DO YOUR DUTY by the Firemen's Bazaar next week. That's all that is asked.

THE price of meat has soared so high that pledges are being signed throughout the country to abstain from eating meat for 30 days or until the price shall be lowered. Eggs have already soared out of sight and are used only for the sick and in cases of necessity.

DR. HERING TAKES THE OATH.

Dr. Joshua W. Hering Monday took the oath of office and qualified for the fourth time as comptroller of the Treasury of Maryland. The oath was administered in the Government House by the Governor in the presence of a number of clerks and officials of the office. The Comptroller presented his bond for $50,000, given by the American Bonding Company.

Dr. Hering served in his present office during the term of Governor Smith, and in 1907 was elected on the ticket with Governor Crothers and re-elected last fall. He is an experienced and accomplished financier and has administered his office with eminent success.

Comptroller Hering is fortunate in having as his chief clerk, Harry J. Hopkins, Esq., who is probably one of the best equipped and ablest public officials the State of Maryland ever had. He has the finaacial affairs of the State at his finger tips and is courteous and obliging with it all.

BE YE RECONCILED.

Next to church members living irregular and inconsistent lives, there is no one thing that can do the church so much harm as a contention among its members. It would be ludicrous if it were not so sad to see Christians who avow the doctrine of "peace on earth and good will to men" fussing and quarreling until their influence for good and their power of usefulness is utterly destroyed. But worse still, the church grows weak and vulnerable, and makes itself an easy prey to the wily enemy that relentlessly seeks her destruction. This from an exchange teaches the lesson the church needs to learn:

"It is said that Lord Nelson had two officers in his army who were such enemies that each did all he could to prevent the other from winning a victory. On the day before the battle of Trafalgar, Nelson's greatest concern was that the two men should make peace. He took them both to a spot where they could have a good view of the opposing fleet and said: 'Yonder are your enemies. Shake hands and be friends like good Englishmen.' Christians, forget your grievances with one another: shake hands and be friends. We might as well pour out shot and shells into the clouds as attempt to conquer an enemy when we are at war among ourselves. When Christians are at variance with one another, the devil takes a vacation. Every word-battle, anything that hurts, and destroys, postpones the good time for which we are all longing."

So long as Christians who have disagreed, cannot shake hands and be friends, the enemy will triumph over them, and over the church of which they are members. God sent His Son to save sinners, and there is no greater sinners than the man who will not be reconciled to his brother.

BALTIMORE SUN SOLD?

It is reported in newspaper circles that Henry White and Julian Leroy White, his brother, are interested with Charles H. Grasty in the purchase last Saturday of a controlling interest in the Baltimore Sun, which was founded by A. S. Abell in 1836, and has been in the Abell family ever since. Friction among the heirs is said to have brought about the sale. The Sun is one of the most valuable newspaper properties in this part of the country, and the price paid for a controlling or majority interest is reported to have been over $2,000,000, the building and site being worth over $1,000,000.

Mr. Grasty recently purchased the Baltimore Evening World and it is understood he eventually will use the news franchise he secured with the World to publish an afternoon edition of the Sun.

The Sun has not a word to say about the report.

TESTIMONY in the divorce case of Mrs. Mary E. Francis and her husband, Luther C. Francis, was taken before Judge Dobler in Circuit Court No. 2 Thursday. Mrs. Francis filed a bill for absolute divorce from her husband, and he in turn filed a cross-bill. On the witness stand Mrs. Francis said that she was married to Mr. Francis when she was not quite 15 years old, he being at the time nearly 30. The couple formerly lived in Annapolis, and Mr. Francis was an agent of a steamboat company there. The couple have four children, three of whom are in the custody of their mother while the other is retained by Mr. Francis.

DOINGS AT ANNAPOLIS.

There have been 83 appointments made in House as against 97 at last session.

Miss Nettie C. Dean, of Caroline, who formerly taught in the public schools of Kent, has been appointed stenographer to Hon. Adam Peeples, speaker of the House of Delegates.

SENATOR RAYNER RE-ELECTED.

By a strict party vote of 21 to 6 in the Senate and 68 to 31 in the House of Delegates United States Senator Isidor Rayner was re-elected for a term of 6 years, beginning March 4, 1911.

In both the Senate and House the proceedings were of a strictly formal nature, no speeches being made and the Democrats voting solidly for Mr. Rayner and the Republicans for Mr. William P. Jackson.

The election of Senator Rayner was announced according to law at a joint convention of both chambers at noon Wednesday.

