Mr. William Holton Parr, son of Mr. William Parr, of Still Pond, has been awarded the scholarship at Washington College by the Kent County Orphans' Court after a competitive examination in which he attained the highest average.

Messrs. Thomas W. Eliason, Jr., Austin Little and Hiram Eliason are spending several days cruising on the Chester river.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas W. Perkins and daughter are at Asbury Park, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Silas L. Weller, of near Chestertown, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversaary on Friday, Sept. 10th at their Rich Neck home.

Mr. Jas. G. Beck, who has been sick with fever for several weeks, was out in his automobile on Wednesday.

Mr. Warren C. Hurlock has returned from a pleasant trip to Atlantic City.

Mr. Albert B. Groves, of Morgan Neck farm, is entertaining one of the largest and most fashionable house-parties of this season. Among his guests are: The Misses Sarah, Belle and Margaret Groves, Margaret Cleary, Ruth Schalon, of Baltimore; Mettie Loud, of Chestertown, and Anna Mae Ayres, of Rock Hall, and Mrs. Mary Overton, of Washington, D. C.; Messrs. Geo. W. Kramer, Jr., John Joseph Cleary, of Baltimore; Sidney Groves, of Dover, Del., and Chas. H. Miller, of Cape Charles, Va. There has been much entertaining done for the party.

Mr. and Mrs. Whittle, Misses Marie Becker, Lilly Kirbey, Herman and Eddie Blackway all of Baltimore are visiting Mrs. Harry Pfeffer.

Little Gladys Usilton, of near Fairlee, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Louise Jamar, in Broad Neck, for two weeks.

Miss Eleanor Wilmer, of Chestertown, is the guest of Miss Edna Hurlock, in Queen Anne's.

Mrs. J. Hall Denny, of Chestertown, was called to Talbot county Thursday by the illness of her mother.

Misses Mildred Gillespie and Gladys Jacobs, two popular young girls of Millington, narrowly escaped drowning in a millpond last week. The young ladies, accompanied by Masters Paul Jacobs and Ross Dabney, went bathing in the pond and got beyond their depth. They were rescued with difficulty by their companions, after Miss Gillespie had gone down the second time. She was unconscious when taken from the water but both young ladies are now fully recovered.

Miss Emma Wilson, of Norfolk, Va., and Miss Norris, of Baltimore, are guests of Miss Hattie Bacchus in Chestertown.

Personalty Sales.—The personalty sale of Mr. C. G. Hadaway on last Monday was interferred with by rain, but a buying crowd was present. One pair of mules sold for $345 and another for $335; horses sold from $75 to $125. The Matthews and Crew sales were also well attended. Other sales are advertised in the NEWS to take place and some fine stock will be offered.

Sporting Notes.—The big base ball game in Chestertown last Saturday between Rock Hall and Chestertown was won by Chestertown by score of 12 to 9.

Prof. M. J. Thompson, athletic director at Washington College, will succeed Umpire Tim Hurst on the American League Base Ball Staff of Umpires at a salary of $500 per month.

The colored team of Chestertown will play the Chester, Pa., team at this place today.

Real Estate Sales.—Mr. Merrick Clements has purchased from Capt. Wm. C. A. Thompson a one-acre lot on Kent street extended, facing Washington College, for $1000. Mr. Clements will erect an attractive dwelling and otherwise improve the property.

Real Estate Broker J. Waters Russell has sold to Mr. W. Fletcher Melvin, the Creswell farm containing 110 acres and situated in Morgnec.

Edwin H. Brown, Jr., on Tuesday sold at public auction the William H. Cecil farm, in Spaniards' Neck, to Joseph M. Brown, of Talbot county, at $51 per acre.

A STANDARD Grand Sewing machine will be sold by H. R. Graham & Bro. to the highest bidder. See adv.

Horse Breaks Its Neck.—The beautiful bay gelding belonging to J. Edward Stevens, of Sudlersville became frightened last Sunday while Mrs. Stevens and children were visiting her parents in Kent and breaking away from the fence where he was hitched started to run and stepped on the halter throwing him heavily on his head breaking his neck. This horse was prized very highly by Mrs. Stevens and the children for his fine qualities.

THE racing at the Fair promises to be great, judging by the prospective entries of fast horses.

LOCAL BREVITIES

SPOT WHEAT was $1.04½ yesterday in Baltimore, and corn 60½c.

PREPARE for the Kent and Queen Anne's Fair at Tolchester.

MOVING PICTURE SHOWS every night in Stam's Hall. These shows are entertaining and instructive.

MR. JOHN MALLALIEU, who was driving "Lady Bess" in a race at Pocomoke last Wednesday afternoon, was thrown by the animal he was driving and caused a smash-up, but fortnnately the mare was gentle and stopped before anything serious resulted.

