"SORRELL AND SON" AT LYCEUM THEATRE

Father-and-son love is the theme of "Sorrell and Son," Herbert Brenon's production of Warwick Deeping's best-selling novel, made into a United Artists Picture, and offered at the Lyceum Theatre on Thursday and Friday, June 28th and 29th.

H. B. Warner appears as Stephen Sorrell, and Mickey McBan and Nils Asther enact, respectively, the child Kit and the matured Kit Sorrell. The notable cast includes Anna Q. Nilsson as Dora Sorrell; Carmel Myers as Florence Palfrey; Norman Trevor as Thomas Roland; Alice Joyce as Fanny Garland; Mary Nolan as Molly Roland; and Louis Wolheim as Sergeant Buck.

Much of "Sorrell and Son" was filmed in England and with the aid of the author, Warwick Deeping. All of the film "Sorrell and Son" is faithful to the spirit and letter of Warwick Deeping's book, and the ending of the film is that of the book. Herbert Brenon, who made "Peter Pan" and "Beau Geste," says that "Sorrell and Son" is his best motion picture. A father himself, Mr. Brenon believes the story of "Sorrell and Son" is that of any father and any son, and that the appeal of the film as entertainment is supplemented by its spiritual effect on men and women who view it.

The story of "Sorrell and Son" is that of a British war veteran whose wife deserts him and his six-year old son. The veteran, Captain Stephen Sorrell, M. C., thereafter struggles against ingratitude, poverty, vice and physical exhaustion to rear and educate his beloved son, in whom he is ultimately well pleased. Interwoven with the story of father-and-son devotion are the sup-plots of Stephen Sorrell's friendship with Fanny Garland; Kit Sorrell's love for Molly Roland; Roland's kindness for Stephen Sorrell; Seargeant Buck's enmity for Sorrell; Florence Palfrey's scorn of her drunken husband and angry passion for Captain Sorrell; and Dora Sorrell's bitter struggle to win from her husband the love of their son, Kit.

The Fire Company was called out yesterday morning to extinguish a chimney fire at Josh Davis' home at Hanesville.

A Different Way

A little girl went to stay with her aunt, and gravely watched her saying her prayers the first morning. When the aunt rose to her feet again the child said:

"Auntie, do you say your prayers now as well as at bedtime?"

"Of course," said auntie "don't you?"

"No, I say my prayers at bedtime and in the morning I do breathing exercises."