LONGER TERM ASKED FOR JUDGE.

A joint resolution to extend the term of Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce, of the Second judicial circuit, was introduced in the Senate by Senator Crothers, of Cecil. The extension will be until November, 1912. Members of the bar in every town in the district, without regard to political affiliation, have signed petitions requesting the extension and speaking in the most flattering way of the value of Judge Pearce's services, both in his home circuit and on the bench of the Court of Appeals.

Senator Crothers' bill intended to repeal all continuing appropriations is strongly urged by the Governor. Its terms are sweeping and its effect will be considerable. The Governor believes that no appropriation should be made unless it commends itself to the judgment of the Legislature at each successive session upon its merits. If this bill passes it means that Washington College which has been getting yearly $13,275, St. John's $30,000, Western Maryland $12,000 and other institutions and offices will have to present their claims and fight for same every year. If the State appropriations were withdrawn in part even, many of the State's institutions would be badly cripled.

PRIMARY BILL.

Mr. Carr, of Baltimore, handed the engrossing clerk a bill for compulsory primary elections throughout the State, applicable to all political parties. In brief, the bill provides:

"All political parties which at the election of November 2, 1909, or in future general elections, shall cast 19 per cent. of the entire vote, shall nominate all their candidates for public office by direct primary. This shall include delegates to conventions and all managing political bodies and all precinct, ward, city, county or State committees."

The intent and purpose of the act, reads the measure, is that "all candidates for public office and delegates to conventions shall be named by direct vote of the people."

While it shall be lawful for any party to hold conventions, such conventions shall not be permitted to select nominees or appoint party candidates for any office, but may simply transact general business for their respective parties.

Primary elections are to be held not later than the third Monday in September, and the ballots of the various parties shall be distinguished by various colors, while each voter shall be required to name the party with which he is affiliated.

Certificates of aspirants for election must be filed 15 days before a primary election, the fee for an executive candidate being $25, for executive committee $20, and for delegate to convention $5.

Primary elections for candidates for Mayor, Comptroller, President of the Second Branch City Council and members of the City Council of Baltimore shall be held on the first Tuesday of April in the year of municipal elections.

In addition to their present salary of $1,500 Supervisors of Elections of Baltimore shall receive $1,000, while an increase not to exceed 50 per cent of their present pay is to be added to the salaries of the county election officials. Fifteen hundred dollars extra is to be allowed the Supervisors of Elections in Baltimore for clerk and messenger service, while an increase not to exceed 25 per cent. of the present allowance for that purpose is to be granted to the county authorities.

A determined fight against this measure is expected from the Republicans, whom it will affect to a most material extent.

Mr. Carson W. Harris has been named as one of the officials at Annapolis.

Senator Slay presented a petition from the bar of Kent county asking the extension of the term of Chief Judge James Alfred Pearce. Judicial proceedidgs.

BILL TO AMEND FISH LAW.

An amendment to the fisheries laws is proposed by Mr. Sullivan in a bill providing, in brief, "The use of pound nets or stake nets shall be prohibited in the Chesapeake Bay north of Pooles Island, except on the bay shore of Kent county up to Howells Point, at the mouth of Sassafras river and also on the Susquehanna river."

Seines shall be subject to the same license and regulations of all sections under the subtitle "Chesapeake Bay," except gill nets.

JAMES W. MEREDITH.

James W. Meredith, 77 years old, died at the home of his son-in-law, John McC. Rochester, near Church Hill, last Saturday. He was married to Miss Catherine Chambers, sister of Mr. Wm. T. Chambers, of Centreville. Two daughters, both of whom are now dead, were married to Mr. McC. Rochester. Mr. Meredith is survived by a son, Mr. Charles H. Meredith, of Philadelphia. At one time Mr. Meredith was justice of the peace at Church Hill. Funeral services were held at his home yesterday afternoon. Burial was in the cemetery at Centreville.

The funeral of the late Elizabeth Storks, whose death is mentioned elsewhere in the NEWS, took place yesterday interment in cemetery at Friends Meeting House, near Lynch. Undertaker, W. H. Krusen.

There will be a special meeting of the Chestertown Grange next Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All members are urgently requested to be present. The matter of purchasing clover seed will be taken up, and those who are absent may miss the chance to place their order. Let there be a full turnout of all members.

AT the last meeting of the Peninsula Horticultural Society in Centreville last week it was decided to hold the next annual meeting at Dover, Del.
