SATURDAY, APRIL 2, 1910.

A KIND SUGGESTION.

The owl sat mute in the hollow tree;
Through the long day not a sound made he.
Why, then, is wisdom ascribed to this bird?
It is because he speaks never a word.

The moral is plain, as all may see:
If we would esteem for wisdom be,
And be most renowned of men among,
We must early learn to hold the tongue.

Not for many years has such an ideal Easter Sunday been recorded and the weather man must have been in a most affable mood when he made out his weather schedule for Easter Day. Kent countians awoke to find the sun streaming down over the country, the birds singing their merriest and all nature atune with the day. In no degree could the day have been improved upon. The air was mild and balmy and not too warm for spring fever to be in evidence. The bells from the Chestertown churches pealed out their jovous song—that Christ is risen. Eloquent sermons and grand music were rendered in the churches. The cemeteries were visited by scores and lovely flowers adorned the sacred mounds of loved ones.

Thieving.—A horse and carriage were stolen from Mr. R. S. Turner's stable, near Betterton Saturday night. The team was found on the road near Millington early Sunday morning by Mr. Crawford Stevens. Constable Severson recovered the team went to Clayton where he found that Detective Jerry Campbell, of the P. R. R., had picked up Harry Betz on charge of trespassing. It was learned that Betz had been seen with two sets of wagon harness, two blankets, etc., which he claimed to have found. Mr. Turner identified his blanket. Mr. Charles Baxter, of Queen Anne's, lost two sets of wagon harness Saturday night and Mr. Wm. R. Clough, of Chestertown, a fine blanket. Betz will be held for the authorities here. Sheriff Medders went to Dover yesterday to bring Betts to Kent but he is now serving 60 days in Dover jail and after that time will be brought here.

Mr. Wilbur Morris' meat house was entered Saturday night and a quantity of meat stolen.

LEGISLATIVE NEWS.

The Legislature will adjourn Monday night.

For 1911 the tax rate is to be 22 cents on the $100, and for 1912 it is to be 23½ cents.

The apportionment for 1911 is 16½ cents for public schools; 4½ cents to meet interest and create a sinking fund for the redemption of the State roads loan; one cent for the State Insane Hospital loan; one-quarter of a cent for the public highways loan of 1910, and one-eighth of a cent for the sanatorium loan.

For 1912 the items are similar, except that the tax for the State roads loan is increased to 5¼ cents and that for the public highways loan of 1910 is increased to one-half cent.

Chairman Price, of the Finance Committee, says:

The new loan for the State sanatorium adds one-eighth of a cent; for the State care of insane one cent; for the new highways loan—that for a Baltimore-Annapolis boulevard and bridges—one-quarter of a cent, and for State road loan of 1908, 4½ cents.

Two years ago Mr. Price points out, the levy for school purposes was only 13½ cents, the balance of the money required being taken from the general treasury. Then, too, Mr. Price says, the sum of 150,000 was realized from the inheritance tax.

A bill has been reported favorably empowering the Baltimore and Eastern Railway Co. to build bridges over Lankford Bay and Chester river.

The general assessment bill of real estate for the State has passed the Senate. It provides for two general assessors appointed by the Governor and other assessors in each district named by county commissioners.

We are having unusually fine weather for March. The farmers are all getting busy plowing, etc.

Mr. Mitchell moved to his new appointment. We suppose the new M. E. minister will be here in a day or two.

Mr. Parr seems to be getting along as well as he could expect since he had his shoulder dislocated.

Since the roads dried up and the traveling good the automobiles are showing up quite plentiful, as many as a dozen or more going through here in a day.

The health of our town is good, there being no sickness at present of any account.

Mr. Harry Todd expects to go to Tolchester Beach next Monday.

Sheriff Medders, with three others, drove here to-day in his automobile. Deputy Lockerman was with the sheriff. We were not sure whether the other two were prisoners or not.

PUBLIC SALE OF A LARGE
Valuable Farm

THE undersigned will sell at the Middletown Hotel in Middletown, Delaware, on Thursday, April 14, '10

AT 2 O'CLOCK P. M.,

the farm known as the "DRUMMOND FARM," situated on the Bohemia River, in "Middle Neck," Cecil county, Maryland, containing more or less, 20 acres of which is set in good Chestnut Timber.

400 Acres

The large 11-room house and outbuildings are all in excellent condition, and the farm is well fenced; there are also two good tenant houses.

This is unquestionably one of the best producing Farms on the Peninsula, is well located and in a high state of cultivation. All farmers living within a radius of ten miles of Middletown will vouch for the truthfulness of the above statement; in fact it would be hard to find a farm containing better soil or producing larger crops, and if you are looking for a good investment you cannot find a better proposition. This farm will average 25 bushels wheat and 60 bushels corn per acre, and the soil has a good clay bottom and will hold any and all improvements put on it. The six large fields have a good natural drainage and there is not a foot of low or springy land on the farm. The corn tillage for this season will be 80 acres.

Will furnish free conveyance from Middletown station to all prospective purchasers any time previous to day of sale, if given due notice. The present tenant, Mr. John W. Redgrave, will show any one over the farm and give all information desired.

Terms of Sale.

Ten (10) per cent. of purchase price to be paid on day of sale; the remainder can be paid any time within 30 days from that day. Cost of conveyance to be paid by the purchaser.

mar19-ts. MIDDLETOWN, DEL.
