The "What-Shall-It-Be" Question

May seem very perplexing while you think about it at home, but all the difficulty vanishes the minute you see our Furniture display.

It fairly bristles with suggestions.

The error you are most likely to make is to conclude that you cannot afford to give Furniture. The truth is that you cannot afford NOT TO.

Give Furniture and you give not only for this Xmas, but for years and years to come.

Give Furniture, and it will stand in some home a constant reminder of you and a lasting tribute to your good judgment.

You don't have to spend a lot of money, either, if you don't want to. Why we have articles of usefulness, artistic in appearance, articles that make ideal gifts, yet that cost only a trifle. Let us show you how easy it is to pick out Xmas presents.

Local Brevities.

THE following comes from Harford County:—"While in the act of chasing a rabbit a most remarkable slaughter of dogs occured on the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad at Vanniber. Fourteen dogs started the rabbit and after circling around for several minutes, it started down the railroad with the whole pack following. A rapidly moving passenger train soon caught up with the runners and every dog was ground up beneath the wheels of the cars, the rabbit alone escaping uninjured."

Tolchester Boat.—The cold spell has shut the Tolchester boat out of the Susquehanna river for this winter so that a new schedule will go into effect next Monday, 27th. The boat the past week left Sassafras river route as usual, Monday, Wednesday and Friday at 7 a. m. Will leave Baltimore Tuesday and Thursday at 10.30 a. m. for Tolchester, Gales, Betterton and the River. Last trip from Baltimore Thursday at 10.30 a. m., last trip to Baltimore Friday. No boat Christmas day.

Purchased Business.—James D. Davis, Jr., formerly from Middletown, but for the past two years connected with the First National Bank, at Altoona, Pa., has resigned his position there, and after January 1st will engage in the hardware, farm supply and fertilizer business at Galena, having purchased the business of A. Raymond Prettyman of that place. Mr. Davis regrets very much the leaving of the banking business, but feels the need of more outside work, and has been considering the change for several months.

Turkeys Bringing Fancy Prices.—The price of turkeys in the local market still continues to advance. During the latter part of the present week live turkeys were retailing for 22 cents per pound and 25 cents per pound dressed. They are expected to be higher by the first of the year than at the present. The farmers wives who have turkeys to sell are all wearing broad smiles, resulting from the fancy price which the birds have been bringing.

"In Memoriam."—We are constantly in receipt of "In Memoriam" articles with the request that we insert them. We are always glad to accommodate our subscribers in every way we possibly can, but a little reflection will show that if we were so disposed we could fill a page a week with articles of this kind. It would be a source of considerable expense to us and would interest but a very small per cent- of our readers For this reason we are compelled to make a charge of five cents per line of articles of this character. Of course obituary articles are inserted free because they are news items that will interest and inform our readers.

Announcements.—Mr. and Mrs. Dan. M. Cochran have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Ethel, to Mr. John Elmer Price. The ceremony will take place on Wednesday evening, December 29th, at eight o'clock, at their home, "Oakalona," near Middletown, Del.

Mr. and Mrs. Josiah Rhodes, of near Centreville, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Mary Lillian Rhodes, to Mr. Alfred P. Hammer, of Ridgely. The ceremony will take place at Mother of Sorrows Catholic Church, Centreville, at 5 o'clock, on Wednesday, December 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Risdon Bishop have issued cards announcing the approaching marriage of their daughter, Claudia Marie, to Mr. Ralph C. Baynard. The ceremony will take place in Wye M. P. Church, Carmichael, Wednesday, December 29, at 12.30 o'clock.

Grange Officers.—The following officers of Kennedyville Grange were elected for the ensuing year at the meeting last week: Wm. T. Jones, Master; John R. Bennett, Overseer; Mrs. Wm. M. Clendaniel, Lecturer; Chas. S. Hill, Stewart; Ralph Vandyke, Asst. Stewart; Wm. T. Baxter, Gatekeeper; Mrs. Carrie Barwick, Treasurer; Samuel J. Comly, Secretary; Mrs. Wm. T. Jones, Ceres; Mrs. Ida Scotten, Pomona; Mrs. Charles S. Hill, Flora; Mrs. Lula Dukes, Lady Asst. Stewart; Mrs. Rachel Hill, Organist. The judges decided that the women should have the right of suffrage, after hearing the able papers prepared on the subject by Mrs. Wm. M. Clendaniel, Miss Blanche Redmile and Mrs. Dr. Barwick. Mr. John Medders and Dr. Barwick spoke on the negative side of the subject. The Pomona Grange will meet in Kennedyville January 13, the second Thursday of the month.

Mr. Samuel Copper's Will.—The will of the late Samuel Copper has been admitted to probate in the Orphan's Court of Savannah, Ga., where Mr. Copper resided prior to his death. The estate is valued at $10,000 and consists of $6000 life insurance, two valuable building lots in the city of Savannah, an interest in a dyeing establishment in Savannah, valued at $700 and some valuable mining stock. The will bequeaths $250 to each of his brothers and sisters, except Mr. Jesse R. Copper, who receives $500 and his sister, Miss Ellen Copper, who is left the entire insurance of $6000. $250 is given to each of the two sisters of his deceased wife, and $250 is bequeathed to Mrs. Newman, with whom the deceased made his home in Savannah. James R. Cain, Esq., of the Savannah bar, is named as administrator in the will, which was made a short time prior to the testator's death.

Magistrates.—Justice A. S. Crawford heard the 30 or more crap cases in Chestertown last week. It is said that he gave so many oathes that when he started to ask the blessing at his supper table he repeated the oath instead!

Mr. R. E. Graham, of Ingleside, undoubtedly holds the high-class records for magistrates in Queen Annes county. He has been a Justice of the Peace for twenty-five years, and on Tuesday last received more money from the county than all the rest of the time put together the amount being only a little over $16. Mr. Graham is capable and clean and has given general satisfaction with his office.

WORTH MOUNTAINS OF GOLD

During Change of Life, says Mrs. Chas. Barclay

Graniteville, Vt. — "I was passing through the Change of Life and suffered from nervousness and other annoying symptoms, and I can truly say that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has proved worth mountains of gold to me, as it restored my health and strength. I never forget to tell my friends what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me during this trying period. Complete restoration to health means so much to me that for the sake of other suffering women I am willing to make my trouble public so you may publish this letter."—MRS. CHAS. BARCLAY, R.F.D., Graniteville, Vt.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine we know of has such a record of cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For more than 30 years it has been curing female complaints such as inflammation, ulceration, local weaknesses, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion and nervous prostration, and it is unequalled for carrying women safely through the period of change of life. It costs but little to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and, as Mrs. Barclay says, it is "worth mountains of gold" to suffering women.
