SATURDAY, AUGUST 28, 1909.

J. D. URIE, was the head and front of the Kent County delegation at the Republican State Convention and was on the resolution Committee. S. P. Townshend Esq., and Mr. Decorse were among those "also present but not voting." The new central committee consists of James H. Baker, John C. Davis and George Thomas Henry.

THE Republican State Convention met in Baltimore Wednesday and nominated Mr. Frank E. Williams, of Cecil county, as the nominee for Comptroller. Mr. Williams is editor of the Cecil Whig, formerly a Presbyterian minister, and the champion mud-slinger in the Governor Crothers Campaign. Even his party organs advised him to cease such attacks and his charges fell with a thud that knocked Mr. Williams and his party out of the contest. The same result will happen again and his words will come literally true, "I feel as though I am a lamb being led to the slaughter."

THE war of words between two of our newspaper contemporaries is furnishing considerable amusement for Chestertown citizens but is very much deplored by good-thinking people. A newspaper is no place for personal controversy and vituperation and no good is ever accomplished in this way. It is very much like a dog fight—very interesting to the spectators, but little concern among them as to who whips.

THE drought has become a matter of great seriousness in Kent and Queen Anne's counties. The corn and tomato crops will be cut to an alarming extent while plowing has been very much hindered. The dry weather, however, is conducive to good health, and it is said the health of our people is far above the average. There is a silver lining to every cloud. Look for it.

IT MAKES but little difference to the voters of Kent whether Mr. R. is a "renegade Democrat" or Mr. B. a "strutting peacock." The issue is more important and vital. The individual candidates of the two leading parties in Kent are the representatives of the two parties; they draw their inspiration from and found their political creeds upon the constituency which they represent. We have not a word to say against the personel of the Republican ticket, but this is not the only consideration. On the one hand we have the Democracy, composed entirely of white men and representing the best interests of the whole people; on the other we have the Republican party, depending absolutely for its existence upon negroes who in most cases have no interest whatever in the proper administration of the public affairs, and who know only one doctrine- to go to the polls and blindly vote the Republican ticket.

So long as any party gains it support from such a source it can not rise above the level of its component parts. It must cater to and be more or less governed by this large element of its constituency, and that in itself constitutes a dangerous approach to negro domination. The spectacle of negro delegates in full brotherhood in a political convention is prima facie evidence that such a condition exists in Kent county, and that the safety of the white man lies in voting the Democratic ticket.

AFTER the closest kind of bidding, the firm of George W. King & Co., was awarded the contract for the State printing for the next General Assembly. The bids were opened by the Board of Public Works at Annapolis at noon Wednesday. The successful bid was $21,974.

The call for bids stated that no bid should exceed $22,000, and all of the figures were dangerously close to this amount. W. J. Dulany Company and King Bros., both Baltimore firms, bid $21,995 each. Lewenthal-Wolff & Co., bid $21,998 and Wm. B. Usilton's Sons, of the Kent News, the only bidder outside of Baltimore city, offered to do the work for $21,987,35.

THE Fair next week.

ALL roads will lead to Tolchester next week.

DRY, dry weather.

THE oyster season opens next Wednesday and oysters on the Kent bars are said to be plentiful.

LABORERS and single carts are wanted by F. M. Latham & Co., the contractors for the new State road in Queen Anne's, near Chestertown.

THE new trolley scheme is making progress.

OUR real estate dealers report an active market for Kent lands. No better or safer investment can be made than in Kent county farms and land.

THE fortunate Kent farmers who have a crop of peaches are getting fair prices for their fruit, although the big California fruit crop is rushing East.

A FULL attendance of the members of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company is requested in the Eliason store room next Monday night at 8 o'clock. Arrangements will then be made for the opening of the fine new building of the Fire Company on Cross St.

THE "show" in J. E. Ferguson's yard last Monday evening was a big success. The managers were Misses Polly Westcott, Lois Anderson, Richard and Merritt Twilley and others.

WEDDING EVENTS.

ABEY—JEWELL.

A pretty wedding took place Wednesday night, when Miss Ida Estelle Jewell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward H. Jewell, 1207 Riverside avenue, was married to Mr. Albert W. Abey by Rev. Samuel M. Grafflin, of Patterson Memorial Church, at the home of the parents of the bride. Following the ceremony a supper was served and the wedding cake cut by the bride. The rooms were tastefully decorated, the color scheme being white. A stringed orchestra played behind the palms. Following the bridal supper Mr. and Mrs. Abey, left for a trip to Kent county, and upon their return will live in the neighborhood of the bride's parents, on Riverside avenue, Baltimore, Among those present from Kent were Mr. and Mrs. Thos. F. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fowler and Miss Jennie Davis. The bride is a grand-daughter of Mr. B. F. Davis.

FORD—SMITH.

Miss Pearle Smith, of No. 316 East Tenth street, Wilmington and Ralph S. Ford of Kent county, Md., were married at the bride's home at 8.16 o'clock Saturday evening. Rev. George Williams, pastor of Epworth M. E. Church, officiating. The attendants were Elmer Collins and Miss Memmie of Harrington. The wedding march was played by Mrs. Frank Stout, an aunt of the groom. A supper was served to the newly married couple and the many guests. After September 1st they will be at home at 316 East Tenth street, Wilmington, Del.

Meeting each other for the first time at the wedding of their sister and brother, respectively, at the Chapel at Rock Hall on June 2, Miss Ida Schwartz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Schwartz, and Mr. James W. Rodney, of that town, were so fascinated by the strains of the Lohengrin march that they decided to follow suit and surprised their friends by being married. The ceremony was performed at the parsonage of Alnutt Methodist Protestant Church, Chester and Lombard streets, by Rev. Dr. John W. Bowers, the rector. Only the members of the immediate families of the bride and groom were present.

BETTERTON ITEMS.

The season about drawing to a close has been a most successful one for the hotels and cottages. Many of the cottages could got accommodate all who applied for board. The shore has been dotted for some distance with the tents of camping parties. The Amity Camping Club, of Philadelphia, has just broken their twenty-fifth annual camp at Betterton. The torpedo boat Somers anchored here one night last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brice and children, of Philadelphia, are spending some time with Mr. and Mrs. George Moore.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Leigh and children, of Baltimore, were recent guests of relatives in town.

Miss Myrtle Taylor is visiting relatives in Beverly, N. J.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Briscoe, of Baltimore, have been the guests of Mrs. Briscoe's sister, Mrs. Charles Brice.

Betterton plays the strong Bel Air team, champions of Harford, on Saturday at Betterton, and as the home team is playing fast ball this game should be one of the best of the season. Next week Betterton plays a second game with the Catonsville Country Club and on Labor Day will meet one of the fastest teams in Maryland. Horsey and Moore are both pitching fast ball and Captain Littleton Crew is always in the game. The Waverly Athletic Club, of Baltimore was defeated by the home team on Thursday in easy fashion by the score of 4 to 0. Moore's pitching was steady and of high order at all stages of the game and the fielding was perfect, not an error being charged to Betterton. Smith's two bagger in the first inning, scoring two runs and L. Crew's stick work and allround playing were features of the game. The visitors played good ball but could not follow the pace. The score as follows :