WORD has been received here that the Postoffice Department at Washington issued an order changing the name of the "Rural Free Delivery" to "Rural Delivery." It will be known hereafter after as "R. D." instead of "R. F. D."

MR. R. FRANK ELBURN has resigned as register of voters for the Second precinct of the Fourth district to accept a place on the Republican ticket.

THE sewer at foot of Maple avenue is being placed further out in Chester river. This improvement will cost Chestertown about $300.

TOMATOES are ripening up fine. Most of the Kent canneries have started and several gasoline boats are running this great crop to Baltimore canneries.

WATER MELONS are plentiful now. Both the Kent and Queen Anne's truckers are furnishing fine ones.

CAMBRIDGE had three deaths from typhoid in one day last week and a number of new cases are developing. At Crapo, in lower Dorchester, Dr. J. M. White has at this time 26 cases of typhoid fever.

THE Betterton Casino German on Wednesday evening last was a most pleasant affair. Prof. Farson and his orchestra furnished delightful music. The Fourth German of the season will take place next Thursday.

THE base ball games at Betterton are witnessed by quite a number every game. The game Tuesday with the strong Roland Park team was a great one and won by Betterton by score of 2 to 1. Horsey did great pitching for Betterton. Walbrook defeated Betterton Thursday by score of 10 to 3.

DAVIS & SATTERFIELD, the Chestertown implement house, are gaining an enviable reputation for reliable home built wagons and dearborns. It pays to buy good goods.

FISHING near Betterton is great just now. Every boat going out averages from 20 to 40 dozen rock and perch per day.

AUTOMOBILES have been ordered this week of J. H. Sides by Mr. Wm. T. Sutton, the Chestertown plumber, and Dr. Atwell, of Still Pond. Mr. Sutton has ordered a 22-horse-power Maxwell.

New College Professors.—The following appointments have been made to fill vacancies in Washington College faculty:

Theo. Peet, A. M., of New York city, professor of French and German in place of Prof. Seronde.

Herbert C. Sanborn, Ph. D., of Winchester, Mass., professor of Psychology and pedagogy in place of Dr. Gault.

Chas. W. Hall, A. M., of Crete, Neb., professor of English and History in place of Prof. Neilson.

Mrs. Amy Ford Walker, of Dover, Del., preceptress in place of Miss Baker.

Nothing in the nnmor of Prof. Thompson's leaving Washington.

Plans Out.—The plans for the new Kent County Savings Bank building have been distributed and are being examined by several builders who will offer bids for its erection in a short time.

Will Marry.—Marriage license have been issued by Clerk James T. Dixon to the following: Edward Stevens and Maggie Hill; Charles D. Price and Anna May Crouch; Albert V. Gussford, of New Castle, Del., and Katherine Keville.

Kent Horses at Salisbury Fair.—In the 2.18 class Lady Bess, J. T. Mallalieu, Chestertown, came in 4, 4, 2. In the 2.22 class Hattie C., J. T. Mallalieu, came in 3, 2, 1, 4, 7, 5, 4. The latter race was very exciting.

Grange Notes.—Pomona or Fairlee Grange will hold its meeting next Wednesday evening Aug. 25th on Mr. Fletcher's lawn; Pomona will have programme in charge and give address of welcome. All members of grange are invited to be present and bring fruit for the feast of the season. Visitors from other granges will receive a cordial welcome.

Several of the Kent Granges are making arrangements to buy fertilizer, etc. this fall by wholesale lots.

Publishing Memoriams, etc.—As we have called attention to often before we are compelled to do so again in regard to obituaries and memoriams. The editors are glad to publish free of charge any deaths of loved ones, but verses of poetry, obituaries and memoriams will have to be charged for at the rate of 5 cents a line and we would be glad if our friends when sending these verses, etc., would also remit at this rate and the verses will receive immediate attention.

Fine Dairy Stock.—Mr. R. Haggerty, of Kennedyville, has been on a business trip to New Berlin, New York, and writes as follows: "The first Holstein Stock I ever saw came here from Holland about 35 years ago by a man named Holland Longworthy. I cannot remember just how many but about 50 head of 2-year old heifers and a few bulls, and today as I rode over those hills I can see cows by the thousands and 99 per cent. are Holsteins. The largest milk plant in the world, "The Bordens," is in this town, and other plants like Standard Dairy Co. shipping milk by the train load to New York City, also the Phoenix Cheese Co. and thousands of butter and cheese factories all run by the Holstein cow. They come here from nearly every State in the union for cows. Why? Because they have the best."

Plenty of Applicants.—The straw baler, advertised in the NEWS by Mr. B. F. Potts, of Queen Anne's, near Chestertown, was called for by eight persons in less than a week. Mr. Potts and twenty teams one afternoon last week loaded two big freight cars at Chestertown with baled straw for Philadelphia. Other Queen Anne's farmers are loading baled straw on cars this week at Chestertown.
