SATURDAY, AUGUST 14, 1909.

RAIN! RAIN! Oh for a whole day of gentle rain.

KENT will welcome the new trolley line. But when will it come?

KENT DEMOCRATS had their family fight and the Republicans have just finished theirs', now then will come the real encounter.

THE Republican ticket nominated this week is not considered strong and we predict it will go down to defeat, every man on it.

LEWIN W. WICKES, ESQ., was prevailed upon to continue as chairman of the State Central Committee by the unanimous vote of the whole Kent delegation. He has made an honest, industrious and fearless chairman and with his associates Messrs. J. W. Ivens and John Redmile will do their utmost to elect the whole Democratic ticket.

THE reports are current throughout the State and have been for sometime that a deal has been made between the liquor interests in Baltimore City and the Republican machine whereby the liquor interests will line up against the admendment and the Republican machine will see to it that there is no State wide Anti-saloon Bill passed at the next session of the legislature. It is said on good authority that this compact has been made not only in Baltimore, but in every section of the State where the liquor interests have a foothold. The excuse given by the liquor people for lining up against the Amendment is that in the Southern States where the negroes have been disfranchised, the states have all gone dry and that it is necessary to save this negro vote to the Republican party to save the saloon in Maryland.

LOCAL REPUBLICAN POLITICS.

The Republican primary election on Saturday was something new in Kent. It has been many years since the negro had been allowed to exercise such a power as he did last Saturday. In every precinct the delegations contained two negroes and three white men and the voters were about four negroes to one white! In Chestertown the leaders wisely removed the polling place to the back street up-town. Several colored voters refused to take sides declaring they did not believe in fractious politics!

Both sides charged each other with all sorts of misdemeanors but no one has been put in jail yet.

It resulted in a great victory for John D. Urie, Esq., who lead the present organization, reassuring the re-election Ex-Senator James H. Baker, as chairman of the local State Central Committee with John C. Davis and W. T. Henry as his companions. Sidney P. Townshend, Esq., aspired the county leadership and sought to supplant Mr. Baker on the Central Committee. He with Col. W. J. Vannort and Wilbur Eliason, Jr., had made a personal and persistent canvas for some months, and claimed to have quite a following especially among the colored voters, but were unable however, to win the support of any considerable number of the party leaders, and failed in their effort to overthrow the present party organization.

There was no election in Millington precinct on account of the failure of election officials to qualify. The vote in the convention by precincts were as follows:

	BAKER.	TOWNSHEND.
Millington	*	*
Galena	3	2
Second District, 1st Prec.		5
Second District, 2nd Prec	5
Third District, 1st Prec	5
Third District, 2nd Prec	5
Fourth District, 1st Prec.		5
Fourth District, 2nd Prec	4	1
Fifth District, 1st Prec	5
Fifth District, 2nd Prec	5
Sixth District	10
Seventh District	10
Total	51	13

The convention met Thursday and nominated the following ticket:

Clerk—T. H. Morris Bramble.
Register of Wills—Chas. S. Smith.
Treasurer—C. G. Hadaway.
House of Delegates—A. M. Kendall and R. Frank Elburn.
Commissioners—R. Frank Rouse and Henry Urie.
Sheriff—Marshal V. Pinkind.
Delegates to State Convention—Jas. H. Baker, John C. Davis, John D. Urie, L. Bates Russell and others.

John D. Urie and Jas. H. Baker had everything their own way in the convention, the Townshend and Eliason wing being outvoted 52 to 13. Mr. Wilbur Eliason, Jr., made a spirited speech in the convention which was answered by John Dent, a colored delegate from Chestertown. Mr. Eliason said on the floor of the convention that "any man who consented to go on the ticket made by Mr. Urie would be a d—— f——."

Mr. A. Parks Rasin was chairman and Mr. George T. Williams secretary of the convention.

THE P. O. S. of A. Convention in Baltimore this week was well attended. All were disappointed that it was not held at Chestertown.

DON'T forget the big Kent, Queen Anne's and Cecil Fair. Great races every day.

A NOBLE OLD DEMOCRAT.

Hon. Joshua W. Hering was on Wednesday unanimously nominated by the Democrats of Maryland for Comptroller of the State. An office which he has filled with exceptional fidelity and ability. The citizens of this State will take pleasure in seeing that he is continued in office. He is a noble old Democrat and long may he live to be one of our most cherished leaders.

The State Convention declared for more representation for Baltimore City agreeing to give her 58 delegates and 6 senators. Senator Rayner will have no opposition in his candidacy as he has "made good" in every way and all Democrats will delight to honor him.

Gov. Crothers administration was heartily endorsed. He is making an ideal Governor. A public utilities commission was endorsed to control corporations.

Kent county was well represented at the convention by delegates Daniel W. Hadaway, Geo. E. Noland, E. E. Leary, John Clendaniel, C. Romie Skirven, Lewis C. Avres and John Brice. Others from Kent were L. W. Wickes, William W. Beck, S. Scott Beck, J. W. Ivens, Isaac Gibbs, Thos. Maslin, Harry C. Willis, Wm. E. Keyser, Reybold Wilson, Sheriff Medders, Doc. Wm. Cooper, L. J. Usilton and others.

WOULD BUILD SHORE LINE.

It became known Tuesday that the Merchants and Manufacturers' and the Travelers and Merchants' Associations, working together, have quietly made plans for the building of an electric line through the Eastern Shore, with which they hope to regain lost Eastern Shore trade and also provide a quick passenger service to that section of the State.

The present plans of the new road indicate that it will have as its southern terminus Cambridge. From there it will go through Easton, Centreville Church Hill and Chestertown. It is planned to carry it from the latter place to a point on the Kent county shore, either above or below Tolchester, where it will connect with a ferry which will run across the bay to a point near Bay Shore, where it will connect with the lines of the United Railways and Electric Company.

It is expected that the articles of incorporation will be approved today by Judge Jas. A. Pearce. Ex-Senator Clarence W. Perkins, of Baltimore, is one of the incorporators. Next week the News will give fuller details of the new company.
