BEAUTIES

This is how those who have seen our Spring and Summer lines express their opinions, and the

Ten, Twelve Fifty and Fifteen Dollar Lines of Men's Suits

certainly merit such comment.

All the colorings, viz.: London Smoke, Elephant Breath, Cold Gravy, Spilled Molasses, Olives, Tans, Modes, etc., right up to the top notch in tailoring and trimmings, and if you have been making your purchases from first-class city houses

Our Prices will be a revelation to you

Boys' and Children's Suits in like proportion. All the dash, fit and workmanship goes with them also.

WEDDING EVENTS.

COULBOURNE—MACNICHOL.

Laurel, Del., June 17.- Century M. E. parsonage was crowded and the yards thronged last evening with people to witness the marriage of Miss Lottie Kent, eldest daughter of the Rev. E. C. Manichol, D. D., pastor of the M. E. church of this city, to M. Dale Coulbourne, of Seaford. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father, assisted by several brother members of the church, at 8 o'clock after which refreshments were served, followed by a reception lasting until after 11 o'clock.

Every hotel in the city was crowded with out-of-town guests. After a brief honeymoon Mr. and Mrs. Coulbourne will make their home in Seaford.

LINDSEY—BACON.

A quiet wedding was solemnized by Dr. Little at Christ M. P. Church parsonage Monday evening at 8 o'clock the contracting parties being Mr. Harry Lindsey, and Miss Ellen Bacon the petite daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bacon, both of Chestertown. After the ceremony an informal reception was held at the bride's parents' home on High street.

Dr. H. B. Martin, of Chestertown, performed the marriage ceremony on Wednesday last uniting Miss Virginia Martin and Mr. Jos. M. Arthur. The wedding took place in the Port Deposit P. E. Church, before a large company.

NEWSY KERNELS

State Road.—Work on the new State road began Thursday in earnest. Scores of Italians imported here from the cities are doing the work and living in bungalows built at Hopewell.

Marriage Licenses.—Clerk Jas. T. Dixon has issued the following marriage licenses: George T. Berger and Mary A. Moore, James P. Newcomb and Mary E. Duyer, John R. Dowling, Jr. and Elsie F. Warner, H. Lorenza Lindsey and Ellen T. Bacon.

Baseball. — The Kennedyville Third Team and Betterton Second Team played last Saturday at Kennedyville and the latter won by score of 12 to 1; their only run being forced in. Kennedyville would like to hear from strong High School Team of Millington, or any other small teams.

New Home.—Mr. and Mrs. William H. Lambert have purchased of J. W. Russell a lot on Kent Circle, opposite Mr. Henry S. Barnett's home and adjoining Mr. L. A. W. Vansant's new house, and will erect a cozy home there at once. This section of Chestertown is improving rapidly.

Hornless Calf.—Judge W. S. Morris is of the opinion that he has found the secret of how to raise hornless cattle. He has for years been dehorning his cattle and now he has a fine heifer calf without the least sign of a horn. Judge Morris says he has been farming forty years and that this is the first instance of such a case in his experience.

Accidents.—Master Brice Fountain while playing in Church Alley last Tuesday dislocated his wrist. Dr. Whaland put the bones in place and Brice is now getting along nicely.

Mr. Walter Wright received a bad fall from off his wagon Tuesday while hauling the new pump for the Chestertown Water Co. He received a bruised back and a severe shaking up but no serious results.

A Thrilling Runaway.—Mr. W. Irving Walker's horse created considerable excitement Monday afternoon. The plucky little bay horse attached to a carriage came across the bridge and made two round trips through town finally taking up in front of A. L. Sparks' store where Mr. George D. Lofland caught him. The animal might have been caught earlier but he had in some way slipped his bridle off. No damage was done.

Sales of Real Estate.—Mr. L. B. Russell has sold his Thomas farm in Broad Neck to Mr. Walter Skinner, of Queen Anne's. The price is reported to have been $4,000.

The Matthews farm, near Chestertown, and adjoining the Massey farm was sold at private sale this week to Capt. and Mrs. Penn Jester. The price was $8,500. It contains 104 acres. Capt. Jester will tenant this farm.

Grange Picnics—Fairlee Grange, 249, has decided to hold a Children's Day picnic and annual fish fry on Wednesday, June 30th, on Capt. Middleton's shore, Fairlee Creek. The committee desires all members of Fairlee Grange with their children and baskets to be at the shore at 10 A. M. Dinner will be served promptly at 1 o'clock. The literary program will be in Flora's charge with Bro. Smith as toastmaster.

Removals About Town.—Capt. C. R. Atkinson and family will remove from the Meteer house on Water street to the house now occupied by Mrs. M. E. Watts on Princess street. Mrs. Watts will remove to the country. A young unmarried Chestertown lawyer has rented the Chase house on Princess street now occupied by Mr. W. B. Usilton, Jr. The Brick House Club will vacate the house on Princess street.

A Dangerous Character.—Sheriff Hadaway has just received word from the Warden of the New Castle County workhouse concerning the colored man arrested here for breaking into Messrs. Rossie McCauley, E. Thos. Massey and other houses in Kent. The Warden writes the Sheriff that the man's name is Henry Smith and was released from the New Castle prison on February 10, 1909, after serving ten years. His prison record was very bad. Before serving a time in Delaware he served time in the Maryland Penitentiary and Md. House of Correction. The Delaware Warden advises Sheriff Hadaway to watch him close.

Picnics—The Sunday schools of Chestertown are arranging to hold their picnics at Queenstown early in July. Mrs. Davidson has rented "Bolingly" and invites our people to come to Queenstown. The steamboat officials have offered to make a special trip to Chestertown leaving Queenstown about 7 o'clock and arriving here at 10 o'clock, thus giving a longer day, the charge to be as heretofore. The only difference will be in the charge for dinner, 75 cents. Dates will be announced in the Sunday Schools Sunday and definite arrangements perfected.

MATINEE RACES

Rose Hill Track, Near Chestertown, Scene of Good Racing—Gov. Pennewill, of Deleware, A Spectator.

Messrs. Kennard and Mallalieu furnished the boys with a fine day's racing Thursday afternoon at Rose Hill track, near Chestertown. More than 200 persons were present and enjoyed the sport, among whom was Gov. Pennewill and five friends, of Delaware.

Bedworth, Jr., was in fine fettle and went a mile easily in 2.24, but struck lame and did not go but the one heat. Hettie H., driven by Mr. Kennard, showed up fine and the little roan made a half in 1.08. Capt. Billy Thompson's sorrel mare scored up well for a colt and trotted in with Messrs. Miller and Mallalieu's horses in the 2.38 class. Mr. Herbert Matthew's horse won a fast heat in the first race as did Mr. Tatman's mare, driven by Mr. W. A. Bell. Mr. Oscar Roe was starter.

Tuberculosis Demonstration.—Dr. Roy Stockwell, assistant secretary of the Maryland Tuberculosis Association, gave illustrated lectures on Fountain Square this week in the campaign now being waged against tuberculosis. He said there were 2,500 deaths in Maryland from tuberculosis last year and that today there are 10,000 cases in the State.
