PUBLISHERS AND EDITORS.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 26 1910.

It is with pleasure we announce that a majority of the Water Board have agreed on the recommendations of the committee of seven and that the Commissioners have requested their attorney to frame a bill at once.

The removing of the roads from politics, as outlined in the bill mentioned in the NEWS has met with nearly universal commendation. Of course, it is not expected that the politicians want such a bill but the people are tired of the "wrangle" over a piece of road and the dickers made for same and the appointment of the engineer by the Governor will remove the roads from local politics. Then the Commissioners will act as a check on the engineer, but, at the same time, co-operating with the good roads movement.

It is with great pleasure the NEWS records the fact that the Commissioners of Chestertown are waking to the advisability of making a start on some improved road bed for Main street. Chestertown is far behind in this matter. Surveys were made this week and plans arranged for an early visit to Smyrna where vitrified bricks have been used on the streets. It is hoped that at least one square can be built.

The effort to remove the deposit of public money out of politics will have the commendation of all good citizens. Kent county had a law requiring the treasurer to divide his deposits among the three banks, but when the "antis" got a chance they repealed this excellent law. Mr. Willis has introduced a bill restoring the old law which removes the matter from politics, as it should be.

The Board of Visitors and Governors of Washington College are considering important changes in the College. The appropriation from the State for the Normal School is not sufficient to run this department and several thousand dollars are annually required from the College proper to pay the expenses of the Normal course. And these expenses are increasing every year. In order to abide by the requirements of the State Board of Education it will be necessary to add another professor to the Normal School, thus increasing still more the expenses. We would be very sorry to see the Normal department of Washington College abandoned.

The Public Utilities Bill now before the Legislature is for the purpose of regulating public corporations and in Kent county would have jurisdiction over telephone, electric light, steamboat and railroads. The framer evidently was looking out for his brethren as there is a clause in it which reads that no passes shall be issued to anyone except to a lawyer and his family! This bill to our minds is far from being perfect. Its cost of operation is figured at $75,000 per year, which in itself should cause its defeat. One-third this amount would be enormous.

In behalf of the merchants and business men of Chestertown and of Kent county we appeal to the parents and others against the practice of allowing their children to solicit orders for articles kept in local stores and the purpose of which is to build up some large establishment elsewhere. The premiums may be appreciated and very pretty but the principle of the business is unfair. These soap houses do not help your town or community in any way, they do not help pay your taxes to keep up roads and schools, to build churches, etc. They do not help feed the poor nor care for the distressed. It is a one-sided transaction. Our merchants need your trade. Give it to them. Deal at home as far as possible.

In the River and Harbor Bill, which passed the House of Representatives last week, the hand of Congressman J. Harry Covington will be clearly seen so far as provision for the Eastern Shore waters is concerned, and it will be noticed that these water interests have been unusually well cared for. It is a matter of congratulation that the people of the First District have a representative who is so active in looking after local interests.

Listen! Those who do a town more harm than good are classified as follows: 1st, those who oppose improvements. 2nd, those who seldom advertise their business. 3rd, those who show no hospitality to the farmers. 4th, those who hate to see others make money. 5th, (last, but not least) those who oppose every public enterprise or improvement which does not appear of personal benefit to themselves.

No man pleases everybody. If he does he is week-kneed, carried water on both shoulders and won't tell the truth. But when a man don't please you be man enough to go to him and talk with him rather than talk on the streets and say things that you would not say to his face.

ANNAPOLIS NEWS.

Women Suffrage Advocates Cause a Stir Among Delegates and Senators.

With only one dissenting vote the joint resolution of Senator Crothers providing for the extension of Judge Pearce's time of service to the end of his term was this week adopted by the House, Mr. Beacham being the lone dissenter. In explaining his vote Mr. Beacham said that, instead of making exceptions to the retirement law, it would be better to repeal it. The vote was 97 to 1.

Mr. Willis has introduced a bill requiring money in hands of county treasurer to be equally deposited in the three Chestertown banks.

The bill to pension Mr. Jesse G. Duyer as amended to $50 has been favorably reported and will likely pass.

The Legislature at Annapolis is being stormed by the women asking the right to vote in municipal elections. A crowd of several hundred visited the Capitol last week and made quite an impression. "Doc." William Cooper, of Kent, who is front door-keeper, made quite a hit by wearing a large woman suffrage badge. He was hailed by all the pretty ladies as their friend!

