DRIVING ACCIDENT NEAR GLASGOW.

A serious driving accident occured Thursday evening of last week on the Elkton—Glasgow road. Messrs. Claude Booker of Wilmington, Alex. M. Scotten and George White of Elkton, were driving toward Glasgow in a buggy when their horse became frightened and started to run. The runaway overtook a buggy in which Walter W. Woodall was driving, accompanied by Miss Clark, and collided with it. The buggy in which the three young men were driving was completely demolished. Mr. White had his leg broken below the knee and Mr. Scotten suffered a fracture of a small bone in his ankle. Mr. Woodall's buggy was upset and badly damaged, but neither he nor Miss Clark suffered serious injury. Mr. Booker also escaped injury.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Miss Violet Wheat is under the care of a physician.

Mrs. M. L. Maslin has been quite sick the past ten days, but is now able to be up and about the house.

The weather this week has been fine for the wheat threshers, but hard on corn and truck in this section.

Mr. Wm. T. Harrison has been on the disabled list for several weeks with a sore foot, caused by sunburn and grass poisoning.

The wheat crops of Messrs. Page Gale and L. C. Ayres, all things considered, have given the most satisfaction of any yet heard from.

Mrs. Captain Sewell was removed to the hospital again last week. She has been in a precarious condition for some time. She is still no better.

Our farmers seem much disappointed in the yield of their wheat and the downward prices. Many intend to hold on to their crops, hoping for higher prices.

Messrs. S. J. and Wilbur Harrison have acted wisely in getting away from the water uncertainties and accepting remunerative employment for the summer with Mr. C. J. Reiche, Broad Neck.

The handsome property of the late Prof. Greenwood is for sale. City parties examined the premises a few days ago and were much pleased with the property and it is thought will purchase it, everything else being equal.

Mr. Thos. Colyer, Sr., has torn down his barn on his home place and will erect the same on his property now occupied by S. T. Wheat, in Allen's Lane, where Mr. Colyer will reside next year, after a residence of thirty years where he now lives.

Mr. Jesse Kendall, who has been ill with a complication of diseases, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Jewell, on Tuesday forenoon. He was one of our veteran oyster and fishermen. For many years he lived in a shack on the shore of Grey's Inn Creek, and was an all-round good fellow. He was a Bible student and could quote Old and New Testament scripture fluently, but he was no professor of religion.

While the services at the M. E. Church on Sunday were interesting and conducted by Mr. Charles Thompson, yet they were disappointing to a number of transient sojourners within our gates, who were present hoping to hear the delivery of a sermon by the pastor. The cause of no preaching service was the absence of Rev. Mr. Richardson, who, with his son, Vincent, was visiting relatives out of the county.

Mrs. W. V. Harris has been spending several days the past week with her daughter, Mrs. Apsley, of this place. She reports her husband, Rev. Mr. Harris, well pleased with his field of labor at Lakesville. He has three churches in charge, is superintending a Sunday-school, is a leader of several class meetings, superintending the building of a new church, and is performing all pastoral duties with great happiness. This report occasions rejoicing among the many admirers of Mr. and Mrs. Harris here and in Pine Neck.

There is very much regret here at the resignation of Prof. J. Thomas Kendall. The short time he has been here he endeared himself in the hearts of our people. All hope for the full restoration of his health. The question uppermost with the school circle is, who will succeed Mr. Kendall as Principal? Miss Mary Camp, we understand, is an applicant. Why not Miss Camp as successor? She has long been vice-principal and is thoroughly well versed in the duties of the position, and is eminently qualified to fill the place with honor to the school and credit to herself.

COURAGE, BROTHER.

There can be no doubt but that a wheat crop failure in an agricultural community, such as this, can be viewed only as a calamity. It means straitened conditions, not only for the farmer, but for the merchants, the bankers, and all others who rest upon the farmers prosperity—for their business activity. We appreciate and grieve over the loss which has come to our neighbors and to ourselves. We are pretty much all sufferers alike in this hour, aad it behooves us to encourage one another in every way we can. We must stiffen the upper lip, gird up the loins of our courage and hope for the future, turn once again to the plowing and sowing in the reasonable assurance that these dark hours are not all, nor even the most of life. There are more fair days than foul, when the sum total is taken. One or even two hard blows, such as these last two years have dealt, cannot kill a stout-hearted-man. Tighten the belt, take counsel for wise economy; look up, not down, no cursing, no despairing. God reigns, and the honest toiler in this world never yet failed to make a living and to make what is better yet—A LIFE.

IT takes a rich man to draw a check, a pretty girl to draw attention, a horse to draw a buggy, a porus plaster to draw the skin, a toper to draw a cork, a free lunch to draw a crowd and an advertisement in the NEWS to draw trade.

Accidents.—Millard, the six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Robinson was painfully injured last Friday afternoon by being run over by Col. Albert Story's milk wagon. The little fellow was gathering milk bottles and taking them to the wagon, and in jumping from the wagon he fell under the wheel which passed over his shoulder, breaking his collar bone, and lascerating his face and body in numerous places. Dr. Chas. W. Whaland rendered medical attention and the little fellow is doing nicely at this writing.

At the M. E. Parsonage, Chestertown, on Wednesday evening, July 21st, 1909, by Rev. L. E. Barrett, D. D., Matthew S. Bramble and Miss Ida Sewell were quietly married. Both are members of two of Kent's well known families, and we wish the young couple success and happiness. They will make their home with the groom's father, Mr. James Bramble, near Fairlee.

New Launch.—One of the finest canoe-built launches ever built at St. Michaels was launched Thursday of last week from the yards of Messrs. Blades & Tarr. The vessel was 35 feet long, 8 feet beam and was installed with a six-horsepower engine. The craft was built for Mr. Owen C. Smith, the prominent Baltimore druggist who arrived at Chestertown Monday to have a cabin put on, etc.

Play Repeated.—The delightful play given in Stam's Hall last week was repeated Saturday evening at the beautiful home of Mrs. H. H. Barroll and it was even more enjoyable than on the first presentation. The rustic setting was simply romantic and charming while the actors, Misses Skipper and Holbrook, Raymond Moody and Wethered Barroll, took their parts well. The Dutch dance by Misses Rebecca Aldridge and Elizabeth Connelly, Messrs. Morris Barroll and James Bacchus was original and eccentric. Refreshments were also served.

Preaching by Rival Pastors.—The pulpit of Wesley M. E. Church, Dover, was filled for the first time, since his arrival there in March, by Rev. E. L. Hoffecker, the regularly assigned pastor, on Sunday. About 200 people attended the morning services. About 300 people heard Rev. Dr. A. W. Lightbourne, the former pastor, at the Opera House in the morning, and many more at the twilight services held in the evening.

In a Sad Predicament.—Unconscious and suspended head downward in a tree, Mrs. Samuel Rankin, of West Nottingham, was found Monday morning by neighbors. She had been standing on the decayed limb of a cherry tree when it broke, and as she fell her feet caught in the forks. While her condition is not serious, she is suffering from numerous bruises.

COLORED MAN DROWNED.

Jesse Perkins, a colored waiter on board the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railway Company's steamer, B. S. Ford, was drowned, while in bathing at Rock Hall at 8.30 o'clock Friday night. Capt. W. J. Taylor, master of the B. S. Ford, reported that Perkins got into a small skiff, which was tied to the wharf, for the purpose of going in bathing. He jumped over the side and afterward disappeared. As soon as it was discovered that the man was missing Captain Taylor, with some of the crew, got into the same skiff and dragged for the body, which was recovered within a half hour. Coroner Wilkins, of Rock Hall, deemed an inquest unnecessary and the body was turned over to undertaker Casey. Perkins was 24 years of age. He has a mother living at Charlottesville, Va.

PURSE-NET FISHERS CAUGHT

Mr. Sidney Jones, secretary of State Game Warden Horace F. Harmonson, called at the Governor's office Wednesday and reported that he had succeeded Tuesday in arresting a number of purse-net fishers near Betterton. According to Mr. Jones the following men were arrested:

CHURCH NOTES.

Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown, is closed during the absence of Dr. H. B. Martin, in England. A cablegram has been received of his safe arrival.

Miss Mary Lamborn, niece of Capt. Wm. Taylor, of Baltimore, and a guest of Miss Avis Dodd, rendered a beautiful solo, "Abide With Me," during the services in Christ M. P. Church Sunday evening last. Miss Lamborn has a rich soprano voice and her song delighted the large audience present.

The new church for Dover, under the control of the People's Church, to be known as a tablernacle, is now an assured thing, sufficient money being subscribed at a meeting of leading men of the new People's Church, last Thursday evening, at the home of Rev. A. W. Lightbourne, preacher in charge, to purchase a lot on Bradford street. A committee was appointed to secure the lot at once. The lot is over 50 feet front, with a depth of 110 feet. The following committee on building of the new church was appointed: Robert H. Lewis, William J. Benson, Enoch Clarke, William Dyer and Wesley Webb.
