IN MEMORIAM

Harry C. Brown, Emma May Brown and mother, Elsie M. Brown.

In sad but loving remembrance of our darling daughter and sister, Emma May Brown, who departed this life 1 year ago.

Little eyes so soft and gentle,
Little soul with a strain,
Little lips that smiled sweetly,
Little form that suffered pain,
In a little snow-white casket,
Resting sweetly among the flowers,
Lies our darling daughter and sister,
Who such a little while was ours.

By her Father, Sisters and Brothers.

In loving remembrance of our dear baby, Harry C., who departed this life one year ago this April, the beloved son of Gilbert N. and Elsie Brown.

In a little snow-white casket,
Nestled all among the flowers,
Lies our pure and stainless lily
That a little while was ours.
Keep him, Jesus, in thy keeping
Till we reach the Heavenly shore;
Then, O Master, let us have him
And love him as we did before.

By Father, Sisters and Brothers.

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear wife and mother, Elsie M., who departed this life December 20, 1927.

No one knows the silent heartaches.
Only those who have lost can tell
Of the grief that is borne in silence
For the one we loved so well.
You are not dead to us, dear mother,
But as a star unseen;
We feel that you are near us,
Though death intruder between.
Loving and kind in all your ways,
Upright and just to the end of your days.
Sincere and kind in heart and mind—
What a beautiful memory you left behind.
The flowers we place upon your grave,
May whither and decay,
But love of you who sleeps beneath
Will never fade away.

By Her Husband and Children.

Which Will You Save?

YOU can save pennies or save chicks. Poultry yard facts show that ordinary untested rations and mixtures such as hard boiled eggs and oatmeal save pennies but not chicks. Usually 50% of them die. Poultrymen who are making money invest one penny more per chick and save 90 to 100% of their chicks. They feed Purina Chick Startena, the buttermilk starting ration containing Cod Liver Oil. We'll be glad to tell you of a feeding plan that's as simple as A B C. It saves chicks and brings them through to early maturity.

Mrs. Steele Says of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pratt, W. Va.—"I was so weak and nervous that I was in bed most all the time and coudn't sit up and I am only 30 years old. I saw your advertising in a magazine and after I had taken three doses of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could feel that I was better. After taking two bottles I began doing my work and I feel like a new woman. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and say it will do all it claims to do and more. I will gladly answer all letters I receive."—Mrs. S. E. Steele, Pratt, W. Va.

5c SETTLES A BIG SMOKE QUESTION

Can there really be a good cigar for five cents?

Some men will say it never was, can nor will be done. But this ad says it is being done—that there's a really fine 5c cigar to be had: Havana Ribbon. And it's been on the market thirty years. A cigar has to be good to make such a record.

And Havana Ribbon is better today than ever before. Immense production is doing it—so many millions made; tobacco bought in such huge quantities, we are able to use long-filler, ripe tobacco from heart to wrapper. And still keep the price at 5c! Imagine! No bitter under-ripe nor flat-tasting over-ripe leaves. No loose bits to come out in your mouth. But all fine, full-flavored, age-mellowed tobacco making a delightfully cool, mild, fragrant smoke. If you've one nickel in your pocket, man, set it to work and let Havana Ribbon settle the five-cent cigar question completely and ef-fective-ly. Also Practical Pocket Packages of five cigars.
