Samuel T. Hamilton
Expenses of Suit against Board.

A communication as follows was received having been referred by Mr. Alonzo L. Miles Counsel to the Board for its consideration.

"Baltimore, November 7th., 1902.

Alonzo L. Miles Esq.,
 Counsel for Board of Police Commissioners
 for Baltimore City,

Dear Sir:

Referring to our correspondence of some weeks ago, in reference to the case of Samuel T. Hamilton vs. The Board of Police Commissioners, the Court of Appeals has, within the past few days, dismissed my motion for a re-argument, and, in accordance with our understanding, I now submit to you the items of expenses, which, it was agreed, the Board of Police Commissioners would assume. These include the following:

The appellant's costs in the Court of Appeals-	$42.00
The appellee's costs in the Court of Appeals---	22.70
My fee,-	250.00
	$314.70

The cost of printing my motion for re-argument is $10. additional, all of which will appear by the enclosed bills; but, if the Police Board does not feel justified in paying for the item of the motion for a new trial, to
