The Salute

The order which abolished hat lifting among soldiers was given to the military school by Friedrich Wilhelm III in 1802. The soldier on entering a house was still expected to take off his hat, while a soldier on foot should lift his left hand horizontally to his eye, and the soldier on horseback should salute with his right hand.

COLLEGE "Y" ACTIVE

The Council of Christian Associations of Maryland, Delaware and District of Columbia held its mid-winter meeting at the Central Y. M. C. A in Baltimore on Sunday afternoon, February 5th. The members of the Council from the local organization, W. R. Todd and Jerome Frampton, Jr., were present at the meeting.

The local "Y" is holding the second of a series of social evenings and dinners at the Maryland Tea Room on Thursday evening, February 9th.

At these informal "get togethers" those members of the organization who desire along with several invited guests discuss together various campus and organization problems that seem to be most interesting and profitable, and at the same time enjoy a delightful dinner.

Several weeks ago the local organization held the first of its series and beside about eight "Y" members had as its guests Dr. Frederick Livingood and Mr. Arthur P. Moor. At the second of these dinners, Dr. Paul E Titsworth, President of the College has been invited.

ORDER PUBLICATION

Florence M. Street Hall versus
Francis W. Hall

In the Circuit Court for Kent County, In Equity, No. 2503.

The object of the Bill filed in the above entitled case is to procure a Decree setting aside and annulling marriage.

The Bill states:

1. That your Oratrix, Florence M. Street Hall, is a resident of the City of Philadelphia, State of Pennsylvania.

2. That on the 5th day of April, 1927, she was married to Francis W. Hall at Chestertown, Maryland, with whom she resided in Newark, Delaware, for about two weeks.

3. That while residing in Newark, Delaware, shortly after our marriage I discovered that Francis W. Hall, my husband, was a married man and that he had a wife living at the time of our marriage. As soon as I found this out I confronted my husband with this fact and he admitted it. I then left him and have not seen him since nor do I know of his present whereabouts. I have understood that he was in the State of Delaware.

4. My husband, Francis W. Hall, had been for some time attentive to me prior to our marriage and he always represented himself as a single man, he was a resident of the State of Pennsylvania.

5. There has been no children born as a result of said marriage.

It is thereupon, this 26th day of January, 1928, ordered by the Circuit Court for Kent County, in Equity, that the Plaintiff, by causing a copy of this order to be inserted in some newspaper published in said Kent County, once in each of four successive weeks before the 27th day of February next, give notice to the said Francis W. Hall, non-resident defendant, warning him to appear in Court in person, or by Solicitor, on or before the 13th day of March next, to show cause, if any he has, why a Decree ought not to be passed as prayed.
