MILLINGTON ITEMS.

Mr. Richard Mabrey has returned to his home from a visit to Baltimore and Washington.

The Misses Mildred and Marie Gillespie and Gladys Jacobs spent Saturday and Sunday in Sudlersville.

The Rev. Albert Massey, of Texas, preached to quite a large audience in the Chapel of the Holy Cross on Sunday evening.

Miss Georgia Donaldson spent Saturday and Sunday at the home of her parents.

Mrs. Martha McWhorter is visiting friends in Chestertown.

Hallowe'en was celebrated in town Monday night. Ghosts, cowboy, clowns, farmers, and funny beings of every description were to be seen promenading the streets. The gates were left on their hinges.

A fourth room is being added to the High school. This is quite an addition but why can't Millington have a new school house?

Mrs. W. H. Tolson, who for the last year has been in Philadelphia, is home on a short visit.

Master William Jacobs who had his limb torn off about a month ago, had another serious accident last week. On Friday he was left alone in the sun-room of the Delaware Hospital and while sitting in his roller-chair he spied another patients crutches. He took the crutches and commenced hopping about but became overheated and fell injuring himself again most painfully. His temperature reached 104° and it is said he is put back at least 10 days.

Miss Mildred Poore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Poor, of Chester, Pa., was brought here for burial last Saturday. The cause of her death is being kept a secret but it is thought that she was poisoned by some unknown person.

Mrs. Julia Everett and Mrs. J. B. Aydlotte, of town, and Mrs. R. R. Whaley, of Church Hill, are attending the Seven Day Adventists Conference now in session at Rock Hall.

The festival held in Gillespie & Moffett's hall last Friday and Saturday nights was a great success. The sum taken in was quite large and went to a good cause, The Ladies Aid Society.

Last Friday morning about 10.30 the stove in the principals room upset and all the live coals were spilled on the floor. The floor at once took fire and fire apparatus was called into use. Girls and boys left the room in a hurry thru doors and windows.

It is said that Tuesday was the quietest election day in years—not much "tanglefoot around."

Mrs. C. W. Moore returned Monday evening from a visit to her mother, Mrs. Boyne, of Baltimore.

Mr. R. J. Taylor has returned from a visit to Franklin City, Va. Mr. Smith his relief left Wednesday.

Mr. J. E. Emory, of Centreville, is cleaning up his property on Cypress St. preparatory to building a double house there.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Wyle moved into their house on Cypress St. this week.

The "Ball Masque" held in Manning Hall Monday evening by the Roberts Dancing Academy was a great success and was attended by ghosts and goblins from far and near. Refreshments were served at 9.30 P. M. and the dancing continued until 11.30 P. M.

Mrs. C. W. Moore and Mrs. Disharoon are elected delegates to the Convention to be held in Port Deposit about the 10th by the W. H. M. S. which was held at the parsonage last Thursday evening.

CHESTERVILLE ITEMS.

Emmanuel M. E. Church South, Chesterville. Sunday School at 10. Preaching at 11. League services at 7; conducted by Mr. McCosh Walls. 7.45 installation of League Officers.

Trinity M. E. Church South, Millington. Sunday School at 2. Preaching at 3. League service at 7.

The Baltimore District Epworth Conference will open in Trinity, Millington, Tuesday night at 7.30, with address of welcome followed by organization, and a sermon by B. V. Switzer, of Arlington, Md. The conference will be in session Wednesday from 9.30 to 12 o'clock, and from 2 to 5 o'clock. The address at 7.30 will be by Rev. C. D. Harris, of Baltimore, on "Messages from Epworth" Mr. Harris has spent some time abroad and among other places gave some time to the old Wesley home at Epworth. From this old home the Leagues of both of the great Methodist Churches have taken their name. A number of prominent clergymen and laymen will be in attendance, and a number of fine papers will be presented. The public is cordially invited.

The pastor of Emmanuel and Trinity will give the second of a series of sermons on "Common Foes in Classic Faces," the fate of Narcissus, or Self love self destruction, this Sunday.

HALLOWEEN PARTY.

A most enjoyable Halloween Party was given by Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins Burgess and their daughter, Miss Rhetta B. Warfield, at their residence at Gratitude, on the eve of October 30th. A number of plans were devised by which each one present could get an insight into the future. And in the hall sat a fortune-teller, where she divulged the mysteries of the future. The house was very tastefully decorated with Autumn leaves and yellow chrysanthemums and the only light was from the numerous pumpkins distributed through the rooms and whose light made a wierdness suitable to the occasion. When the guests were invited at a late hour to the dining room to partake of a bounteous repast great admiration was expressed for the beauty of the scene presented. Among those invited were:

Mr. and Mrs.—
Hopkins Burgess, Harry Skirven, Nelson Stevens, ——— Eaten, Warren O Neil, Charles L. Miller.

