MEET ME AT THE

HUB

THE CROWDS that are in attendance daily at our GREAT REMOVAL SALE seems like everybody is buying clothes. Why shouldn't they? It would be strange if they didn't buy at such low prices. No matter what our loss may be we must sell—we will not carry our present stock in our new store. Just think of buying good, seasonable merchandise below the manufacturer's cost. Even if you don't need clothes right away, it will pay you to buy now and lay them away for next season.

Our Cooking Circle

Below are found several of the favorite recipes of good housewives who read the NEWS. Other ladies in town and country are invited to join the circle and send in their "best." Paste these in your cook book

Oysters, whether large or small should be as fresh as it is possible to get them, and should be kept in a cold place until ready for use. They may be cooked in a great variety of ways, and those who are fond of them like them cooked in every form, or raw, but certainly there are few articles of food which are so frequently badly treated by the cook. Instead of being bundled together with a lot of meal, "patted," the oyster should be fried singly, and instead of being toughened by long cooking in a stew it should be cooked only until it plumps and curls up a little. Then it is ready to be eaten.

FRIED OYSTERS.

To fry oysters, select large ones and dry carefully with a clean cloth. Roll each oyster in cracker dust, then in beaten egg, then again in cracker dust, and fry delicately in plenty of fat—part lard and part butter. Fine bread crumbs may be used instead of cracker dust, but in either case see that a little salt and pepper are put with the cracker dust or crumbs. If it isn't convenient to use an egg, fry the oyster without that, but don't let anyone persuade you to pat them.

ROASTED OYSTERS.

Wash and wipe the shell and cook in an oven or in a steamer until the shells open. Serve with butter and lemons.

STEWED OYSTERS.

Oysters, one quart.
Milk, one pint.
Butter, one tablespoonful.
Salt and pepper (white) to taste.

Put oyster juice and milk on to cook together cold, and when thoroughly hot add oysters and seasoning. When oysters begin to curl and are well plumped out add butter and serve. Chopped celery may be added, if liked. This is a delicious way to cook oysters on a chafing dish.

CREAMED OYSTERS.

Oyster, one quart.
Cream, one-half pint.
Salt and pepper to taste.

Put the oyster liquor and cream on to boil; when hot add oysters and seasoning Serve when oysters curl.

A white sauce made with a teaspoonful each of flour and butter and a cup of milk may be used instead of the cream, but the oysters are much more delicious with the cream.

BROILED OYSTERS.

Wipe the oysters and broil over a clear fire. Serve on buttered toast and pour melted butter on them. Season with a little salt and white pepper.

PANNED OYSTERS.

Drain and wipe oysters and put into a skillet with a good-sized lump of butter and a little salt and pepper. Cover and cook for 10 or 15 minutes, moving pan about a little. Serve on a hot platter.

OYSTER PIE.

Make a plain pie crust and line a deep baking dish. Fill with oysters adding butter, salt and pepper, using the oyster juice. Cover with an upper crust and bake. Make three little slits with a knife in the crust.

SCALLOPED OYSTERS.

Oysters.
Cracker crumbs, one cupful.
Butter, one tablespoonful (large).
Salt.
Pepper.

Put cracker crumbs at bottom of dish, then oysters, seasoning and butter, then a layer of cracker crumbs, then oysters and so on until dish is full. Let crumbs be the final layer; put on bits of butter. Cover dish and bake 25 minutes, then emove cover and bake until brown.

BROWNED OYSTERS.

Put two tablespoonfuls of butter in a skillet and let it cook until it begins to brown, then put in the oysters, having wiped them and let them stew in the butter until they are well curled. Serve on toast with the browned butter poured around them. Be careful that butter does not burn. Season oysters with a little salt.

PICKLED OYSTERS.

Put one cup oyster juice and one pint vinegar on the fire and let it get very hot. Skim and add two teaspoonfuls white pepper, two of cloves, one of mace, one of salt; put in the oysters and let them come to a boil. Set away to cool and eat the day after being pickled. Don't keep longer.

MEMORIAL SERVICE.

An impressive memorial service was held in Christ Church Sunday school last Sunday afternoon in memory of the late superintendent, William Barger Usilton. Dr. F. T. Little was in charge and made a most touching address. Miss Hope Sappington sang a solo and addresses were made by teachers, Messrs. J. Frank Wheatley and J. Waters Russell. Resolutions were read by Miss Mary Knight for the Sunday school and Mr. Joseph Guest for the Board of Stewards, as follow:

At the annual meeting of Christ Methodist Protestant Sunday School Association of Chestertown, Md., held in the Sunday School room January 9th, 1910, the following minute was unanimously authorized and the undersigned committee appointed to prepare the same.

Inasmuch as our heavenly Father, in the great wisdom and love which characterize all His dealings with His children, has translated our beloved superintendent, William Barger Usilton, from the militant church on earth to the triumphant church in Heaven, we, his co-workers in Christ Methodist Protestant Church Sunday school, do place on record this expression of our appreciation of his long and valued services to the church and school of his love and devotion.

