Marks of Distinction made possible by Volume Production
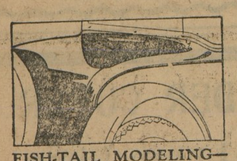
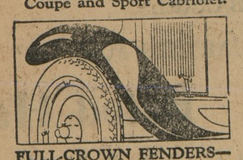
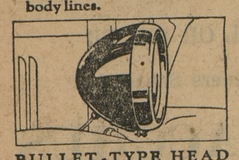
The Most Beautiful Chevrolet in Chevrolet History



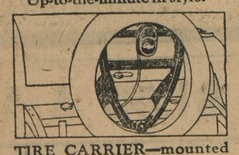
FISH-TAIL MODELING—adds a distinguished sweep to the rear of the Roadster, Coupe and Sport Cabriolet.



FULL-CROWN FENDERS—(one-piece) which lend substantial grace to the sweeping body lines.



BULLET-TYPE HEAD LAMPS—and cowl lamps. Up-to-the-minute in style.



TIRE CARRIER—mounted free from the body; rigidly supported by steel brackets

In addition to masterly new bodies by Fisher—in addition to a host of mechanical improvements typified by AC oil filter and AC air cleaner—the Most Beautiful Chevrolet offers certain features heretofore regarded as marks of distinction on the costliest cars. These are made possible at Chevrolet's amazingly reduced prices only because volume production results in definite economies and because Chevrolet now, as always, passes these savings on to the buyer in the form of added value.

No other car, as low in price, offers such features as fish-tail modeling, full-crown one-piece fenders, bullet-type lamps and the like. Come in—and see for yourself!

What may the engaged man give to his fiancée?

THE WHAT, WHEN AND HOW OF REMEMBRANCES . . . DON'T GUESS—ASK YOUR JEWELER

An engagement ring, of course! But what else, during the engagement period may an engaged man give to his fiancée—with propriety and good taste?

This is one of the many puzzling problems in the delicate and intricate art of proper gift-giving.

Certain kinds of gifts, including all forms of jewelry, the engaged man may bestow upon his bride-to-be as freely as his means and wishes sanction. Other types of gifts, such as wearing apparel or furniture, he cannot give at all, without breaching the canons of approved social practice and good form.

But there are other equally perplexing questions in the etiquette of gift-giving. What, for example, should a bridegroom give to his best man and ushers before the wedding ceremony? And the bride to her brides-maids? What are the proper anniversary and seasonal gifts to friends and relatives?

There is no finer gift than an Elgin Watch. Featured in a wide style variety and sold at prices ranging from $15 to $1700.

When you have a delicate gift problem to solve—don't guess—go to an expert for authoritative counsel. See your jeweler. He is past-master in the science of gift selection. His consultations are free.
