OLD WORTON TRACK REVIVED

Last Monday reminded us of the days when the Old Worton Fair was in all its glory. Quite a large crowd was present and a most pleasant series of matinee races were enjoyed. The judges were John Brice, starter; Albert Story, Elias Othoson and James G. Beck, and they gave perfect satisfaction. There were three races as follows:

CLASS A

Lady Thompson, Jos. Kennard	3	1	1
May, Frank Miller	1	4	3
MacRussell, Thos. Quigley	2	2	2
Boxwood, H. M. Matthews	4	3	4

CLASS B

Jessie, Chas. Toulson	1	1	1
Cobash, Hill Beaston	2	2	2
Betsy D., W. G. Smyth	3	3	3
George Tilghman Hudson	4	4	d

Time—2.38½, 2.38, 2.35.

CLASS C

Lady Diamond, Thos. Toulson	1	2	1
Adversity, Jr., Edmund Hurtt	2	1	3
Smokey, Raymond Bonwill	3	3	2
Marvel, Harry Legg	4	4	4

Time—2.52, 2.49, 2.53.

Arrangements are being made for another matinee race in the near future.

CHESTERTOWN FIREMEN WILL ATTEND

The Volunteer Firemen's Convention in Baltimore Next Week.

The delegates from the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. to the State Convention are Harry T. Hoyle, R. Groome Parks, J. Raymond Simpers, Merrick Clements, Wm. L. Fowler; alternates, W. B. Usilton, Jr., S. R. Matthews, Geo. H. Cannan, J. Hydie Thompson, R. Hynson Rogers.

The convention will be held June 8, 9, 10, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday and a gala time is expected in Baltimore that week.

The Convention of the Maryland State Firemen's Association will be all the more interesting as it is to be under the auspices of the Volunteer Veteran Firemen's Association.

These old fire-fighters are working diligently, and judging from the energy that is being expended upon the preparation, the affair cannot fail to score an unqualified success.

The Volunteer Veteran's Association is composed of only forty members, the youngest is 74, and the oldest 92, and as these men are assuming all the work of the prospective convention, it will prove beneficial to the city, just as all conventions invariably do. This association is the link that binds grown up Baltimore to the days of its youth, and we should cling affectionately to the little band that protected Baltimore in the undeveloped time.

The procession will occur on the ninth of June and it is estimated that there will be 10,000 uniformed men in line, and forty thousand visitors are expected which will, naturally bring prosperity to the city.

Fine Farms For Sale.—Elsewhere in the News will be found several fine farms to be sold at public sale.

On Tuesday, June 7th, will be sold the W. D. Pennington farm, near Still Pond, 216 acres.

On Tuesday, June 14th, the Hurlock farm, near Kennedyville, of 230 acres will be sold.

On Saturday, June 18th, the Howard farm in Still Pond Neck, of 370 acres will be sold. This farm has 5,000 peach trees in bearing and full of fine fruit at present.

BACKWARD

has been the season. But right to the front are the sales on MOODY & LUSBY Clothes. Not as voluminous as would have been had the weather been more propitious.

Yet we are satisfied with the output. New ones to fill the depleted stock and it is again ready. We solicit an inspection from the most careful fastidious purchaser.

Straw Hats, Felt Hats and all kinds of Hats. This is the Hat house too.
