Marion deK. Smith, Esq., is spending a few days at Atlantic City.

Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Staveley, of Haddonfield, N. J., have been visiting at "Great Oak Manor," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Staveley. Little Miss Francis Staveley accompanied her friends to New Jersey and is having a fine time.

Dr. F. I. Little, this week, visited his son, Frank, who has suffered a relapse from fever at Maryland University Hospital. His physician thought he was convalescent from a spell of fever and allowed him eggs and within 48 hours the fever returned. There are no complications and his early recovery is confidently expected. There are 34 cases of fever in this one Baltimore hospital.

Miss Laura Jessup, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Johnson, of New York, have been guests this week of Mr. Walter B. Strong in Broad Neck.

Miss Edith Fallowfield is visiting friends in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Hurlock Byrd, of New York, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Lee, near Melitota.

Mr. Samuel Vickers, of Broad Neck, accompanied by Dr. Hines and Mr S. J. Vickers, went to Baltimore City Hospital Tuesday for treatment.

Messrs. Elwood Whaley and Ralph W. Barnett visited the Easton Fair this week; making the trip in Mr. Whaley's automobile.

Miss Kate Wheatley, and nephew Master Russell Wheatley, are the guests of her brother and family in Annapolis.

Miss Louise Armstrong returned home Monday, after spending a month with her uncle, Mr. J. C. Armstrong, Rehoboth, Del.

Mrs. George D. Lofland has been spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Thomas Jones, who is sick at her home in Cecil.

Mrs. Dr. H. G. Simpers is visiting her parents in Montgomery county.

Mrs. Hoffman and daughter, of Washington, D. C., are guests of Judge and Mrs. J. H. Simpers, in Chestertown.

Mrs. Annie Ebaugh, of New York, has been the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Leaverton, near Lankford.

Miss Marie Gillespie, of Millington, is visiting Miss Lillian Matthews.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Roland Matthews have taken rooms at Mrs. A.P. Matthews' and are at home to their many friends.

Misses Emma and Grace Clowe, of Arlington, Baltimore county, and Miss Emily Nickerson, of Warwick, Cecil county, are visiting Misses Ruth and May Taylor at Riverside farm.

Messrs. James Williams, Thomas Matthews, David Kendall, Walter Bramble and Thomas W. Perkins were among the visitors to Easton Fair this week.

Misses May and Elsie Kendall, of Baltimore, are spending a two week's vacation with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kendall, of Worton.

Misses Fannie and Ethel Ward, of Fairlee, and friend, Miss Addie Haydon, of Virginia, spent Sunday with the Misses Kendall, of Worton.

Mr. Wm. M. Reiche, of the B. & O. R. R., Baltimore, has been the guest of his sister, Mrs. J. E. Ferguson, Chestertown.

Mrs. Jennie Byron was taken sick at Atlantic City last week and was accompanied to her home in Chestertown by her son, Mr. J. Romie Byron. She is much improved now.

Dr. W. Frank Hines has removed his office in Baltimore from Franklin St. to 1636 N. Calvert St. He is making a specialty of the throat and nose.

Messrs. Hynson Rogers and Ned Westcott are spending sometime in the mountains of Western Maryland.

The Misses Elizabeth and Maude Hartz, of Rock Island, gave an informal little afternoon party Friday afternoon at their home for Miss Mabel Jefferson, of Chestertown, Md., who is visiting her sister, Mrs. C. W. Boggs, of Kirkwood boulevard. The guests were all Davenport girls. Miss Kenfield, of Chicago, who is visiting at the Hartz home and Miss Bertha Ferree, of Chicago, who is with friends in Davenport, were also guests of the afternoon.—From the Davenport (Iowa) Democrat of Aug. 22.

Miss Daisy P. Jones, of Wilmington, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Harry Williams, of Worton. Miss Jones, who has trained one year as a surgical nurse expects to enter Bellevue Hospital, New York, to finish her course so as to have a thorough knowledge of both surgical and medical nursing.

Mrs. Alice Rouse Spicer, of Baltimore, is visiting Mrs. Harry I. Williams.

Mrs. Timanus, nee Miss May Zimmerman, has been visiting in Chestertown and renewing acquaintances of her school days while at Washington College. She is just as charming as ever and has a boy who will graduate this year at Baltimore City College. Her parents are living in Baltimore.

A few friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Capel gave them a surprise in the form of a dinner August 24th, it being their thirty-third wedding anniversary. In the afternoon refreshments were served. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Edward Capel and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Creighton and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Ward and family, Mrs. Benj. Ward and granddaughter, Mrs. Noah Moore, Mr. Charles Ashley.

THE Auditing Committee for Kent county started on their work Monday. The committee consists of Messrs. Philip G. Wilmer, E. Thomas Massey and Henry Brown, a corps of aggressive and competent citizens.

Two little Chestertown fever-stricken girls were so hungry when they became convalescent that when promised an egg their father remarked that they acted like Old Kris was coming. The little ones talked about it continuously. If you were ever real hungry you can sympathize with the children.

DON'T forget the German at Betterton next Thursday evening.

LOOK! LOOK!

