SATURDAY, APRIL 30, 1910.

IN the victory of the Bond Issue Monday was another evidence that Boss rule will not be permitted. The public preferred to follow the judgement of seven rather than one!

YOU may sometimes think that mother is a little old-fashioned, but after a while you will acknowledge that she is the best advisor you have ever had.

THE Republican State Central Committee was in session in Baltimore last week to select dates for holding primaries and Congressional Conventions. Dr. Joseph I. France is mentioned as the party's candidate for Congress from this district. That's all. Hon. Harry Covington will fill the seat again.

A REFLECTION ON COURT.

The Board of County Commissioners for Kent county have decided to employ an expert accountant. What for? The resolution does not say, but it is reported to be for the purpose of arranging the books and making out the levy. If this be the case, it is certainly a needless expense, as Mr. Charles L. Dodd could do this work, do it thoroughly and at one-half what a city man would charge. If it be for the purpose of auditing the books then certainly they put very little confidence in the discretion of Hon. James A. Pearce and his associates who have named for this purpose—

E. THOMAS MASSEY, Masseys.
HENRY BROWN, Pomona.
EDWARD W. HEDERON, Kennedyville.

Three capable and interested citizens. To usurp these powers or duties of these gentlemen would certainly be a reflection upon our Honorable Court and we feel sure this is not intended.

Gentlemen, there is no need for an auditor. Your president, Mr. Harry Davis, has been present and coincided with every action of the Board, knows that everything is in good shape and the public at large, we are confident, will be satisfied with the statement as made by the Auditing Committee. What's the use saving money on roads if it is to be foolishly wasted on work of another character. Think it over again.

SOMETHING NEEDED.

In the trial of a number of cases at the recent term of the Circuit Court the public were disappointed at the result. Taken as a whole, it was an "easy" term for criminals. This does not by any means reflect upon our industrious and capable State's Attorney nor upon the Court. It is no doubt caused by a weakness in our law. Especially is this the case as regards the violation of the local option law. Kent must have a law which will cover the agent, the go-between or the runner, by whatever name it is called. At recent sessions of the Legislature several counties on the Shore have found the need of such a provision and it has been enacted and added to the local law.

This admission does not signify that public sentiment has changed, but that the violators have changed. They have learned how to violate the spirit of the law and yet keep outside its clutches. Nor does this result mean that whiskey selling will be countenanced, but rather that a closer watch will be kept and more valuable testimony produced.

In the chicken thieving cases the Court held that the evidence of a criminal involving his accomplices, unsupported by any other testimony, was insufficient to convict, and nearly all the cases were stetted. This means that the farmer will have to put stronger locks on the hennery and keep a blood-hound on guard.

MD. PRESS AT HAVRE DE GRACE

Havre de Grace, Md., April 27.—The latest methods of catching fish and the many interesting and important industries of Havre de Grace were shown the members of the Maryland Press Association today, who were in the city as the guests of the Mayor and City Council.

Besides the hauling of seines by the newest steam appliances, the members were particularly impressed with the state fish hatcheries. One of the most startling discoveries made was the fact that in the last five years the number of young fish sent out to be placed in the different rivers has dwindled from 225,000,000 to 15,000,000, and it was said that unless special legislation is passed regulating the catching of shad particularly the industry will be totally destroyed.

Col. William S. Powell, president of the Association, said in speaking of the trip: "The most surprising thing about the trip is the fact that our famous Maryland shad seem to be in dire jeopardy. We witnessed a haul which yielded only two fish, whereas under ordinary circumstances there would have been about 300 easily. Five years ago they were in the habit of catching 500." State Fish Commissioner Samuel J. Twilley, of the Eastern Shore, came to Havre de Grace today to get stock for the rivers in his territory and went away empty-handed. The condition is a serious one and it is due to the fact that fish go up to the fresh water to sprawn and there they are caught in the nets of private individuals by the score.

"The new stone quarries just opened near here will supply a large part of the stone for the building of the State roads.

"Havre de Grace is spending a great deal of money on improving its streets and already has issued bonds for $57,000 for this purpose. Considering the fact that there are only 4,000 people in the city, the plan is most commendable."

THE Stevens farm near Rock Hall was offered at public sale Tuesday and withheld at a bid of $1700. It can be bought at private sale from H. H. Barroll, Esq., of Mr. Frank E. Stevens.

THE first home-grown roses in town were seen last week in Mrs. Thomas W. Eliason's yard. She had beautiful red roses in full bloom.

THE Trustees of the Kent County almshouse entertained the Queen Anne's trustees on Thursday in a most delightful manner.

THE noted "Bentztown Bard" will lecture at Fireman's Hall, Chestertown, on Tuesday evening, May 10. Make your arrangements to be present. He is a celebrated writer and talker and you should not miss this opportunity to hear him.

Holy Hour service will take place Sunday at Sacred Heart Church at 3.30 P. M.

The Epworth League will be led Sunday evening by Mrs. F. H. Cornelius, the subject being "Empowering for Testimony."

CHESTERVILLE ITEMS.

Emmanuel Sunday School at 9.30, Preaching and Holy Communion at 10, League at 7.30, Wednesday night service at 8 o'clock.

Trinity, Millington: Sunday School at 2, Preaching and Holy Communion at 3. League at 7.30. Illustrated service at 8 o'clock.

A number of the farmers have been helping Mr. D. S. Davis, among them Messrs. J. Skinner, Walter Gale and A. W. Vansant. This is the right way and time to aid one. There is still room.

Emmanuel Sunday School will have Children's Day on the last Sunday in May. As usual it will be good; plan to be on hand. Remember the cause of Education and bring something in your pocket. It is likely that Trinity will have her's on the first Sunday in June.

Mrs. Walter Gale spent a few days with Mr. Frank Gale, her son, in Woodwardville. Mr. Frank is a telegrapher in the employ of the Penn. R. R. and occupies one of the most responsible places on the line where he handles more than 100 trains a day. He is reliable and is sure to succeed. Good men are in demand, but there is no place for the spunge.

The first Quarterly Conference of Kent will be held in Trinity Millington Saturday p. m. at 3.

Mrs. Geo. W. Penn is spending some time with her husband's folks near Baltimore. She is expected home Saturday.
