Have Your Wedding Suit Made to Measure

LET us suggest that you have your Wedding Suit made to measure. You then get what you want and the way you want it. You don't have to take what the ready-made merchant happens to have in stock in what happens to fit you the best, but in having it MADE TO MEASURE you select the material you want and have it made the way you want it; and above all you get a FIT, which we guarantee or no sale.

Prices $13.50 upwards.

A complete line of Wedding Accessories, such as Gloves, Neckwear, Collars, Cuffs, Shirts, attached or detached cuffs: Hose, Hats, Shoes and Night Robes.

Yours for Wedding Outfits,

FEED FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC
A SEPARATE PREPARATION FOR HORSE, COW, HOG AND POULTRY

GREATEST KNOWN BLOOD PURIFIERS

The working capacity of any horse can be practically doubled by feeding FAIRFIELD'S BLOOD TONIC for HORSES regularly. It exterminates worms, builds up the health and saves feed.

The farmer that sowed wheat all over his farm and expected to reap a crop of wheat, oats and corn from same, would be more foolish than the man who feeds his horse, cow, hog and poultry from the same package of Condition Powder and expects to get results. The intelligent farmer feeds FAIRFIELD'S, because there is a separate preparation for each kind of animal.

THE FAIRFIELD PREPARATIONS ARE SOLD UNDER WRITTEN GUARANTEE BY

THE VOLUNTEER FIREMEN'S BAZAR

Stam's Hall a Scene of Much Beauty—Hearty Co-operation of Everyone—Ladies of Chestertown Accomplish Wonders—Liberal Donations—Net Receipts $1,004.

It is certainly a fact that when the ladies put their hearts in a cause it must succeed. The Firemen's Bazaar and Carnival held in Stam's Hall this week has been no exception to this statement. Every lady has done her best resulting in a grand success of what looked to be a desperate undertaking. The executive committee consisted of Mrs. Harry L. Boyd, Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, Jr., Mrs. George Brice, and Mrs. Fredrick H. Russell, secretary and treasurer. To these ladies was intrusted the conception of the plans and arrangement of the affair and heartily aided by the several committees the carnival was carried to a successful issue.

The Hall was transformed into an Eden of loveliness with blooming flowers entrancing ladies and delectable viands fruits of all kinds. The ice-cream or "June" booth was a veritable North Pole but warmed by the genial smiles of fair waitresses it required more than one plate of ice cream to cool the temperature. Mrs. Charles N. Satterfield was chairman of this table.

Next came the cake or "May" booth built with colonial effect and artistically decorated with pink and red roses, ivy etc., at which Mrs. A. M. Culp, chairman, and a bevy of attractive maids and maidens presided.

The Fancy or "December" booth, as the name indicates, was decorated by the deft handwork and artistic skill of a committee presided over by Mrs. H. C. Hughes. The color scheme was white decorated with silver leaves and large silver ball on top.

Then came the sweet booth, Candy, "October"—with Miss Ann B. Smith, chairman. A lady present from near Betterton says this was the prettiest booth, but she was a great lover of candy. It represented a summer house of lattice work covered with ivy and decorated with large yellow and white chrysanthemums. The "candy" girls wore white caps and dainty little yellow aprons.

The Country Store, "November," was one of the most attractive places in the hall and did a rushing business. It was roofed with long fodder while stuffed owls, pigeons, ducks, etc., adorned the front. Mrs. Thomas D. France was chairman of this department and with her willing helpers made a success of the "business."

The Japanese tea garden was another much frequented place. It was here that lovely maids and charming matrons made everyone welcome and served appetizing menus to all. This booth was artistically decorated in lanterns, Japanese umbrellas, dolls, etc., while the "servers" wore kimonos. Mrs. Allan A. Harris presided with grace and dignity over this Garden.

Mrs. Mary B. Roberts and Miss Fannie Stuart had an ingenious "Lady Bountiful" and grab bag which was a money-maker.

Mrs. Frank B. Hines and Miss Lillian Stam had charge of "Tags" and realized about $20 from them besides advertising the Bazaar.

A special entertainment feature was given each night. Tuesday evening a fanciful dialogue entitled "His Old Sweethearts" was given under the direction of Mrs. James H. Shuster. The hero was Mr. Calvin Ryan, of Washington College. His sweethearts, "Bettie, Kate, Blanche, Elizabeth, Mildred, Clara, Jeanette, Helen, Pearl and Mary, were represented respectively by Misses Louise Russell, Elizabeth Connelly, Inez Russell, Eva Hurlock, Rebecca Aldridge, Irma Eliason, Leonora Wilmer, Barbara Anthony and Grace Whaland.

On Wednesday evening a spectucular production entitled "Violet in Fairyland" was given under the direction of Mrs. David B. Ford. Violet was represented by Lillian Anthony; Queen of fairies, Miss Mary Ahern; fairies, Evelyn Russell, Helen Kendall, Helen Connelly, Helen Rouse, Alice Hynson, Ellen Beck, Virginia Parks, Alice Kershaw, Mary and Helen Simpers, Helen Russell, Rose McKee, Emily Lusby, Irene Kirby, Lura Nicholson, Margaret Jones, Esther Urie, Dorothy Woodall, Dorothy Beaumont, Alice Skipper; watchman, Ellen Beck.

Thursday evening an epicurean feast was partaken of by nearly 400 persons. The executive committee in charge of this department comprised Mrs. Curtis E. Crane, Mrs. Harry L. Boyd, Mrs. H. H. Barroll and every housewife in town.

The total net receipts were $1004.55 made up as follows:
