KING'S LIZARD

"It's not every lizard that can boast of a royal name," said King's Lizard.

"No," said Mrs. King's Lizard, "that is so. In fact, I'm so fond of our name and so proud of it that I wouldn't even change it to call myself Queen Lizard.

"I call myself Mrs. King's Lizard, as all the Mrs. King's Lizards have been doing since there have been King's Lizards and Mrs. King's Lizards."

"I don't know that there is any special reason for such a name," said King's Lizard.

"I don't suppose it is because I am gray with black and brown touches.

"I don't suppose it is because I have a ringed tail which is bright and beautiful.

"I don't suppose it is because I came from far down South in New Mexico and I don't suppose it is because I have scales on my back which number six.

"Six scales on my back makes it interesting and nice for me, but that is probably not the reason why I am called King's Lizard.

"Neither do I suppose it is because the scales upon my sides are smooth.

"No, I do not suppose any of these reasons enough.

"There should be some other reason for my name. But I don't really believe I know what it is.

"I have tried to find out, but no one seems to be able to inform me.

"They all say that it must be because I was so named for some reason or other years and years ago.

I'm So Fond of Our Name."

"Now that may be so, but it is not enough of a reason to satisfy me.

"Yet it must satisfy me, I suppose.

"Especially considering I cannot find out any other reason. If any one does know the reason for my name I would be very grateful if they would tell me.

"Oh, very grateful, indeed. They would be doing the whole King's Lizard family a favor.

"Surely they would be pleased to do the King's Lizard family a favor.

"It is not every day in the week or month or year that one has a chance to do a favor like that for the members of the King's Lizard family.

"As a matter of fact, I don't see any reason for being called King's Lizard, and yet King's Lizard I have always been called, and always will be called.

"And it's a nice name, a fine, royal, mighty name. It's a name of which to be proud, it is."

"It is, indeed," agreed Mrs. King's Lizard. "But let me suggest something to you."

"What is it?" asked King's Lizard.

"Do not feel sad because you cannot find a reason for having such a name.

"Do not try to find out if there isn't some reason tucked away which you haven't thought of as yet.

"Don't bother to think of why you have a fine name, but just think that you have, and be happy over that."

"I am happy over it," said King's Lizard.

"But you're always wondering why you have such a name," said Mrs. King's Lizard.

"Don't wonder any more.

"Just be a proud and happy King's Lizard all your King's Lizard days."

And the King's Lizard agreed that that was the sensible thing to do, decidedly the sensible thing to do.

Fatter Seat Wanted

The street car was crowded. A stout woman entered and a slender young man got up and offered her a seat.

It was evident to all that she could not sit in the small space. A small boy opposite at this moment spoke to his mother. "Mother, why doesn't somebody give her a fatter seat?"

He Had to Turn

Junior was in the first grade, and, like most little folks, was very eager to obey his teacher. When she, therefore, instructed the pupils that afternoon that they must go straight home, he hurriedly put up his hand.

"But, teacher," he said, "I must turn at York road."

All Set

"Well, dad, they have fired me out of college and I'm ready for work. What shall I do?"

"Grab that bag of potatoes," said the grocer, "and rush for the truck with it. That's touchdown. Get set. Go. Rah, rah, rah!"

First Auctioneer

It is stated that Elihu Yale was the first man in England to conduct a sale by auction. Elihu Yale, the founder of Yale college, was buried July 22, 1721. Yale at one time was governor of Madras.

Reward for Heroes

The Carnegie hero fund was created by Andrew Carnegie in April, 1904. It provides rewards which consist of medals and money grants to persons injuring themselves or to relatives of those losing their lives in an effort to save their fellow men.

Just a Little Smile

KEEPING UP A FRONT

"Steve, dear," whispered the burglar's bride as he started on his evening's work, "try to be a little more quiet when you come in tonight."

"Colt'nly, kid," replied the fond husband. "Did I wake youse up las' night?"

"No, but you awakened mother. And I don't want her running up to the penitentiary and complaining to father that I married an amateur."—American Legion Weekly.

Sure Cure

Intelligent Diagnosis—The following appeared in a syndicated health column:

Question—I cannot sleep at night. Can you suggest something?

Answer—You may be suffering from insomnia. For further particulars send self-addressed stamped envelope and restate your question.

Nothing in a Name

"Why do you repeat there's nothing in a name?"

"Because," answered Miss Cayenne, "the Orphans' Amateur choir will fill the radio with discord, and then the Scrapple factory sextette will come along and give a perfectly delightful program."—Wasington Star.

DAD WAS PERSONAL

She—Dad says you have no means of support.

He—It's mean of him to comment on my personal appearance.

In the Theater

"Aha," cried the egg,
As it splashed a bit,
"I was cast for the villain,"
And made a hit.

A Complaint of Many

"Who was this here Pegasus?" asked Toofus of Willow Plume, the educated Indian girl.

"Pegasus was a horse with wings."

"I would like to bet once on a horse with wings," says Toofus. "For the plugs I bet on four legs are not enough."

Wrong Title

Visitor—Your picture of the Fiery Dragon is a masterpiece.

Schram the Artist—Fiery Dragon? Where did you see that?

Visitor—In the middle of the wall in the next room.

Schram—Oh, that is a portrait of my mother-in-law.

Medieval Housekeeping

The Borgia—I am entertaining some friends to dinner tomorrow—about forty.

Master of the Revels—Then, my lord, I will have to order some more poison—there's only enough for twenty-five in the house.

Many Kinds

New Englander—How do you like our climate?

Stranger—This one, or the one a few minutes ago?—Christian Science Monitor.

NO, NOT IN THEIR CASE

"All the members of the chauffeurs' club meet today for a grand bust."

"Not in their cars, I hope."

And Not Till Then

When you get to the land
Where the dreams come true,
It'll be when the angels
Shake with you.

Constancy

Phyllis (of the modern school)—And will you love me always, darling?

Percy—Of course, sweetheart!

Phyllis—And even after we're divorced?

Philadelphia Led

Philadelphia was the first of modern municipalities whose plan was prepared for a particular size, and the rectangular plan there adopted has guided city planning in America ever since.

English Poets Laureate

Geoffrey Chaucer, who lived from 1328 to 1400, was the first to assume the title of poet laureate of England. As early as the reign of Henry III there had been a versificator regis or king's poet.