Send your Carriage in and have it painted by a COACH PAINTER. Will make them look like new.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Fire.—Mr. Wm. Burgess' shop and ice house, located in Piney Neck, were destroyed by fire last week. There were 3½ tons of ice in the house the loss of which is sorely felt. Mr. Burgess' shop was a great convenience to every one in that section.

Grape Industry.—The Messrs. Rash, of Worton Station, have gone into the grape industry on a large scale, having about 40,000 vines in bearing. This is the first year they have come into fruitage and they are in the midst of an active and busy season. Mr. George Rash has also a good crop of peaches.

Water Superintendent Appointed.—The Chestertown Water Board, composed of Messrs. J. D. Bacchus, T. D. Bowers and C. N. Satterfield on Monday night reappointed Mr. Wm. B. Usilton, superintendent of the Water Works. Mr. Chas. S. Smith will assist Mr. Usilton by looking after the outside work of the plant.

Real Estate Sales.—Beck & Ivens, real estate dealers, have sold the James W. Edwards property, near St. James church of 47 acres to Mr. David E. Cannon for $1,500.

Mr. Wm. H. Cacy, who purchased Woston Manor Beach farm for $17,000, is reported to have sold the beautiful tract to a Baltimore lady for $22,000!

W. W. Beck, Esq., attorney, sold on Tuesday two pieces of property at Rock Hall.

Mr. Charles J. Reiche has sold his Cruikshanks farm of 45 acres, in Quaker Neck, to Mr. James W. Brown.

Fine Fishing Sport.—Five hundred and fourty fish in one day with hook and line is pretty good sport. This was the result of the fishing trip on Monday of Messrs. Thomas S. Bordley, J. Cordray Loud and son E. C. Loud at Betterton. Col. Mann was host to the company and piloted the party to an ideal fising ground near Betterton above Grove Point. One of the fishermen was taken sea sick and had to seek firm foundation to get steadied. Other fishing parties have also had fine sport in the same neighborhood.

Accidents.—Mrs. Henry S. Barnett sprained her ankle a few days ago while hurrying out doors with a blazing coal oil stove. The fire was put out by Mrs. Barnett's presence of mind in using her skirts to smother the blaze.

The little son of Mr. J. Romie McCauley broke his arm one day last week. It has only been a few weeks since one of his boys was bitten by a dog so that Mr. McCauley thinks he is having poor luck.

John Lattamus' cheek stood him in good stead on Saturday, saving him the price of a set of false teeth when he got struck with a base ball while playing with Millington at Middletown.

Boat News.—Mr. H. R. Graham, of Chestertown has sold his little gasoline launch to Dr. Julian Powers, of Millington.

Mr. Allan A. Harris, cashier of the Chestertown Bank of Md., has purchased a natty gasoline boat. He with his son, Allan and another gentleman brought the launch from Baltimore to Chestertown on Saturday last.

Mr. Louis Stam is installing an 8-horse power Ferro engine in this boat and when finished it is expected she will make fast time.

Mr. Clifton Rawleigh son of Mr. Sir Walter Rawleigh, is in Chestertown harbor with a large gasoline launch, "Idle Hours," which he built himself.

Mr. Charles Rolph will be the wharf agent at Chestertown for the Chesapeake Tributaries Co.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Mrs. Sewell, wife of Capt. G. T. Sewell, died last Saturday night after a long illness. The funeral service was held on Tuesday forenoon at the late home of the deceased, Rev. J. T. Richardson officiating. The following were the bearers: G. W. Davis, T. L. Colyer, C. D. Kelley, W. T. Harrison, J. W. Boyer and Joseph Ryan. Interment in the old family burial lot in Pine Neck.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Apsley, of Philadelphia, are enjoying a short stay at the home of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Apsley.

Mr. Benjamin Davis, of Baltimore, has been stopping at the home of his parents, Capt. and Mrs. C. E. Davis, and combining business with pleasure.

Rev. and Mrs. Samuel Stevens, of Highlandtown, spent over Sunday with relatives here.

Our farmers and truckers as a rule will not have as fine a specimen of fruits and vegetables to exhibit at the Fair as heretofore, but the ladies' exhibits will be first-class as usual.

Many of our oystermen are busily engaged in final preparations for the opening of oyster season next week. They do not expect a satisfactory beginning. Oysters are plentiful but are in a poor condition. This insures better conditions as the season advances, whereas oysters fat at the opening season will become poor later on. It was thought a week ago that owing to the scarcity of crabs, that a larger force of tongers than usual would begin operation at the opening, but now as there are immense quantities of fish in our waters, many will no doubt continue fishing for a few weeks in September.

The 2nd Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church will be held this Saturday evening. Dist. Supt. R. K. Stephenson in charge. Dr Stephenson will preach tomorrow morning.

Mr. R. S. Jones has moved from Rock Hall to the home farm where he will reengage in farming next year. His father Mr. R. W. Jones will move over to the Miller farm.

Dr. Ernest Smith and family, of Washington, D. C., Mr. J. E. Smith and family, and the Misses Schene, of Baltimore, are sojourning with Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Bover, of Green Lane.

The Odd Fellows meeting on Wednesday evening was largely attended. Captains Joseph B. Downey and Wm. R. Coleman gave interesting talks which were highly enjoyed by the hearers.
