT take off his coat and work hard for the election of the full Democratic ticket.

THE PRIMARIES.

It was a warm contest last Saturday, and when all things are considered, it is remarkable how smoothly every feature was conducted. The vote polled is larger than that ever cast for the Democratic ticket at a local election in this county, being about 2,050, against 1616 counted for Gov. Crothers in 1907 and 1939 for Bryan. The Crawford county system certainly worked well here and there was no disturbances of any moment nor any of the old time fights and quarrels.

Both "wings" of the party get recognition and each gracefully accept the result. Of course there are charges on both sides but the NEWS does not propose to go into them here. The time for that has past.

The result of the primary is the nomination of one of the best tickets ever presented to the people and we confidently believe it will be elected next November. The personal of the ticket is specially pleasing of which we'll have more to say later.

Mr. Walter H. Hadaway lead the fighting on his side with remarkable perseverance and to his incessant work the "antis" can attribute their partial success.

Everyone, however, is glad the battle is over and the smoke cleared away. Let us one and all train our guns in another direction. The enemy is watching our every movement. They are upon our very heels, and if not already will soon be in battle array in Kent county.

If the leaders, as well as the rank and file, in both factions will be as zealous and as efficient in the battle now to be waged as they were for factional victory, there will not be the slightest doubt of a successful issue. And is there any reason to suppose that this will not be the case? Certainly the issues are far greater. In the factional fight the results were simply personal. Now the issue is not personal but general, and involves the highest and best principles of county government. The Democratic masses, we are sure, will see this and quickly follow the wise lead of patriotic men who seek the people's interests.

There is no reason for any further division in our own ranks. We trust we may not again hear a factional utterance. At least not for a twelve month. A hard fight is before us, but a grand victory is sure to be achieved if we all do our duty. Let us no longer be factionists but DEMOCRATS—patriots, looking for victory to better the condition of the people—to lower the people's taxes and insure good order, good roads and the highest possible efficiency of the public schools.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

In the death of Prof. J. A. Greenwood the firmament of Rock Hall and vicinity has lost one of its brightest stars. He was a man of unassuming manner, deliberate in action, and an exemplar of the true principles of citizenship, friendship and christianity. It would be unworthy of this dear friend and brother to speak of his going with sadness. Tears are natural and right when we are called upon to say farewell to our loved ones, and in this instance we cannot restrain them. Yet amid our tears there comes a feeling of joy and gladness. Our brother was full of years, with a record of faithful service unsurpassed. He fought a good fight, he has finished his course, he kept the faith and we rejoice in the belief that there is laid up for him a crown of righteousness which the Lord the righteous Judge will give at that day. This community lays aside the emblem of mourning and wears the sprig of evergreen which speaks of immortality and tells us that our brother though dead, yet liveth and speaketh. The most excellent attainments of our High school, Sunday school and the various fraternal organizations here are monuments of his zeal and devotion.

The primary election here on Saturday passed off quietly and good naturedly. As predicted a week previously by our resident ex Sheriff, there was some surprises. Among which was the handsome vote polled by our rural mail carrier, Mr. Clayton. Will had only pulled off his coat, had he rolled up his sleeves the result might have been a happier one to him and his friends, but the victor is no prouder than he and he is still in the fight for the good he can do. All our citizens regret there was such exhibition of bitterness in print, and hope all will get down to decent work for a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether for the success of the ticket next November.

Our venerable friend Mr. J. C. Kendall is much indisposed by an attack of asthma.

Mr. George Colyer created a bright and cherry aspect about his home by dressing the dwelling in a new coat of paint.

In pursuance to announcement, the 14th annual commencement of Rock Hall High school, Prof. J. Thomas Kendall principal, took place Monday evening in the M. E. Church. The edifice was fitted with bright faced pupils, their parents and friends. A splendidly arranged program was happily rendered. Dr. L. E. Barrett of Chestertown delivered the address, which was of a highly practical nature and by his oratory and wit, charmed the large assembly, and held their closest attention for 45 minutes. The music too was a delightful feature, especially the solos which were sang by Mrs. Bordley, a trained vocalist of Baltimore, and Messrs. Judefind and Shuster. Superintendent Melvin gave the audience a pleasing and practical talk. There was but one graduate, Miss Frances V. Sweitzer, and her essay on "True Nobility" was a magnificent treatise on the subject. She was the recipient of many handsome presents during the evening. Miss Sweitzer is to be congratulated on her splendid success in her scholastic career. She has pursued a course both in and out of the school that is highly worthy of emulation. Following is the order of exercises for the occasion:

Prof. Kendall and assistants have rounded out a successful term and enter upon their vacation with the best wishes of the trustees, pupils and patrons of the school.

The R. C. Church festival on Wednesday night had all the appearance of a big success which is always the case with these good people.

Public Exhibition.—Arrangements are now complete for the public meetings which are to be held in Chestertown next week in the interest of the campaign against tuberculosis. On Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings at eight o'clock an open air demonstation will take place on the public square. This demonstration will consist of a popular lecture illustrated with stereopticon views. A different lecture will be given each evening. By these lectures it is hoped to be able to make plain some of the most important facts concerning the nature of tuberculosis, how it is spread from one person to another, how it is being cured, and what steps are necessary for its prevention.

Miss Lula Benton has been a visitor at the parsonage.

Mr. H. Clay Millikin and his son, Mr. H. Clay, Jr., of Woodwardville, Md., spent two days here last week. They think that this a great wheat country. So it is.

The festival given at the Epworth League cleared $42, notwithstanding the bad weather. The proceeds are for the repairing of the church. Work on the church will commence after harvest.

The subject at the M. E. Church South next Sunday—The Moral and Spiritual Dangers of young men. All are invited.

At the Commencement exercises of Washington College Wednesday, Miss Lydia Newnam Jones, of Millington, was graduated from the Normal Department with first Honors. Her essay on "Woman's Place In Literature" was well written and delivered in a graceful manner. We wish for her a useful career in her chosen profession, and an influence in the Christian world that shall direct thought to Him who made eduation, as it is today, possible.

School Picnic.—Miss Margaret Brinfield, teacher of Turner's Creek school, and pupils held their annual picnic at the home of Mr. Wm. Kendall on Tuesday afternoon The interesting game of baseball played between the school boys and married men was in favor of the married men by a score of 10 to 11. A pleasant time was spent by all present, ice cream, cake and lemonade being served in abundance to a large company.
