FASHION HINTS

FROM NEW YORK AND PARIS DESIGNERS.

Coats With Larger Sleeves—High Crowned Hats—Three Quarter Sleeves.

AUGUST.—The advance models of hats, coats and dresses, to be worn during the Fall and Winter, are every day arriving from Paris.

A private view of some of the choicest of these creations has made three things certain. The first is that the kimona sleeve will be as popular as ever during the coming season, the second is that many short waisted frocks will be worn and the third fact gleaned is that all skirts, except in pleated tailor styles, will be narrow.

THE NEW FALL COATS.

Coats are to be made with slightly larger sleeves than has been the case this summer. This is especially the case in all long garments intended for automobile wear. A good many of the suit coats are semi-fitting but others are made with straight lines and do not curve in at the waist. Another point to be noted on these coats is that they do not flare but are narrow around the bottom. Coats fastened over at one side in shield effect are shown and also coats with long, narrow revers. But these latter fasten high on the chest making them practicable for cold weather.

SHORT SLEEVES.

Short sleeves, especially the three-quarter sleeves, that have been so fashionable this summer, will continue their vogue throughout the fall and winter and are to be used in all handsome gowns intended for ceremonious occasions, long sleeves being reserved for tailored gowns or morning wear.

Velvets and soft rich silks are promised a wide popularity, the fancy for tailored frocks of silk during the summer having prepared the way for a silk season.

The above design is by The McCall Company, New York, Designers and Makers of McCall Patterns.

THE NEW HATS.

The hats that are every day being brought over from Paris or evolved by the fashionable Fifth Avenue milliners are, most of them, marvels of beauty, though it must be confessed that a few are woefully eccentric. The large picture hat predominates and many of these are unusually beautiful being copied from paintings of Rembrandt, Sir Joshua Reynolds or Romney. Bunches of ostrich tips of long willow plumes ornament these hats.

Other new hats have extremely high crowns and rather narrow brims turning down in mushroom style and usually dented up in a point in front. A charming model is of black velvet trimmed with a soft boa effect of shaded pink ostrich with three standing plumes at the back.

Some very pretty, but much less expensive models are shown in felt trimmed with huge draped bows of ribbon the exact shade, or sometimes a tone lighter than the hat.

NEW EMBROIDERIES.

Broiderie Anglaise, or eyelet embroidery, is the most fashionable thing for lingerie gowns. Some of these have deep hems and bandings of white linen. Women who like to employ their leisure time for embroideries that transform an ordinary garment into the height of modishness, are overhanding the machine eyelet work with lustrous "Sida" floss that has the appearance of silk but has more smoothness and body, so that it works up in half the time that silk thread takes, with much better results. "Sida" floss is the material used on imported French dresses and other garments and is dyed in every wanted coloring. It is especially effective on chiffon or satin materials.

A USE FOR PAISLEY SHAWLS.

The craze for everything of Persian pattern or cashmere design, as it is often called, still continues and is shown both in trimmings and materials. This has brought into use the old style Paisley shawls that have been out of fashion for years and years, and they are being brought out of camphor chests and made into attractive evening wraps, trimmed with fur or bands of satin or velvet. They are also cut up and used for vests, yokes or band trimmings.

Despair and Despondency

No one but a woman can tell the story of the suffering, the despair, and the despondency endured by women who carry a daily burden of ill-health and pain because of disorders and derangements of the delicate and important organs that are distinctly feminine. The tortures so bravely endured completely upset the nerves if long continued.

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a positive cure for weakness and disease of the feminine organism.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG, SICK WOMEN WELL.

It allays inflammation, heals ulceration and soothes pain. It tones and builds up the nerves. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. Honest medicine dealers sell it, and have nothing to urge upon you as "just as good." It is non-secret, non-alcoholic and has a record of forty years of cures. ASK YOUR NEIGHBORS. They probably know of some of its many cures.

If you want a book that tells all about woman's diseases, and how to cure them at home, send 21 one-cent stamps to Dr. Pierce to pay cost of mailing only, and he will send you a free copy of his great thousand-page illustrated Common Sense Medical Adviser—revised, up-to date edition, in paper covers. In handsome cloth-binding, 31 stamps. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N.Y.