"This female suffrage question comes straight home to me," said Senator Dodson, of Talbot. "I have put the question in my own county. The women of Easton are asking for the ballot. There is great difference of opinion regarding it. I am in favor of settling it by giving the people of the town a chance to vote on it."

"According to my present convictions," said Senator Sproesser, of Baltimore, "I am opposed to female suffrage."

"I am not favorably impressed with the idea of giving the woman the right to vote," said Senator Zihlman, of Alleghany.

"I have always been opposed to female suffrage," said Senator Slay, of Kent, "but I must confess that I was most favorably impressvd with the arguments made here by the women on Wednesday."

"I am in favor of giving women all the rights which the Lord Almighty intended they should have," said Senator Moore, of Worcester.

Mr. Phillips, of Queen Anne's—I am opposed to woman's suffrage. Mrs. Phillips is a Republican and her vote will kill mine.

The Baltimore Sun is anxious to have the law repealed which gives to the Consolidated Gas Company special privileges. On the subject Senator Slay says: "The situation of Baltimore is one that demands a remedy; the existing laws that absolutely prohibit competition in securing light and power do not seem reasonable or business-like. If the situation is as I understand it, those laws should be repealed, although it is said we voted for some of them two years ago I have no recollection of that, however, and am at a loss to understand how they got on the statute books."

A bill has been introduced to repeal the fox-hunting bill for Kent county passed two years ago.

A WORTHY INSTITUTION.

The Chestertown Public Library was opened on February 19, 1907, with 267 volumes and twenty-one subscribers. Since that time the library has made a steady growth, and during the past year has added 159 books (making the total number 713) and enrolled twenty-two new subscribers (making a total of 146). New shelving has been added and a catalogue issued July 1, 1909.

Gifts of books have been received from Mrs. Mary E. Brown, Mrs. Hiram Merritt Brown, Mrs. Colin F. Stam, Miss Mary Rogers, Dr. F. B. Hines, Messrs. Wilbur Eliason and Hughes & Newnam. The library has been open every Tuesday and 2,284 books have been loaned from its shelves.

Mrs Mary P. Farr, Field Secretary for Maryland, visited the library in February of last year, and under her direction the books were reclassified and a new charging system introduced. This new system, established at a cost of $15.00, is the one generally used in all the public libraries.

There are numberless expenses connected with the library—rent, coal, janitor fees, insurance, printing and shelving, and the modest fee, which the subscribers pay, does not leave a very large balance for the purchase of books. It has been customary to make a special effort to raise money each year; this year the managers and subscribers have adopted a plan to collect a mile of pennies for the purchase of new books, hoping in this way to increase the popularity and usefullness of the library.

GRANGE NOTES

Still Pond Grange held its meeting this week on Tuesday instead of Thursday the regular meeting day. The exercises were in commemoration of Washington's birthday and were very interesting. Mrs. O. H. Medders, Asst. Lecturer, had charge of the program which was as follows:

Song.....America
Washington's Birthday.....Mrs. L. D. Kelley
Like George Washington.....Edward Harper
The Young Manhood of Washington.....Mrs. J. L. Price
Music, Mrs. A. L. Harris, piano; Roland Crew and James Cain, Mandolins.
Martha, the wife of George....Mrs. L. B. Harper
Music, Mrs. A. L. Harris, piano; Roland Crew and James Cain.

At the conclusion of the exercises the members and invited friends partook of refreshments provided by the members. The afternoon was well enjoyed by all who were present and the musical selections were fine and well rendered.

Sassafras Grange met on the afternoon of Feb. 23, with a very good attendance. Excellent papers were read on these subjects: "How can we increase our corn yield," and "Washington's birthday." We have just purchased a new organ which we think will afford us a great deal of enjoyment. Three applications were given out. It was decided that our next meeting will be in the evening 9th, calling at half-past seven.

Donors Omitted.—A number of contributors to the late Firemen's Bazar were unintentionally omitted by the managers in the list published in the NEWS several weeks ago. Among the number were the following: Hopper, McGaw & Co., Baltimore, twelve pounds coffee; Miss Elizabeth Richardson, Baltimore; Miss Nettie Councilman, Baltimore; Miss Maud Plummer, Centreville.

There is said to be a considerable opposition to a reassessment of real estate in some sections of the State. Sentiment for it, however, is quite strong in most parts and there is little doubt of the passage of the bill.
