ROCK HALL NOTES.

Rev. Dr. R. K. Stephenson on Sunday evening before a large audience in the M. E. Church preached a highly instructive sermon on the great doctrines of the Resurrection, the coming again of Christ and the recognition of loved ones in the future life. He held the closest attention of his hearers. It was good to be there and the sermon has been the topic of the week by many who heard it. The reverend gentleman's text was Mark 9: 5. Adding to the further delight of the audience a touching solo was sweetly rendered by Miss Clara Baker.

Quarterly Conference was held Monday morning with Dr. Stephenson presiding and a goodly number of the official board were in attendance.

"A Pinch of Snuff and a Lover's Troubles" was the title of a picture show in Coburn's hall on Saturday evening for the benefit of M. E. Society. It was hugely enjoyed and proved a success.

Since the partial closing down of Casey's bakery nearly three months ago much inconvenience has been endured by many in this section because of the non-delivery of bread and the inability of the several bread dealers to keep a sufficient supply for the demand. This annoyance no longer exists. Mr. J. A. Casey has secured from Ohio an up-to-date baker, and with an energetic assistant and first-class team he is now prepared to accommodate a wide territory on shortest notice with anything in his line from a 5c package of yeast powders to the latest style wedding cake, besides a general line of provisions and watermens' rubbers, and oil skins.

Among the latest and much needed improvements at G. E. Leary & Son's factory is a large crane along the car-track for the purpose of lifting heavy material.

During the late snow blockade a horse belonging to Mr. R. B. Willson had a leg broken. The animal was placed in a swing in the hopes of having the bones knitted together again. Upon examination a few days ago the fracture seemed to be O. K. and the animal was released, but the weight proved too much for the injured leg, and there being no further hope of a cure or relief, it was deemed humane to kill the horse and it was shot. The horse was quite a valuable one.

Marble games are becoming considerable of a pasttime and this causes us to think that spring is not far away. The ground hog, after all, is not the whole thing in winter prediction.

The heavy winds of Saturday last caused another big ice embargo off this place. The steamer tried to reach this stop on Monday but was compelled to give up and proceed to the city. She succeeded however in reaching here on Tuesday.

Quite a number of fishermen went over to the Western Shore on Wednesday to procure poles from the timber owners for use in their fishing operation.

The Town Council is having the thoroughfares of the town shelled. Downey's cannery is furnishing the shells.

The wedding of Miss Myrtle Durding and Mr. Bayard Sutton on Tuesday evening was said to be one of the prettiest scenes in a long time at this place. The happy couple go forth upon their blissful journey with the best wishes of hosts of friends and relatives.

Hon. H. C. Willis has notified the oystermen of this county that they will be given a hearing by the Committee on Chesapeake Bay and Tributaries the early part of next week. Mr. Willis has been untiring in his effort to protect our oyster interests and at all times is glad to consult with us as to the best method of legislation, etc. It is probable that the oystermen here will hold a meeting this (Saturday) evening for the purpose of taking action in selecting a delegation to go to Annapolis.

Mr. Max Alexander is on a trip to Baltimore and Annapolis. Wonder if he is "log rolling" on the Road Bill.

Mrs. N. M. Comegys died at her home on Cypress street last Saturday morning. Mrs. Comegys has been very feeble for a long time. She was a prominent Episcopal Church worker in her younger days and up until her death was in regular attendance at services.

Carriage and Implement Houses.—Mr. Thomas W. Eliason has awarded to Mr. Walter T. Pippin, the contract for the erection of a large carriage emporium for Graham & Clements, the hardware firm. The building will front on Queen street 183 ft., with a depth of 46 feet, and 18 ft. corner posts. Large plate glass windows will ornament the front. Work will begin at once.

Davis & Satterfield have begun the erection of a 130 foot ware-house on their lot along the railroad at foot of Cross street. Mr. Frank Duyer & Bros., are doing the work. It is said a side track will be put into the big house.

Lofland & Culp are erecting additional warehouses in the rear of their store for storage purposes.

CHESTERVILLE NOTES.

Emmanuel: Sunday-school at 10 a. m., preaching at 11, League at 7.

Trinity, Millington: Sunday-school at 2, preaching at 3, League at 7, followed by short address.

Rev. E. V. Regester preached at Emmanuel and Trinity last Sabbath. Considering the traveling, the congregations were good. His theme at both services was "Missions." The command of Christ was to go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature. That is the duty of every christian to go or send. The tendency of some has been to do as little as possible. His theme should be a call to duty of every hearer.

Mr. Luther McMullen, who recently moved into the community and lives near Spry's Gate, has several pens of fine hens of different breeds. Mr. McMullen has also a pair of mule-foot pigs; they are fine looking animals. He is an enthusiastic poultryman and will doubtless make a success of it.

The W. H. M. S. of both churches elected officers for the year at their last meeting. Emmanuel officers are as follows: President, Mrs. Alday Clements; first vice-president, Mrs. Peter Brinsfield; second, Mrs. Spry; third, Mrs. Moffett; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. Edwards; recording secretary, Miss Annie Clements; treasurer, Mrs. W. Gale; press reporter, Miss Annie Clements. Trinity: President, Mrs. W. A. Felton; first vice-president, Miss Ella Jones; second, Miss Ethel Crouch; third, Mrs. F. Benton; recording secretary, Mrs. D. Anthony; treasurer, Mrs. Gowman; press reporter, Miss Daysie Felton.

IN MEMORIAM.

Died at his residence in Piney Neck, Lemuel Beck, aged 78 years, 6 months. "Loved in life, in death remembered."

Rest dear husband, thy labor is o'er
Thy willing hands will toil no more.
A faithful husband, both true and kind.
A truer husband you could not find.
BY HIS WIFE.

Ah! since then our lives are saddened
Since that day our hopes are slain,
But his voice seems sweetly saying
"Courage, we shall meet again!"
BY HIS CHILDREN AND GRANDCHILDREN.

In the lonely grave-yard sleeping,
In the cold and silent grave.
Lies the one we loved so dearly,
Tried so hard, but could not save.
BY HIS SISTER, ELLA.
