THE SUPREME HOPE OF THE CHRISTIAN WORLD.

The supreme hope of the Christian world today is that blessed hope, the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ. It is the personal return of Christ to this earth, to reign over the earth as its rightful King. That Christ will thus return personally, in his visible, bodily presence, was declared at the time of his ascension to heaven after his resurrection, in the words: "This same Jesus, which is taken up from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven" (Acts 1:11). And this is the supreme hope, not only of the true Church, but also of the world in general, even though they know it not; for not until Christ takes the reign of this world into his own hands can the chaotic political and social and economic problems, under which the world is suffering today, be solved.

If Paul were here now, he would preach again just what he preached and wrote when he lived on earth; that is, the Christ who has come, and the Christ who will return. The Christ who has come and who, at his first coming, died as man's sin-bearers and was raised again from the dead, is the only way of salvation for lost sinners today, as in Paul's day. If we would be ready for Christ's return we must accept the Christ who has come as our Saviour.

But Paul would also proclaim, as faithfully and persistently as he did before, the returning Christ. We must remember that Paul and the other New Testament writers were given, by inspiration of the Holy Spirit, the message for the twentieth century with exactly the same fullness and finality as if they were living today. Their inspired writings were no more for the men of their day than for the men of this day. That is the unique wonder and miracle of the Bible.

The message of the Bible as a whole is the message needed by the Church and the world today. God's Word treats every phase of truth in its rightful balance and proportion and emphasis, particularly in the great central themes of the two comings of the Son of God to this earth, first in humiliation, and then in glory.

This is the supreme hope of the Christian World on this Easter occasion. Rejoice and be glad at the prospect.

Have your mortgage investments as to principal and interest, and make your investments liquid. You hold the mortgage on the real estate with a insurance policy from the Easton Title & Mortgage Guarantee Corporation indemnifying you against loss of principal and interest.

If you have money to invest on mortgage loans inquire of this corporation what protection they have to offer you.

If you want to borrow money on a mortgage communicate with this corporation. We make loans on real estate mortgages.