Mrs.—
Hettie Crosby, Alice Foster, Quick.

Misses—
Alice Aiken, Mamie Trimp, Baltimore; Laura A. Morgan, Galena; Lillian Willson, Nellie Willson, Leonore Willmer, Helen Miller, Rhetta B. Warfield.

ROCK HALL NOTES.

Last Sunday was observed as a Rally Day by the Methodist Society of this place. Rev. J. P. Outten of Kent Island and a former partor of the M. E. Church here, preached a forceful sermon at the morning service from the text, "What think Ye of Christ?" which held the closest attention of the large audience. The choir, with special selections, was at its best. Rev. Mr. Outten preached at the evening service a fine sermon to an appreciative congregation. The collections for the day, on an indebtedness of nearly $300, was about $150.

Revival services are in progress this week.

The election here on Tuesday passed off quietly and good naturedly. Hurrah for Willis. We have no fear of him going back on us during the next Legislature. There was much surprise by the Republicans in the defeat of Urie by Wood in this precinct.

Mr. Jeff Rich was taken to the hospital for treatment this week for ulcerated foot.

The steam yacht Kaleda, Capt. C. R. Kerr master, was put in winter quarters at Grey's Inn wharf on Friday of last week.

Capt. Frank Akers returned from Baltimore where he has been under treatment for tonsilitis on Saturday. His tonsils were removed and he brought them home with him in alcohol for preservation.

Messrs. Wm. A. Bramble, Samuel J. Harrison, A. A. Tolson, Alex. Taylor, Lloyed Bramble, Wm. G. Hindes, Wm. Hillingham, Robert Diehl, R. J. Sullivan and Harry Hinckle are among those recently admitted into the Order of Odd Fellowship at this place.

Mr. William Bramble is now Rock Hall's "finest" having become bailiff in place of Mr. G. T. Satterfield who has resigned after a faithful service.

A large three-masted schooner is docked at Leary's factory this week discharging building material.

KENNEDYVILLE ITEMS.

STILL POND ITEMS.

Miss Alice Wood has been the guest of Miss Daisy Severson during the week.

Miss Fannie Rollison, of Chesterville, has been visiting Mrs. Edward Ford.

Miss Mae Nickerson, of Galena, is spending sometime with Mrs. Charles Severson.

Mrs. Fletcher Connor and children, of Middletown, are visiting her father, Mr. James Severson.

Sunday being "Home Coming Day" at our church and the day being an ideal day the church was filled to its capacity. Rev. Mr. Rich, of Camden, assisted in all these services and preached a very instructive sermon in the evening. J. H. Shuster, Howard Dodd, Thos. D. Bowers, Mrs. Mamie Dodd and daughter, Marguerite, of Chestertown, assisted in the singing and the services were highly enjoyed by all.

The Farmer's Club met on Thursday at Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Price's and a pleasant day was spent by all.

Mrs. Bushman, of Brooklyn, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. Chas. Walter.

The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. James Harris on Wednesday afternoon. Quite a number were present and an enjoyable afternoon was spent by all.

A caramel party was held on Monday evening at the home of Mr. Chas. Ford. About twenty were present and a pleasant evening was spent by all.

The extra meetings are going on at our church and quite a number are attending.

DEATH'S DOINGS.

JOSEPH A. CATLIN.

Mr. Joseph A. Catlin died at his home in Norfolk, Va., on Monday of Typhoid fever, after an illness of several weeks. The deceased was a nephew of the late Dr. J. A. Catlin, of this town, and a son of Mr. James Catlin, of Church Hill. Mr. Catlin conducted a drug store in Church Hill for a number of years, which was his old homestead. He leaves a widow and three brothers, J. Carroll Catlin, of Church Hill, and Irwin and Evans, of Baltimore. The remains will be brought to Church Hill for interment.

ELLA WALLS.

Mrs. Ella Walls, of Church Hill, died in the Baltimore City Hospital Saturday morning after an operation for tumor of the stomach. She had been in poor health for sometime and it was deemed necessary to operate and took her to Baltimore on Monday and when her husband left her on Wednesday she was getting along very nicely and the sad news of her death came as a great shock upon the whole community. The deceased was a sister to Mrs. Charles W. Rolph, of Chestertown. She is survived by a husband and eight children, the youngest being but three months old. The remains were brought to Church Hill and intered in Church Hill cemetery on Monday.

GEORGE MOORE.

George Moore, the well-known canner, of the firm of Moore & Bracy, died in Baltimore Sunday.