For quite forty years he accepted the trust committed to him from year to year by the votes of his fellow-laborers, and discharged the duties thereof with singular fidelity, brotherly kindness and marked ability.

And we do hereby most sincerely bear cheerful testimony to his promptness and preparedness for each session of the school; to his urbanity and cordiality in his relations with the officers, teachers and scholars; to his discriminating judgment and masterful tact in handling difficult questions and problems of administration; to his remarkable resourcefulness in grasping the right thing for every special occasion, and his skill in bringing the same to a happy and successful conclusion; to his intense loyalty to New Testament doctrine, teaching and ideals for the best possible religious training of the scholars, and to his mavelous personal influence, which, unconsciously won the affection and confidence of young and old alike. These all marked him as a forceful leader of men, and as a born Sunday School Superintendent. It is therefore, meet and right that we do now under write with increased emphasis the declaration of the various pastors under whom he served during the two-score years of his history, namely, that "he was one of the very best Sunday School Superintendents of their acquaintance."

And we do hereby resolve to cherish his memory, with his splendid gifts and qualities and work, and to strive to imitate them in our life and labor, that we may the more successfully carry forward our great Sunday school work. And we do also hereby pledge ourselves to renewed energy, fidelity and consecration to our school as the very best tribute we can pay to the memory of our departed leader.

Resolved, That we do hereby extend to the family of our deceased brother our sincere sympathy and condolence in their hour of deepest sorrow and grief, praying that the sweet abiding comfort of the religion of the husband and father may be their strength and stay in this and all other times of need.

Resolved, That in addition to this minute being placed upon our secretary's book, copies of the same be furnished to the town papers for publication and a special copy sent to the family of our departed superintendent.

COMMITTEE.

The third quarterly conference of Christ Methodist Protestant Church, Chestertown, Md., held Monday evening, January 10, 1910, desires to give this unanimous expression of the regret and sorrow felt by each member thereof at the removal from our midst to the heavenly home of our late beloved brother and companion in the work of Christ Church, William Barger Usilton.

As an official of this church Brother Usilton was wise in counsel, judicious in management, generous in financial payments and faithful in the discharge of every duty.

We take pleasure in recording our appreciation of his worth as a member of the Board of Trustees and Stewards of our organization, as an active worker in this quarterly conference, and as a most efficient and praiseworthy Sunday school superintendent. His place can not easily be filled in our church and we shall long remember his conspicuous services among us. Therefore be it,

Resolved, That we do hereby bear grateful testimony to his Christian character, his fidelity to every interest of the church, and to his general usefulness as a member of our official board, as a friend and neighbor and as a citizen of our town and county.

Resolved, That we shall cherish his memory, his excellencies and his labors as a valued asset in our church's life and history, and that we each will strive to be even more loyal to the interests of our beloved church, now that he has gone to his reward, than we have been heretofore.

Resolved. That we do hereby tender our heartfelt sympathy and prayers to the family of our deceased brother in their great bereavment, trusting most sincerely that they may find the assuagement of an all-sufficient grace to sustain and comfort them in their dark hours.

Resolved. That this action of the quarterly conference be placed upon our secretary's books, that copies of the minute be furnished to our county papers, and that a special copy be sent to the family of our departed friend and brother.

IN MEMORIAM.

In loving but sad remembrance of Mary, the beloved daughter of Nathaniel and Annie C. Ashley, who died five years ago today, February 3, 1905, aged 6 years.

A beautiful life is ended.
A dear one is laid to rest.
The flower lovingly tended—
But God He knoweth best.

As pure as a lilly fair,
Unsullied by thoughts of wrong,
Unshadowed by sin or care,
Her life a beautiful song.

But God in His wisdom an angel sent
To pluck this flower fair;
Henceforth her beauty shall be spent
In His heavenly garden there.

Mr. E. A. Kelley, Belvidere, writes us; "I am an ex-engineer with 22 years active service to my credit. About three years ago my kidneys were affected so that I had to give up my engine. First I was troubled with severe, aching pain over the hips. Then followed inflamation of the bladder, and specks appeared before my eyes. A sample of Foley's Kidney Pills that I tried, so benefited me that I bought more I continued to take them until now I can safely testify they have made me a sound and well man." HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM.

It Is an Internal Disease And Requires an Internal Remedy.

The cause of Rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. Rubbing in Oils and Liniment will not cure, affords only temporary relief at best, causes you to delay the proper treatment, allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure Rheumatsim than paint will change the fibre of rotten wood.

Science has at least discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called "Rhumacide." Tested in hundreds of cases, it has affected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide "gets at the joints from the inside," sweeps the poison out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you well all over. Rheumacide "strikes the root of the disease and removes its cause." This splendid remedy is sold by druggists and dealers generally at 50c and $1 a bottle. In tablet form at 25 and 50c a package. Get a bottle to-day. Booklet free if you write to Bobbitt Chemical Co., Baltimore, Md. Trial bottle tablets 25c by mail. 15Jan4m.
